Faith And Practice Of Islam Three Thirteen Century Sufi Texts:

Faith and Practice of Islam William C. Chittick,1992-10-22 Translations and analyses of three Persian Sufi texts offering a perspective on Islam that is rarely met in modern works Faith and Practice of Islam ,2000 Sufi Heirs of the Prophet Arthur F. Buehler,2022-10-18 An examination of the sources and evolution of personal authority in one Islamic society Sufi Heirs of the Prophet explores the multifaceted development of personal authority in Islamic societies by tracing the transformation of one mystical sufi lineage in colonial India the Naqshbandiyya Arthur F Buehler isolates four sources of personal authority evident in the practices of the Naqshbandiyya lineage spiritual traveling status as a Prophetic exemplar and the transmission of religious knowledge to demonstrate how Muslim religious leaders have exercised charismatic leadership through their association with the most compelling of personal Islamic symbols the Prophet Muhammad Buehler clarifies the institutional structure of sufism analyzes overlapping configurations of personal sufi authority and details how and why revivalist Indian Naqshbandis abandoned spiritual practices that had sustained their predecessors for more than five centuries He looks specifically at the role of Jama at Ali Shah d 1951 to explain current Naqshbandi practices Ibn 'Arabi in the Later Islamic Tradition Alexander D. Knysh,1999-01-01 Examines the fierce controversy over the legacy of Ibn Arabi the great Islamic mystic The Cambridge Companion to Religious Experience Paul K. Moser,Chad Meister,2020-07-16 For centuries theologians and philosophers among others have examined the nature of religious experience Students and scholars unfamiliar with the vast literature face a daunting task in grasping the main issues surrounding the topic of religious experience The Cambridge Companion to Religious Experience offers an original introduction to its topic Going beyond an introduction it is a state of the art overview of the topic with critical analyses of and creative insights into its subject Religious experience is discussed from various interdisciplinary perspectives from religious perspectives inside and outside traditional monotheistic religions and from various topical perspectives Written by leading scholars in clear and accessible prose this book is an ideal resource for undergraduate and graduate students teachers and scholars across many disciplines Mysticism and Sacred Scripture Steven T. Katz,2000 This will be the fourth in an influential series of volumes on mysticism edited by Steven T Katz presenting a basic revaluation of the nature of mysticism Each presents a collection of solicited papers by noted experts in the study of religion This new volume will explore how the great mystics and mystical traditions use interpret and reconstruct the sacred scriptures of their traditions Hidden Histories of Pakistan Sarah Fatima Waheed,2022-01-20 Examines the role of progressive Muslim intellectuals in the Pakistan movement through the lens of censorship The Crisis of Kingship in Late Medieval Islam Christopher Markiewicz,2019-08-22 Explores how a new conception of kingship helped transform the Ottoman Empire from regional dynastic sultanate to global empire The Self-Disclosure of God William C. Chittick,2015-03-26 The Self Disclosure of God offers the most detailed presentation to date in any Western language of the basic teachings of Islam s greatest mystical philosopher and theologian It represents a major step forward in making available to the Western reading public the enormous riches of Islamic teachings in the fields of cosmology mystical philosophy theology and spirituality The Self Disclosure of God continues the author's investigations of the world view of Ibn al Arab the greatest theoretician of Sufism and the seal of the Muhammadan saints The book is divided into three parts dealing with the relation between God and the cosmos the structure of the cosmos and the nature of the human soul A long introduction orients the reader and discusses a few of the difficulties faced by Ibn al Arab's interpreters Like Chittick's earlier work The Sufi Path of Knowledge this book is based primarily on Ibn al Arab's monumental work al Fut t al Makk yah The Meccan Openings More than one hundred complete chapters and subsections are translated not to mention shorter passages that help put the longer discussions in context There are detailed indices of sources Koranic verses and hadiths The book's index of technical terminology will be an indispensable reference for all those wishing to delve more deeply into the use of language in Islamic thought in general and Sufism in particular

Toward a Positive Psychology of Islam and Muslims Nausheen Pasha-Zaidi, 2021-07-15 This book integrates research in positive psychology Islamic psychology and Muslim wellbeing in one volume providing a view into the international experiential and spiritual lives of a religious group that represents over 24% of the world's population It incorporates Western psychological paradigms such as the theories of Jung Freud Maslow and Seligman with Islamic ways of knowing while highlighting the struggles and successes of minoritized Muslim groups including the LGBTQ community Muslims with autism Afghan Shiite refugees and the Uyghur community in China It fills a unique position at the crossroad of multiple social science disciplines including the psychology of religion cultural psychology and positive psychology By focusing on the ways in which spirituality struggle and social justice can lead to purpose hope and a meaningful life the book contributes to scholarship within the second wave of positive psychology PP 2 0 that aims to illustrate a balance between positive and negative aspects of human experience While geared towards students researchers and academic scholars of psychology culture and religious studies particularly Muslim studies this book is also useful for general audiences who are interested in learning about the diversity of Islam and Muslims through a research based social science approach

The Innate Capacity Robert K. C. Forman, 1998 This book is the sequel to Robert Forman's well received collection The Problem of Pure Consciousness Oxford 1990 The essays in the earlier volume argued that some mystical experiences do not seem to be formed or shaped by the language system a thesis that stands in sharp contradistinction to deconstruction in general and to the constructivist school of mysticism in particular which holds that all mysticism is the product of a cultural and linguistic process In The Innate Capacity Forman and his colleagues put forward a hypothesis about the formative causes of these pure consciousness experiences All of the contributors agree that mysticism is the result of an innate human capacity rather than a learned socially conditioned and constructive process The innate capacity is understood in several different ways Many perceive it as an expression of human consciousness per se awareness itself Some hold that consciousness should be understood as a built in link to some hidden transcendent aspect of the world and that a mystical experience is the experience of that inherent connectedness Another thesis that appears frequently is that mystics realize this innate capacity through a process of releasing the hold of the ego and the conceptual system The contributors here look at mystical experience as it is manifested in a variety of religious and cultural settings including Hindu Yoga Buddhism Sufism and medieval Christianity Taken together the essays constitute an important contribution to the ongoing debate about the nature of human consciousness and mystical experience and its relation to the social and cultural contexts in which it appears

Ascent to Heaven in Islamic and Jewish Mysticism Algis Uždavinys, 2011-08 In this groundbreaking work of comparative religion Algis Uzdavins takes us deeply into the closed and blessed gardens of myth showing us the capital importance of the many varieties of ascent to heaven From the Pyramid Texts down to Second Temple Judaism and apocalyptic Christian literature and in parallel down the theurgic path of Platonic and Hermetic literature to the sanctum of the Islamic revelation in Mecca we are vividly presented with the sacramental impact of anagoge elevation to the domain of the supernal archetypes and heavenly principles As with other books by the author the face of antiquity is revealed anew full of intriguing challenging and enraptured insights

God and Globalization: Volume 3 Max L. Stackhouse, Peter J. Paris, Diane Burdette Obenchain, 2001-12-01 These volumes examine both the promise and the threat of globalization using the tools of theological ethics to understand and evaluate the social contexts of life at the deepest moral and spiritual levels

The Archetypal Sunni Scholar Aaron Spevack, 2014-09-09 Considers the work of nineteenth century theologian Ibrahim al B j r and contests the notion of intellectual decline in Islamic thought from the thirteenth through nineteenth centuries This is a rare study of a late premodern Islamic thinker Ibrahim al B j r a nineteenth century scholar and rector of Cairo s al Azhar University Aaron Spevack explores al B j r s legal theological and mystical thought highlighting its originality and vibrancy in relation to the millennium of scholarship that preceded and informed it and also detailing its continuing legacy The book makes a case for the normativity of the Gabrielian Paradigm the study of law rational theology and Sufism in the person of al B j r Soon after his death in 1860 this typical pattern of scholarship would face significant challenges from modernists reformers and fundamentalists Spevack challenges beliefs that rational theology syllogistic logic and Sufism were not part of the predominant conception of orthodox scholarship and shows this scholarly archetype has not disappeared as an ideal In addition the book contests prevailing beliefs in academic and Muslim circles about intellectual decline from the thirteenth through nineteenth centuries Spevack s trailblazing book is a lucid survey and deep analysis of the works and ideas of al B j r Spevack shows precisely how al B j r served as an archetypal Sunn scholar In the process he succeeds in evoking the subtlety sophistication and dynamism of the postclassical Islamic traditions of theology mysticism and jurisprudence Robert Wisnovsky McGill University Here is a readable and comprehensive introduction to the intellectual production of one of the last giants of the Sunn legal tradition in the nineteenth century Sensitive to the scholar s strong affiliation with a millennium long tradition this introduction will be appreciated by seasoned scholars and newcomers alike Ahmad Atif Ahmad University of California Santa Barbara Spevack's book is an important corrective to Eurocentric narratives of the nineteenth century that focus solely on Islamic thinkers whose main concern is with European modernity and its challenges while breezily ignoring the continuing tradition of madrasah scholarship in the modern period Khaled El Rouayheb Harvard University

Rethinking Ibn 'Arabi Gregory A. Lipton, 2018 Exploring how the medieval mystic Ibn Arabi has been read as an inclusive universalist through the interpretative field of Perennial Philosophy this book shows how his metaphysics is inseparably intertwined with Islamic supersessionism Ibn Arabi's universalist reception is thus traced to lineages of Eurocentrism revealing how Perennialism is itself exclusionary Goethe's Faust and the Divan of Ḥāfiẓ Hiwa Michaeli, 2019-10-21 This book explores the poetic articulations of a shift from a transcendent to an immanent worldview as reflected in the manner of evaluation of body and soul in Goethe's Faust and his Divan Focusing on two lifeworks that illustrate their authors' respective intellectual histories this cross-genre study goes beyond the textual confines of the two poets' Divans to compare important building blocks of their intellectual worlds Sufis, Salafis and Islamists Sadek Hamid, 2016-03-23 British Muslim activism has evolved constantly in recent decades What have been its main groups and how do their leaders compete to attract followers Which social and religious ideas from abroad are most influential In this groundbreaking study Sadek Hamid traces the evolution of Sufi Salafi and Islamist activist groups in Britain including The Young Muslims UK Hizb ut Tahrir the Salafi JIMAS organisation and Traditional Islam Network With reference to second generation British Muslims especially he explains how these groups gain and lose support embrace and reject foreign ideologies and succeed and fail to provide youth with compelling models of British Muslim identity Analyzing historical and firsthand community research Hamid gives a compelling account of the complexity that underlies reductionist media narratives of Islamic activism in Britain Books on Turkey, 2005 In Search of the Lost Heart William C. Chittick, 2012-02-15 Renowned scholar William C. Chittick explores the worldview of Islam in a series of essays written over thirty-six years The Literature of Islam Paula Youngman Skreslet, Rebecca Skreslet, 2006-09-20 Reference librarian and archivist Paula Union Theological Seminary and Presbyterian School of Christian Education Virginia and Rebecca a scholar of Arabic studies present a critically annotated bibliography of central works on Islam that are available in English translation They write for readers who are acquainted with the basic ideas histo
