Library Automation in Transitional Societies Andrew Lass, Richard Quandt, 2000-02-03 This is a collection of papers from a 1997 conference that attempted to assess the Andrew W Mellon Foundation's efforts to modernize Eastern European libraries after the fall of communism Looking primarily at Hungary Poland the Czech Republic and Slovakia the international panel of contributors cover library automation library policy and management strategy

Library Automation in Transitional Societies Andrew Lass, Richard Emeric Quandt, 2023 This is a collection of papers from a 1997 conference that attempted to assess the Andrew W Mellon Foundation's efforts to modernize Eastern European libraries after the fall of communism

The Changing Landscape in Eastern Europe Richard E. Quandt, 2002 This book shows the effect philanthropy can have in transferring technology in transitional societies that are turning themselves upside down It further demonstrates that retraining of people and changing their mindset are as important as the technology itself

From Gutenberg to the Global Information Infrastructure Christine L. Borgman, 2003-01-24 Will the emerging global information infrastructure GII create a revolution in communication equivalent to that wrought by Gutenberg or will the result be simply the evolutionary adaptation of existing behavior and institutions to new media Will the GII improve access to information for all Will it replace libraries and publishers How can computers and information systems be made easier to use What are the trade offs between tailoring information systems to user communities and standardizing them to interconnect with systems designed for other communities cultures and languages This book takes a close look at these and other questions of technology behavior and policy surrounding the GII Topics covered include the design and use of digital libraries behavioral and institutional aspects of electronic publishing the evolving role of libraries the life cycle of creating using and seeking information and the adoption and adaptation of information technologies The book takes a human centered perspective focusing on how well the GII fits into the daily lives of the people it is supposed to benefit Taking a unique holistic approach to information access the book draws on research and practice in computer science communications library and information science information policy business economics law political science sociology history education and archival and museum studies It explores both domestic and international issues The author's own empirical research is complemented by extensive literature reviews and analyses

International Dictionary of Library Histories David H. Stam, 2001-11 Following the format of Fitzroy Dearborn's highly successful International Dictionary of Historic Places and International Dictionary of University Histories the International Dictionary of Library Histories provides basic information for each institution location and holdings followed by an extensive 1 000 5 000 word essay on its history as well as a Further Reading list In addition the dictionary includes introductory articles on the history of various types of libraries and a library history in various regions of the world The dictionary profiles more than 200 institutions from around the world including the world's most important research libraries and other libraries with globally or regionally notable collections innovative traditions and significant and interesting histories The essays take advantage of the growing scholarship of library history to provide insightful overviews of each institution including not only the traditional values of these libraries but their innovations as well such as developments in automated systems and electronic delivery The profiles will emphasize the unique materials of research in these institutions archives manuscripts personal and institutional papers The introductory articles on types of libraries include topics ranging from theological libraries to prison libraries from the ancient to the digital An international team of more than 200 leading scholars in the field have contributed essays to the project International and Comparative Librarianship Peter Johan Lor, 2019-06-17 Based on his extensive experience in international librarianship Peter Johan Lor South Africa's first National Librarian and a former Secretary General of the IFLA has written the first comprehensive and systematic overview of international and comparative librarianship His book provides a conceptual framework and methodological guidelines for the field and covers the full range of international relations among libraries and information services with particular attention to the international political economy of information the international diffusion of innovations and policy in library and information services LIS development and international aid It concludes with a discussion of the practical relevance and future of international and comparative studies in LIS See a short interview with Peter Lor on his work <https://www.ifla.org/node/92590> Electronic Resource Management Anne Elguindi, Kari Schmidt, 2012-10-09 A significant shift is taking place in libraries with the purchase of e resources accounting for the bulk of materials spending Electronic Resource Management makes the case that technical services workflows need to make a corresponding shift toward e centric models and highlights the increasing variety of e formats that are forcing new developments in the field Six chapters cover key topics including technical services models both past and emerging staffing and workflow in electronic resource management implementation and transformation of electronic resource management systems the role of the electronic resource librarian in discovery systems layers and tools and academic library consortia and the evolving role of electronic resources and technology The leading chapters include case studies from around the world and a concluding chapter focuses on the disruptive nature of e books and how broad adoption of this format is emerging as the tipping point towards holistic resource management where separate technical services processes for print and electronic resources are finally merged An emphasis on access within the new technical services model Focuses on the unique attributes of electronic resource management that are distinct from traditional print serials workflows Covers consortia and how membership affects electronic resource management workflows priorities and technical processes The Global Emerging Market Vladimir Kvint, 2010-04-26 Despite the growing importance of the global emerging market GEM for the world's business economies and politics it has received a relatively scant amount of academic attention in business and economics courses This textbook is the first to focus on the GEM and its strategic and economic characteristics The Global Emerging Market Strategic Management and Economics describes the fundamental economic base and trends of the global marketplace GMP as well as business and management development for the conditions of emerging market countries EMCs Focusing on the formation of a strategic mindset and the decision making process it explains how to analyze the basic economic factors and the global order especially in times of crisis This text also explains how to classify countries related to this new market of tremendous opportunities Furthermore the book includes recommendations on how to develop entry and exit strategies for the GEM work in it and create efficient management systems Features include Extensive tables charts and graphs illustrating the strategic considerations of the GMP and the GEM End of chapter study questions Practical examples based on the author s involvement in the development of the GEM from both sides of the international transactions This academic book is the ideal guide for current business leaders and students on how to make strategic symmetric and asymmetric time sensitive decisions related to the GEM

Strategy for the Global Market Vladimir Kvint,2015-10-05 In the twenty first century the global community constantly strives to bring structure and order to the world through strategic means From the highest levels of governments and militaries to multilateral institutions NGOs and corporations a strategy for the future of a company region country or even the world is tantamount to success Yet few understand what strategy actually is and how it can be developed planned and implemented Strategy for the Global Market combines a fundamental study of the theory of strategy with its practical applications to provide a new approach to the global emerging market Due to the technological transformations in communications and transportation and the birth and development of both the global community and the global marketplace over the past twenty years the world s population and corporations are in much closer contact with their counterparts across the globe than ever before This has led to increasing competition and even rivalries Understanding the strategic environment as well as solving problems either through amicable means or conflict requires the powerful instrument of strategy to remain efficient and to triumph Features of this book include Methodology and practical recommendations for all stages of developing and implementing strategy A comprehensive guide with explanations and descriptions for the preparation and orderly compilation of all necessary strategy documents Real world examples taken from corporate government and military strategizing practices in emerging market countries and the global marketplace This book should be on the desk of every national regional and military leader corporate executive manager and student of strategy
