Faces Of Hope A Photographic Spiritual Essay:

Faces of Hope David J. Halliburton, 1997-01-01      The Gift of the Face Shamoon Zamir, 2014-08-14 Edward S Curtis's The North American Indian is the most ambitious photographic and ethnographic record of Native American cultures ever produced. Published between 1907 and 1930 as a series of twenty volumes and portfolios, the work contains more than two thousand photographs intended to document the traditional culture of every Native American tribe west of the Mississippi. Many critics have claimed that Curtis's images present Native peoples as a vanishing race, hiding both their engagement with modernity and the history of colonial violence. But in this major reappraisal of Curtis's work, Shamoon Zamir argues instead that Curtis's photography engages meaningfully with the crisis of culture and selfhood brought on by the dramatic transformations of Native societies. This crisis is captured profoundly and with remarkable empathy in Curtis's images of the human face. Zamir also contends that we can fully understand this achievement only if we think of Curtis's Native subjects as coauthors of his project. This radical reassessment is presented as a series of close readings that explore the relationship of aesthetics and ethics in photography. Zamir's richly illustrated study resituates Curtis's work in Native American studies and in the histories of photography and visual anthropology.

The Strange Case of William Mumler, Spirit Photographer Louis Kaplan, 2008 In the 1860s, William Mumler photographed ghosts, or so he claimed. Faint images of the dearly departed lurked in the background with the living, like his well-known photo of the recently assassinated Abraham Lincoln comforting Mary Todd. The practice came to be known as spirit photography, and some believed Mumler was channeling the dead. Skeptics, however, called it a fraudulent trick on the gullible, taking advantage of the grieving at a time of suffering and loss. Mumler's insistence that his work brought back the dead led to a sensational trial in 1869 that was the talk of the nation.

Conjuring the Spirit World George H. Schwartz, Tedi Asher, Christopher Jones, Lan Morgan, Tony Oursler, Jennifer Lemmer Posey, Mark Schwartz, 2024-09-03 Posters, photography, and objects from the height of Spiritualism and the history of magic gain renewed power when seen through today's lens. The human desire to connect with the dead since the mid-19th century gave rise to a fascination with the supernatural, and the magical. Mediums and magicians from Harry Houdini to Margery the Medium, Howard Thurston, and the Fox Sisters offered communication with the departed. At its core, magic shows two interrelated forms of popular culture that relied heavily on illusions and stagecraft. This is the first illustrated volume to gather the art and objects that made medium and magician performances iconic during the Spiritualism movement and beyond, a time when people actively debated and wondered: can spirits return? An international selection of paintings, photographs, posters, stage apparatuses, film, publications, and other objects reveal how audiences were entranced and mystified by these experiential performances, captivating willing believers and garnering skeptics as they navigated the intersecting realms of science and spirituality. From the origins of the iconic Ouija board to spirit photography, this book is a treasure trove.

Face Forms in Life-Writing of the Interwar Years Teresa Bruś, 2023-08-16 This book is an interdisciplinary study of the engagement with and representation of the face across literature photography and theatre It looks at how the face is an active agent closely connected with the history of the media and the social interactions reflected in media images Focusing on the dynamic period of the interwar years it explores a range of case studies in Poland UK and the US and examines artists like Stanisław Ignacy Witkiewicz Witkacy Virginia Woolf Debora Vogel Sir Cecil Beaton Theodore W adysław Benda and Edward Gordon Craig Teresa Bru argues that these writers and photographers defended the face against threats from modern life not least the media She focuses on transformations of the face in life writing across a range of media and draws attention to the artists autobiographical narratives

The Perfect Medium Clément Chéroux, Andreas Fischer, Pierre Apraxine, Denis Canguilhem, Sophie Schmit, 2005-01-01 In the early days of photography many believed and hoped that the camera would prove more efficient than the human eye in capturing the unseen Spiritualists and animists of the nineteenth century seized on the new technology as a method of substantiating the existence of supernatural beings and happenings This fascinating book assembles more than 250 photographic images from the Victorian era to the 1960s each purporting to document an occult phenomenon levitations apparitions transfigurations ectoplasms spectres ghosts and auras Drawn from the archives of European and American occult societies and private and public collections the photographs in many cases have never before been published The Perfect Medium studies these rare and remarkable photographs through cultural historical and artistic lenses More than mere curiosities the images on film are important records of the cultural forces and technical methods that brought about their production They document in unexpected ways a period when developing photographic technology merged with a popular obsession with the occult to create a new genre of haunting experimental photographs

Hitler's Face Claudia Schmolders, 2006 In Hitler's Face Claudia Schmolders reverses the normal protocol of biography instead of using visual representations as illustrations of a life she takes visuality as her point of departure to track Adolf Hitler from his first arrival in Munich as a nattily dressed young man to his end in a Berlin bunker and beyond Perhaps never before had the image of a political leader been so carefully engineered and manipulated so broadly disseminated as was Hitler's in a new age of mechanical reproduction There are no extant photographs of him visiting a concentration camp or standing next to a corpse or even with a gun in his hand If contemporary caricatures spoke to the calamitous thoughts projects and actions of the man officially sanctioned photographs paintings sculptures and film overwhelmingly projected him as an impassioned orator or heroically isolated figure Schmolders demonstrates how the adulation of Hitler's face stands at the conjunction of one line stretching back to the eighteenth century belief that character could be read in the contours of the head and another dating back to the late nineteenth century quest to sanctify German greatness in a gallery of national heroes In Nazi ideology nationalism was conjoined to a forceful belief in the determinative power of physiognomy The mad veneration of the idealized German face in all its various aspects and the fanatical devotion to Hitler's face in particular was but one component of a project that also encouraged the ceaseless contemplation of supposedly degenerate Jewish physical traits to advance its goals

The Fabric of Hope Glenn Tinder, 2001 This superb new volume is addressed to everyone interested in hope regardless of their religious or philosophical beliefs Glenn Tinder one of our most astute and creative thinkers probes the failure of modern secular hope and shows with great sensitivity and openness why the tenets of Christian faith offer a true and meaningful source for hope amid the widespread distress confusion and despondency of contemporary life From The Critics Jean Bethke Elshtain Glenn Tinder argues compellingly that modern despondency flows from a collapse of unreasonable optimism about our individual and collective prospects By contrast to despondency and brittle optimism Tinder calls for a renewal of hope Framed by Christian belief Tinder s elegant essay reaches out to appeal to all men and women troubled by our current condition A beautifully written and touching work Michael Novak Tinder s weighty essay on the nature spirituality and politics of hope offers an illuminating perspective on a central pillar of civilization Mary Ann Glendon A pristine intellectual and spiritual achievement by one of the most penetrating thinkers of our day Richard John Neuhaus With this essay Tinder once again vindicated his reputation as one of the most incisive thinkers and graceful writers working today His is a most powerful argument that only a hope that has come to terms with all the reasons for despair can sustain us into a future that we do not and cannot control Tinder s wisdom is in knowing that attention to first things requires facing up to last things

A Stone of Hope David L. Chappell, 2009-12-07 The civil rights movement was arguably the most successful social movement in American history In a provocative new assessment of its success David Chappell argues that the story of civil rights is not a story of the ultimate triumph of liberal ideas after decades of gradual progress Rather it is a story of the power of religious tradition Chappell reconsiders the intellectual roots of civil rights reform showing how northern liberals faith in the power of human reason to overcome prejudice was at odds with the movement s goal of immediate change Even when liberals sincerely wanted change they recognized that they could not necessarily inspire others to unite and fight for it But the prophetic tradition of the Old Testament sometimes translated into secular language drove African American activists to unprecedented solidarity and self sacrifice Martin Luther King Jr Fannie Lou Hamer James Lawson Modjeska Simkins and other black leaders believed as the Hebrew prophets believed that they had to stand apart from society and instigate dramatic changes to force an unwilling world to abandon its sinful ways Their impassioned campaign to stamp out the sin of segregation brought the vitality of a religious revival to their cause Meanwhile segregationists found little support within their white southern religious denominations Although segregationists outvoted and outgunned black integrationists the segregationists lost Chappell concludes largely because they did not have a religious commitment to their cause Hope to Die David Jackson, 2017-04-06 CROSS YOUR HEART AND HOPE TO DIE A gripping serial killer thriller perfect for fans of Mark Billingham Peter James and M J Arlidge There was a hate in this killer A thirst for obliteration rather than a mere desire to end a life A brutal murder takes place in the grounds of a Liverpool cathedral A killer is on the loose driven by a chilling rage The victim the last person you d expect to be subjected to such terrible violence Can DS Nathan Cody crack the case before another innocent is chosen PRAISE FOR DAVID JACKSON Recalls Harlan Coben though for my money Jackson is the better writer Guardian Cody is up there with the best in every sense A thrilling series opener Weekend Sport A harrowing page turner from a writer who seems to know your darkest fears Terrific David Mark One heck of a story Joanna Cannon Sunday Times bestselling author of The Trouble with Goats and Sheep Very slick and very clever Mel Sherratt

Material Spirit Manuel Asensi, Carl Good, 2013-12-02 The essays in this collection examine philosophical religious and literary or artistic texts using methodologies and insights that have grown out of reflection on literature and art In them the phrase material spirit becomes a point of departure for considering the continuing spectral effects of religious texts and concerns in ways that do not simply call for or assume new or renewed forms of religiosity The writers in this collection seek to examine religion beyond traditional notions of transcendence Their topics range from early Christian religious practices to global climate change Some of the essays explore religious themes or tones in literary texts for example works by Wordsworth Hopkins Proust Woolf and Teresa of Avila Others approach in a literary critical mood philosophical or para philosophical writers such as Bataille Husserl Derrida and Benjamin Still others treat writers of a more explicitly religious orientation such as Augustine Rosenzweig or Bernard of Clairvaux

Creative Camera, 1989 EyeMinded Kellie Jones, Imamu Amiri Baraka, 2011-05-27 Selections of writing by the influential art critic and curator Kellie Jones reveal her role in bringing attention to the work of African American African Latin American and women artists

Voices of the Spirit Denise Marie Glover, 1995 This text provides a selection of African American voices describing written works oral history photographs and moving images Sources from 1883 to the 1990s are annotated and discussed and are aimed at showing more of the African American experience than is often portrayed in the mass media

Into the Great White Sands Jeanetta Calhoun Mish, Dennis Ditmanson, Jim Eckles, 2018-03-15 Varjabedian's photographs reveal snow white dunes of gypsum striking landforms storms and stillness panoramic vistas and breathtaking sunsets intricate wind blown patterns in the sand ancient animal tracks exquisite desert plants and also the people who come to experience this place that is at once spectacular yet subtle

A Companion to Hemingway's Death in the Afternoon Miriam B. Mandel, 2004 Published in 1932 Death in the Afternoon reveals its author at the height of his intellectual and stylistic powers By that time Hemingway had already won critical and popular acclaim for his short stories and novels of the late twenties A mature and self confident artist he now risked his career by switching from fiction to nonfiction from American characters to Spanish bullfighters from exotic and romantic settings to the tough world of the Spanish bullring a world that might seem frightening and even repellant to those who do not understand it Hemingway's nonfiction has been denied the attention that his novels and short stories have enjoyed a state of affairs this Companion seeks to remedy breaking new ground by applying theoretical and critical approaches to a work of nonfiction It does so in original essays that offer a thorough balanced examination of a complex boundary breaking and hitherto neglected text The volume is broken into sections dealing with the composition reception and sources of Death in the Afternoon cultural translation cultural criticism semiotics and paratextual matters and the issues of art authorship audience and the literary legacy of Death in the Afternoon The contributors to the volume four men and seven women lay to rest the stereotype of Hemingway as a macho writer whom women do not read and their nationalities British Spanish American and Israeli indicate that Death in the Afternoon even as it focuses on a particular national art discusses matters of universal concern Contributors Miriam B Mandel Robert W Trogdon Lisa Tyler Linda Wagner Martin Peter Messent Beatriz Penas Ib ez Anthony Brand Nancy Bredendick Hilary Justice Amy Vondrak and Keneth Kinnamon Miriam B Mandel teaches in the English Department of Tel Aviv University
