Edith Wharton's The Age Of Innocence:

The Age of Innocence Edith Wharton, 1996-03-01 Edith Wharton's acclaimed novel of love, duty, and half-known truths in Gilded Age New York society with a foreword by bestselling author Elif Batuman. Dutiful Newland Archer, an eligible young man from New York high society, is about to announce his engagement to May Welland, a suitable match from a good family, when May's cousin, the beautiful and exotic Countess Ellen Olenska, is introduced into their circle. The Countess brings with her an aura of European sophistication and a hint of perceived scandal having left her husband and claimed her independence. Her worldliness, disregard for society's rules, and air of unapproachability attract the sensitive Newland despite his enthusiasm about a marriage to May and the societal advantages it would bring. Almost against their will, Newland and Ellen develop a passionate bond, and a classic love triangle takes shape as the three young people find themselves drawn into a poignant and bitter conflict between love and duty. Written in 1920, Edith Wharton's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel about a time and place long gone by 1870s New York City beautifully captures the complexities of passion, independence, and fulfillment, and how painfully hard it can be for individuals to truly see one another and their place in the world. For more than seventy years, Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English-speaking world. With more than 1,700 titles, Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines. Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors, as well as up-to-date translations by award-winning translators.

The Age of Innocence Edith Wharton, 2016-07-30 The Age of Innocence is Edith Wharton's twelfth novel initially serialized in four parts in the Pictorial Review magazine in 1920 and later released by D Appleton and Company as a book in New York and in London It won the 1921 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction The Age of Innocence was a softer and more gentle work than The House of Mirth set in the time of her childhood Wharton wrote I found a momentary escape in going back to my childish memories of a long vanished America it was growing more and more evident that the world I had grown up in and been formed by had been destroyed in 1914 Scholars and readers alike agree that The Age of Innocence is fundamentally a story which struggles to reconcile the old with the new Wharton was raised in that old world of rigid and proper New York society which features in the story She spent her middle years including the first World War in Europe where the devastation of new mechanized warfare was felt most deeply As explained by Millicent Bell in the Cambridge companion to Wharton The Age of Innocence was composed and first read in the aftermath of Roosevelt's death and in the immediate wake of World War I We frame the ending remembering the multiple losses not only the loss of Roosevelt but the destruction of the prewar world and all that Wharton valued in it With the first World War a definitive line was crossed There would be no return to the New York of old from which Wharton was raised And for all that can be condemned in that there is a certain tenderness with which she crafts the world as if she had forgotten nothing This intones the title word innocence as the novel seems to connect personal innocence with that of national innocence To Robert Martin The Age of Innocence was fundamentally about America and its failure to fulfill its own possibilities
