Environmental Justice, Popular Struggle and Community Development Anne Harley,Eurig Scandrett,2019-06-05 Struggles for environmental justice involve communities mobilising against powerful forces which advocate development driven increasingly by neoliberal imperatives In doing so communities face questions about their alliances with other groups working with outsiders and issues of class race ethnicity gender worker community and settler indigenous relationships Written by a wide range of international scholars and activists contributors explore these dynamics and the opportunities for agency and solidarity They critique the practice of community development professionals academics trade union organisers social movements and activists and inform those engaged in the pursuit of justice as community development and environment interact Competences in Education for Sustainable Development Paul Vare, Nadia Lausset, Marco Rieckmann, 2022-02-02 This volume highlights key moments and movements in this competence turn in Education for Sustainable Development ESD and explores the different ways in which competences have been conceptualized and implemented By marshaling a dialogue between chapters and sections the book provides a coherent whole that will become a key source on ESD competences The contributors develop a conceptual map against which to chart existing and future ESD competence frameworks offer new critical case studies that explore the implementation of educator competences in ESD at different structural levels in different European contexts explore the link between pedagogy and educator competence through hitherto unpublished case studies based on current practices across Europe and consider the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on ESD and educator competence The book comprises 23 chapters divided into four sections with an introduction and concluding chapter Section One introduces concepts and models related to ESD competences while the following two sections focus on implementation and pedagogy In light of the foregoing material the shorter Section Four is both reflective and forward looking The primary audience for this book will be academics and students working in the fields of Education Sustainability Science and related disciplines EcoJustice, Citizen Science and Youth Activism Michael P. Mueller, Deborah J. Tippins, 2014-12-02 This volume draws on the ecojustice citizen science and youth activism literature base in science education and applies the ideas to situated tensions as they are either analyzed theoretically or praxiologically within science education pedagogy It uses ecojustice to evaluate the holistic connections between cultural and natural systems environmentalism sustainability and Earth friendly marketing trends and introduces citizen science and youth activism as two of the pedagogical ways ecojustice philosophy can be enacted It also comprises evidence based practice with international service community embedded curriculum teacher preparation citizen monitoring and community activism student scientist partnerships socioscientific issues and new avenues for educational research Rural Teacher Education Michael Corbett, Dianne Gereluk, 2020-02-15 This book examines challenges associated with the education of teachers in and for rural places It offers a new perspective with respect to how Canadian educators are shifting the conversation toward a hopeful discourse concerning how educators can foster meaningful rural learning environments which will contribute to building stronger rural communities and regions A central focus of the book is emerging reconceptualization of education place and indigeneity in Canadian education in the wake of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Though the challenge of addressing rural teaching and learning lies partly in the nuances and complexities of unique places there are also common threads that affect virtually all communities in rural regional and remote educational cultural economic and social geographies Chapters in this collection provide current research in Canadian rural education including examples and stories from the field contributed by teachers administrators and superintendents on the challenges and creative opportunities that they have discovered in their own rural context giving hope and inspiration for what is possible The book will appeal to all readers interested in rural education and teacher education as well as to those concerned with educational inequality and indigenous education

Building Networks for Critical and Altruistic Science

Education John Lawrence Bencze,2025-05-22 This edited volume provides theory based accounts often with practical examples of how educators from various jurisdictions in elementary secondary and tertiary formal education contexts as well as community based situations have helped students critically evaluate the relationships among science technology STEM society and the environment The goal is to develop and implement personal and sociopolitical actions to address concerns Collectively the perspectives and examples in the chapters form an expanding Foucauldian dispositif countering hegemonic mechanisms that favor a few elites at the expense of the wellbeing of most other living and nonliving things Many accounts draw on the STEPWISE project illustrating how a biotic and symbolic actants have been progressively assembled to promote more critical and altruistic citizenship

Greene,Samara S. Foster,2023-10-06 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 License It is free to read download and share on Elgaronline com This ground breaking book explores ways to integrate environmental justice modules into courses across a wide variety of disciplines Recommending accessible flexible and evidence based pedagogical approaches designed by a multidisciplinary team of scholars it centers equity and justice in student learning and course design and presents a model for faculty development that can be communicated across disciplines

Social Justice,

Peace, and Environmental Education Julie Andrzejewski,Marta Baltodano,Linda Symcox,2009-04-01 The concept of standards seems antithetical to the ways critical educators are dedicated to teaching but what would standards look like if they were generated from social justice perspectives and through collaborative and inclusive processes Such is the central question posed by the contributors of this groundbreaking collection on the interconnectivity of social justice peace and environmental preservation Challenging education that promotes consumerism careerism and corporate profiteering they boldly offer examples of a new paradigm for practicing a transformative critical pedagogy Rather than just talking about coalition building within and across educational communities they demonstrate how we might communicate from different vantage points and disciplinary boundaries to create a broader picture of social and eco justice Social Justice Peace and Environmental Education will be required reading for educators and students who want to envision and practice living acting and teaching for a better world

The SoJo Journal Brad J.
