Discomfort Geoff King,2021-10-07 How do we understand types of cinema that offer experiences of discomfort awkwardness or disquieting uncertainty This book examines a number of examples of such work at the heart of contemporary art and indie film While the commercial mainstream tends to offer comforting viewing experiences or moments of discomfort that exist largely to be overcome The Cinema of Discomfort analyses films in which discomfort is offered in a sustained manner Cinema of this kind confronts us with material such as distinctly uncomfortable sexual encounters It invites us into uncertain relationships with awkward and sometimes unlikable characters It presents us with challenging behaviour or what are presented as uncomfortable realities It often refuses information on which to base judgments More discomfortingly cinema of this kind tends to provoke uncertainty at the level of what emotional responses we are encouraged to have towards difficult sometimes controversial characters or events The Cinema of Discomfort examines a number of case studies including Palindromes by Todd Solondz US and Dogtooth from Yorgos Lanthimos Greece along with other examples from Austria Sweden the UK the US and Germany Offering close textual analysis of the manner in which discomfort is generated it also asks how we should understand the appeal of such work to certain viewers and how the existence of films of this kind can be explained as products of both their socio cultural context and the more particular institutional realms of art and indie film

The Moon in Its Flight Gilbert Sorrentino,2012-11-15 Gilbert Sorrentino has long been one of our most intelligent and daring writers But he is also one of our funniest writers given to Joycean flights of wordplay punning list making vulgarity and relentless self commentary The New York Times Sorrentino s ear for dialects and metaphor is perfect his creations however brief their presence are vivid and much of his writing is very funny and clever piled with allusions The Washington Post Book World Bearing his trademark balance between exquisitely detailed narration ground breaking form and sharp insight into modern life Gilbert Sorrentino s first ever collection of stories spans 35 years of his writing career and contains both new stories and those that expanded and transformed the landscape of American fiction when they first appeared in such magazines and anthologies as Harper s Esquire and The Best American Short Stories In these grimly comic unsentimental tales the always memorable characters dive headlong into the wasteland of urban culture seeking out banal perversions confusing art with the art scene mistaking lust for love and letting petty aspirations get the best of them This is a world where the American dream is embodied in the moonlit cocktail hour and innocence passes at a breakneck speed swiftly becoming a nostalgia ridden cliché As Sorrentino says in the title story art cannot rescue anybody from anything but his stories do offer some salvation to each of us by locating hope humor and beauty amidst a prevailing wind of cynical despair Gilbert Sorrentino has published over 20 books of fiction and poetry including the classic Mulligan Stew and his latest novel Little Casino which was shortlisted for the 2003 PEN Faulkner Award After two decades on the faculty at Stanford University
