On the Aesthetic Education of Man Friedrich Schiller, 2016-09-29 The artist is certainly the child of his age but all the worse for him if he is at the same time its pupil even worse its minion On the Aesthetic Education of Man is one of the most profound works of German philosophy in which Friedrich Schiller analyses politics revolution and the history of ideas to define the relationship between beauty and art Resulting from Schiller s deep disillusionment with the course of the French Revolution and expressed as a series of letters to a patron On the Aesthetic Education of Man is an impassioned attempt to drag mankind upwards from failure to greatness through placing ideas of aesthetic education at the heart of the human experience Our era has actually taken both wrong turnings and has fallen prey to coarseness on the one path lethargy and perversity on the other Having strayed along both paths it is beauty that can lead us back Schiller's arguments are as arresting challenging and inspiring today as when they were first written it is above all one of the great political statements from a time of revolutionary change

Human Rights Education Beyond Universalism and Relativism F.

Al-Daraweesh, Dale T. Snauwaert, 2016-05-24 Through the preservation of the social political and cultural autonomies of peoples within diverse cultural contexts Al Daraweesh and Snauwaert propose a relational epistemology for human rights education

An Education in Judgment D. N. Rodowick, 2023-08-02 In An Education in Judgment philosopher D N Rodowick makes his definitive case for a philosophical humanistic education as the development of a life guided by both self reflection and interpersonal exchange Such a life is an education in judgment the moral capacity to draw conclusions alone and with others and to let one's own judgments be answerable to the potentially contrasting judgments of others Thinking for Rodowick is an art we practice with and learn from each other all the time In taking this approach Rodowick follows the lead of Hannah Arendt who made judgment the cornerstone of her conception of community Arendt was famously wary of mass culture and so community in an authentic sense must be safeguarded from its many false guises What is important for Rodowick as for Arendt is the cultivation of free relations in which we allow our judgments to be affected and transformed by those of others creating an ever widening fabric of intersubjective moral consideration This is a fragile fabric to be sure but one well worth pursuing caring for and preserving This is an original work in which the author thinks with Arendt about the importance of the humanities and what the humanities amounts to beyond the university

The Education of Man Friedrich Froebel, 2012-10-31 In this classic of childhood education Friedrich Froebel identifies the fundamental principles upon which he based his now ubiquitous kindergarten system Froebel demonstrates how to channel child's play and integrate it into the development of intelligence and social skills explaining the vital inner connection between the pupil's mind and the subject of study Impressed by the theories of Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi Froebel developed an approach to early childhood education that exercised enormous influence over modern techniques particularly those of John Dewey Froebel espoused self activity and play as essential factors in preschool education maintaining that the teacher's role is not to drill or indoctrinate but to encourage self expression through play His method banishes mechanical and rote activities in favor of creative play which fosters the growth of artistic capacity Originally published in Germany in 1826 as Die Menschenerziehung this volume constitutes one of the most important books on education ever written
