South Jersey coast to ease the symptoms The home originally a summer cottage figures greatly in their lives ever after The son grows up to be somewhat of a genius He goes to medical school and opens a practice He marries and raises five children During his lifetime he becomes adept at the practice of medicine pharmacy painting and poetry He conquers several languages and becomes an amateur boxer He joins the Army Medical Corp in 1918 and leaves his four children and a wife expecting a fifth to go to war While stationed in France he is decorated as well as wounded He returns at wars end to find his only son has acquired the same symptoms he had as a boy For the child's health they decide to move permanently to the Jersey shore He opens a practice there and all through the 1920s life goes on in a calm wonderful way although he is aware of some nagging seemingly minor medical problems The Depression comes and he finds that during the war when his wife was the only one to answer to his lawyers and bankers had robbed him blind From a life style of wealth and comfort the family is forced to go on Relief to get food on the table The doctor loses all his real estate to taxes treats his patients for free and experiences faltering health All they have left to their name is the house at the shore The doctor finally realizes that the mustard gas he was exposed to has been killing him ever since he was in the army At his death the five children who grew up to expect life would always be good and comfortable have to change their lifestyles A challenge when none were prepared to do so The story does not have a happy ending But no one ever said life was fair The house at the shore is the only survivor
