Library and Information Services to Individuals with Disabilities, 1997      Library and Information Services for Handicapped Individuals Kieth C. Wright, 1979      Library and Information Services for Individuals with Disabilities : an NCLIS Hearing in Washington, DC, July 8, 1999 United States. National Commission on Libraries and Information Science, 2001      Information Services for People with Developmental Disabilities Marilyn M. Irwin, Linda L. Walling, 1995-04-30 Developmental disabilities are the most numerous of disabilities and they are exceptionally complex This professional reference overviews developmental disabilities discusses the information needs of people with developmental disabilities and provides practical guidance to librarians and information professionals who serve them Particular attention is given to the ramifications of the Americans with Disabilities Act for librarians The first part of the book defines and describes developmental disabilities from perspectives relevant to librarians and information professionals The second part examines key life issues that have a major impact on people with developmental disabilities This section emphasizes the current trend toward the inclusion of people with developmental disabilities in mainstream society References to related information sources are included throughout The third part looks at disabilities from the perspective of the library or other information agency An appendix lists organizations agencies businesses and libraries that provide additional materials      Library and Information Services for Literacy, Productivity, and Democracy United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Human Resources. Subcommittee on Education, Arts, and Humanities, 1991      Library and Information Services to Individuals with Disabilities Ruth Nussbaum, Library of Congress. National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, 1997      Library and Information Services to Persons with Disabilities Ruth Nussbaum, 1989      Crash Course in Library Services to People with Disabilities Ann Roberts, Richard J. Smith, 2010-03-23 This book helps libraries identify and implement new ways to serve their physically or mentally disabled patrons Authors Ann Roberts and Dr Richard Smith work at the state level with persons with disabilities They find that very few librarians feel comfortable with providing services addressed to the needs of the disabled yet those who do offer services and programs other libraries can adopt and adapt Crash Course in Library Services to People with Disabilities will help librarians get up to speed in understanding disabled persons and what they can do to make library premises and holdings more accessible to them It provides basic information on the different types of mental and physical disabilities a librarian might encounter then offers a range of exemplary policies services and programs for people with disabilities efforts that are in place and working across the country      Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Donna L. Gilton, 2012 Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries demonstrates that public librarians can promote learning by combining the elements of Information Literacy Instruction ILI with traditional practices of public libraries This approach contributes to the information enfranchisement of patrons and enhances the fulfillment of the traditional goals and purposes of libraries Donna L Gilton provides background on ILI and current developments in public library instruction and also examines educational theories and practices derived from the fields of behaviorism cognitive psychology constructivism and educational humanism Additional chapters delve into practices developed to deal with diverse groups and translate the theories and practices that have been outlined into a well coordinated plan The final chapters survey the role of libraries as cultural institutions This book introduces the field of ILI to public librarians in the context of their own traditions and shows the unique ways that ILI can be implemented in public library settings It encourages librarians to rethink practices to incorporate the principles of ILI and will enable public librarians to extend and enrich their instruction on information use Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries is a valuable resource for librarians educators and leaders of public organizations
