Education Of Nagomo:

The Palgrave Handbook of Conflict and History Education in the Post-Cold War Era Luigi Cajani, Simone Lässig, Maria Repoussi, 2019-06-28 This Handbook provides a systematic and analytical approach to the various dimensions of international ethnic and domestic conflict over the uses of national history in education since the end of the Cold War With an upsurge in political social and cultural upheaval particularly since the fall of state socialism in Europe the importance of history textbooks and curricula as tools for influencing the outlooks of entire generations is thrown into sharp relief Using case studies from 58 countries this book explores how history education has had the potential to shape political allegiances and collective identities The contributors highlight the key issues over which conflict has emerged including the legacies of socialism and communism war dictatorships and genocide issues which frequently point to tensions between adhering to and challenging the idea of a cohesive national identity and historical narrative Global in scope the Handbook will appeal to a diverse academic audience including historians political scientists educationists psychologists sociologists and scholars working in the field of cultural and media studies

Physics Education for Students: An Interdisciplinary Approach Maria Teresa Caccamo, Salvatore Magazù, 2021-08-11 Physics Education for Students An Interdisciplinary Approach is a compilation of reviews that highlight new approaches and trends in teaching and learning specific topics on physics to high school and university students The reviews cover different areas of physics education laboratory activities mathematics philosophy and history and the ways that learning outcomes can be improved These distinguished areas can generate complexities and difficulties for students in learning some concepts since the same topics are often presented while following approaches that do not highlight the existing correlations among the involved disciplines The reviewers discuss an integrated framework for readers with the objective to promote the inclusion of specific laboratory activities and mathematics contents for physics courses addressed to university students with evidence of the importance of combining a historical and philosophical approach as well Specific topics in this book include the benefits of active learning in physics education dialogic best practices in science education research based proposals on optical spectroscopy in secondary schools didactic principles and e learning in physics and expansive framing in physics laboratories Physics Education for Students An Interdisciplinary Approach with its selection of expert reviews is an interesting read for academics and researchers involved in STEM education at the school or college level

The Enigma of Nagorno-Karabakh: Echoes of Conflict and Dreams of Resolution Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-22 In the heart of the Caucasus region lies a land steeped in history and conflict Nagorno Karabakh This book delves into the intricate tapestry of this contested territory exploring the historical political and cultural forces that have shaped its tumultuous destiny Through a comprehensive analysis we uncover the deep rooted grievances and aspirations of the Armenian and Azerbaijani communities tracing their origins and the events that have fueled their enduring struggle We examine the escalation of tensions in the late Soviet era the outbreak of war and the devastating consequences that continue to reverberate today The book also delves into the international dimensions of the conflict highlighting the involvement of regional and global powers and their often competing interests We analyze the challenges of peace negotiations the obstacles to reconciliation and the glimmer of hope offered by potential avenues for resolution Furthermore we amplify the voices of those directly affected by the conflict sharing their personal stories of resilience loss and hope Their narratives provide a poignant reminder of the immense suffering inflicted by war and the urgent need for a peaceful resolution Ultimately this book serves as a call for understanding empathy and reconciliation It underscores the importance of addressing the root causes of the conflict promoting dialogue and cooperation and fostering a future of peaceful coexistence for all communities in the region With its rigorous analysis insightful perspectives and compelling human stories this book offers a comprehensive understanding of the Nagorno Karabakh conflict and its enduring legacy It is a vital resource for scholars policymakers and anyone seeking to unravel the complexities of this protracted struggle If you like this book write a review on google books

Education and the Politics of Memory in Russia and Eastern Europe Sergey Rumyantsev, 2025-01-21 This book examines both formal and extracurricular education and the politics of memory and historical narratives in Armenia Azerbaijan Russia and Ukraine The misalignment between memory politics and history politics forms a central theme of this book Structured in three parts it focuses on school education in the post Soviet states over the 30 years between the collapse of the Soviet Union and the 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine The chapters inquire as to how post Soviet school education politics of memory and history politics became active participants in the production of state approved ideology patriotism and a state prescribed understanding of the national past Armed conflicts in the territory of the former USSR not only saw numerous victims and refugees but also the emergence of new borders and unrecognized de facto states and the annexation of territories They also contributed to the creation of new sites of memory generated their own traditions of commemoration for the heroes and victims of these confrontations and led to the reconstruction of historical narratives and the construction of new national myths The research in this book foregrounds how the nationalization of the public space and the reconstruction of national historical narratives in the independent states reflect a desire to monopolize the power to interpret the past with low tolerance of alternative accounts In this light the book covers issues such as the nation state Sovietization national history creation memory politics religion mass media nationalism and patriotism and analyzes the relationship of Azerbaijani and Armenian Russian and Ukrainian societies with their histories and pasts A novel study on the topic of memory and history writing this is a timely contribution to the field of Post Soviet history and Russian and Eastern European Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Conflict in Nagorno-Karabakh, Abkhazia and South Ossetia Tim Potier, 2021-12-28 The conflicts in the South Caucasus are now a decade old but still appear impervious to solution The hopes that independence raised have been dashed by an insidious cocktail of past and present regional hegemony historical antipathy and Soviet planning Armenia Azerbaijan and Georgia thus continue to wait for their long awaited Spring In a region where Western academic writing has focussed during the last decade almost exclusively on the dynamics of regional security and Great Power rivalry even in the context of conflict this volume provides an important and necessary legal appraisal of the possible processes and structures which may ultimately facilitate the finding of constitutional settlement in Nagorno Karabakh Abkhazia and South Ossetia In the work Tim Potier an academic lawyer with much experience in the Caucasus has written a powerful but dispassionate account which will prove not only to be of use to academics diplomats and government officials working in the region but also be of lasting value to the ongoing development of the international law on self determination and autonomy Dr Potier also considers the fate of what he prefers to term regionally non dominant titular peoples

The Nagorno-Karabakh deadlock Azer Babayev, Bruno Schoch, Hans-Joachim Spanger, 2019-05-02 The book examines all relevant models which have been employed in settling ethno territorial conflicts since the time of the League of Nations Eight of these models have been studied in depth The aim of this analysis is to gain expertise and insights that could prove relevant to resolving the conflict in Nagorno Karabakh This potential is evaluated in the closing chapters of the volume where novel ideas on how to apply the lessons of these cases to the conflict in Nagorno Karabakh are presented This conflict carries many features typical of ethno territorial conflicts in present and past times it is neither unique nor does its settlement depend on others than the parties to the conflict Rather it is as in all other cases entrenched historical narratives and enemy images which lead to zero sum calculations and can conceivably only be overcome in a gradual process

Content Part I Nagorno Karabakh and ethno territorial conflict settlement Part II Case studies of ethno territorial conflict settlement land Bosnia and Herzegovina Kosovo South Tyrol Trieste Cyprus Northern Ireland Quebec Part III Results and conclusions A way out for Nagorno Karabakh The Editors Dr Azer Babayev is Assistant Professor of Political Science at ADA University Baku Dr Bruno Schoch is Associated Researcher at PRIF Peace Research Institute Frankfurt Frankfurt Main Dr Hans Joachim Spanger is Head of the Dissemination Division at PRIF Peace Research Institute Frankfurt Frankfurt Main

Representations of Collective Memory in Georgia, Armenia, Abkhazia and Nagorno Karabakh Bartłomiej Krzyszta, 2024-11-29 The book is a unique proposal for an integral description of memory regimes in the South Caucasus region covering both the independent states of Armenia and Georgia but also the separatist entities created as a result of the turbulent changes of the early 1990s Abkhazia and Nagorno Karabakh Being a transdisciplinary proposal encompassing the perspectives of political science history and social anthropology the book may be of interest to researchers from different academic disciplines At the same time due to its narrative form it can also be an interesting proposal for students of eastern studies allowing for a fuller understanding of the dynamics of political change in the post Soviet space The comprehensive and integral approach to the issue of analysing and interpreting collective memory through the prism of its representation presented in the form of an anthropological story based on case studies may also be of interest to those not associated with institutional Academia
