Faith Healing In Late Byzantium:

Faith Healing in Late Byzantium Alice-Mary Maffry Talbot, 1983 Athanasios I Kult Late Byzantium Reconsidered Andrea Mattiello, Maria Alessia Rossi, 2019-03-04 Late Byzantium Reconsidered offers a unique collection of essays analysing the artistic achievements of Mediterranean centres linked to the Byzantine Empire between 1261 when the Palaiologan dynasty re-conquered Constantinople and the decades after 1453 when the Ottomans took the city marking the end of the Empire. These centuries were characterised by the rising of socio-political elites in regions such as Crete, Italy, Laconia, Serbia and Trebizond that while sharing cultural and artistic values influenced by the Byzantine Empire were also developing innovative and original visual and cultural standards. The comparative and interdisciplinary framework offered by this volume aims to challenge established ideas concerning the late Byzantine period such as decline, renewal and innovation. By examining specific case studies of cultural production from within and outside Byzantium, the chapters in this volume highlight the intrinsic innovative nature of the socio-cultural identities active in the late medieval and early modern Mediterranean vis-à-vis the rhetorical assumption of the cultural contraction of the Byzantine Empire. Visualizing Christ's Miracles in Late Byzantium Maria Alessia Rossi, 2024-05-31 Investigates the political and spiritual agenda behind monumental paintings of Christ's miracles in late Byzantine churches. Women and Religious Life in Byzantium Alice-Mary Talbot, 2024-10-28 After an introductory general essay on the life cycle and status of women in Byzantine society, this volume focuses on female religious life with particular emphasis on the role of convents as spiritual sanctuary, refuge for women in need or provider of charitable services. Several essays compare Byzantine nunneries with male monasteries, pointing out the relatively small size and lack of intellectual and artistic activity in convents and more rigorous rules of enclosure and stability. Such phenomena as double monasteries, the conversion of a monastery to a nunnery and women's economic and spiritual ties with Mount Athos are also examined. Other articles investigate issues of female sanctity and sanctification, analyzing types of women saints, women during the era of iconoclasm and the role of the family in promoting the cult of a holy woman. In addition, there are studies on healing shrines in Constantinople in the middle Byzantine and Palaiologan periods and the resurgence of hagiographical writing in the late Byzantine era, particularly the reworking of the vitae of older saints. Rural Lives and Landscapes in Late Byzantium Sharon E. J. Gerstel, 2015-07-15 This is the first book to examine the late Byzantine peasantry through written, archaeological, ethnographic and painted sources. Investigations of the infrastructure and setting of the medieval village guide the reader into the consideration of specific populations. The village becomes a micro-society with its own social and economic hierarchies. In addition to studying agricultural workers, mothers and priests, lesser-known individuals such as the miller and witch are revealed through written and painted sources. Placed at the center of a new scholarly landscape, the study of the medieval villager engages a broad spectrum of theorists including economic historians, creating predictive models for agrarian economies, ethnoarchaeologists, addressing historical continuities and disjunctions.

Fernandez,2023-03-23 This volume assesses how current approaches to iconology and iconography break new ground in understanding the signification and reception of medieval images both in their own time and in the modern world Framed by critical essays that apply explicitly historiographical and sociopolitical perspectives to key moments in the evolution of the field the volume s case studies focus on how iconographic meaning is shaped by factors such as medieval modes of dialectical thought the problem of representing time the movement of the viewer in space the fragmentation and injury of both image and subject and the complex strategy of comparing distant cultural paradigms The contributions are linked by a commitment to understanding how medieval images made meaning to highlighting the heuristic value of new perspectives and methods in exploring the work of the image in both the Middle Ages and our own time and to recognizing how subtle entanglements between scholarship and society can provoke mutual and unexpected transformations in both Collectively the essays demonstrate the expansiveness flexibility and dynamism of iconographic studies as a scholarly field that is still heartily engaged in the challenge of its own remaking Along with the volume editors the contributors include Madeline H Caviness Beatrice Kitzinger Aden Kumler Christopher R Lakey Glenn Peers Jennifer Purtle and Elizabeth Sears Byzantines, Latins, and Turks in the Eastern Mediterranean World After 1150 Jonathan Harris,Catherine Holmes,Eugenia Russell,2012-11-29 A detailed introduction provides a broad geopolitical context to the contributions and discusses at length the broad themes which unite the articles and which transcend traditional interpretations of the eastern Mediterranean in the later medieval period Holy Women of Byzantium Alice-Mary Maffry Talbot,1996 The ten holy women whose biographies are presented in Holy Women of Byzantium demonstrate the divergent paths to sanctification in Byzantium At the same time these vitae supplement traditional narrative histories of Byzantine civilization revealing a cultural ambivalence towards women the impact of Arab and Bulgarian raids and family life Architecture of the Sacred Bonna D.
