Stella Clarke will stop at nothing to protect her aging foster mother. But when sexy real estate developer Ian Steele comes to town with his sights set on her Victorian house, Stella will have to keep mistletoe and romance from softening her hardened holiday reserve. For more relatable stories of love and family, look for Harlequin Special Edition October 2023 Box Set 1 of 2. The Advocate, 1997. New York Magazine, 1988-09-12. New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. Living Life on the Edge, Gene Burgess, 2019-07-10. Gene Burgess says, "My childhood crimes never landed me in jail. However, it was on my travels to third world countries where I kept getting into trouble and could have landed in jail many times." This book chronicles the real-life experiences of a Memphis pharmacist who faces danger and forces of darkness as he travels to preach the gospel in out-of-the-way places around the globe. The Power of an Ordinary Life, Harvey A. Hook, 2007. Harvey Hook touches on the legacy each one of us hopes to leave. Hook explores the concept of redemptive action: how each of us can impact the world around us. He uses true life stories of people in ordinary life who were plunged into remarkable circumstances and achieved extraordinary things. Using both stories that are current and historical stories of younger and older people alike, this book will appeal to a wide range of people. From these stories, the author derives insights and truths to help others apply themselves to make a difference in this world
