Döblin, L. Feuchtwanger, A. Seghers, A. Zweig* Alexander Stephan,2003-03-17 This collection of High Modernism among Austrian and German writers includes Pogrom and a selection from The Case of Sergeant Grischa by Arnold Zweig The Murder of a Buttercup and a selection from Berlin Alexanderplatz recently cited as one of the 100 Most Meaningful Books of All Time in a survey that was reported in The Guardian and made into a landmark multipart television series by Rainer Werner Fassbinder by Alfred Döblin Selections from Jew Süss and The Oppermans by Lion Feuchtwanger A selection from The Seventh Cross and Excursion of the Dead Girls by Anna Seghers Culture in Dark Times Jost Hermand,2014-09 BETWEEN 1933 AND 1945 MEMBERS OF THREE GROUPS THE Nazi fascists Inner Emigration and Exiles fought with equal fervor over who could definitively claim to represent the authentically great German culture as it was culture that imparted real value to both the state and the individual But when authorities made pronouncements about culture were they really talking about high art This book analyzes the highly complex interconnections among the cultural political concepts of these various ideological groups and asks why the most artistically ambitious art forms were viewed as politically important by all cultured or even semi cultured Germans in the period from 1933 to 1945 with their ownership the object of a bitter struggle between key figures in the Nazi fascist regime representatives of Inner Emigration and Germans driven out of the Third Reich

German Literature and the First World War: The Anti-War Tradition Brian Murdoch, 2016-03-09 The period immediately following the end of the First World War witnessed an outpouring of artistic and literary creativity as those that had lived through the war years sought to communicate their experiences and opinions In Germany this manifested itself broadly into two camps one condemning the war outright the other condemning the defeat Of the former Erich Maria Remarque's All Quiet on the Western Front remains the archetypal example of an anti war novel and one that has become synonymous with the Great War Yet the tremendous and enduring popularity of Remarque's work has to some extent eclipsed a plethora of other German anti war writers such as Hans Chlumberg Ernst Johannsen and Adrienne Thomas In order to provide a more rounded view of German anti war literature this volume offers a selection of essays published by Brian Murdoch over the past twenty years Beginning with a newly written introduction providing the context for the volume and surveying recent developments in the subject the essays that follow range broadly over the German anti war literary tradition telling us much about the shifting and contested nature of the war The volume also touches upon subjects such as responsibility victimhood the problem of historical hiatus in the production and reception of novels drama poetry film and other literature written during the war in the Weimar Republic and in the Third Reich The collection also underlines the potential dangers of using novels as historical sources even when they look like diaries One essay was previously unpublished two have been augmented and three are translated into English for the first time Taken together they offer a fascinating insight into the cultural memory and literary legacy of the First World War and German anti war texts

Muleskinner William Hesler, 2010-12-14 Based on the experiences of an ammunition driver in the Canadian Artillery this book will give the reader a quick understanding of Canada's involvement in World War One Follow Driver Hesler as he moves up to the line and back during the battles of the Somme Vimy Ridge Lens Passchendaele and the Allied advance during the last hundred days of the war At each step the author zooms out to the bigger picture to capture the folly and the tragedy of the war itself a war which would have lasted longer without the enormous sacrifice of a young country which had no chance to stay out of it The term muleskinner was an epithet which although originally intended to malign both the animal and the man ironically became a proud boast by the latter What both had to go through in the course of World War I explains why In the First World War territorial designs were secondary and the civilian populations were largely spared except for famine and disease It was a war characterized by stupidity It was not the oppression of one people by another It was a war in which each side preyed upon itself Fascism, Aviation and Mythical Modernity Fernando Esposito,2015-09-29 Flying and the pilot were significant metaphors of fascism s mythical modernity Fernando Esposito traces the changing meanings of these highly charged symbols from the air show in Brescia to the sky above the trenches of the First World War to the violent ideological clashes of the interwar period German Film & Literature Eric Rentschler,2013-10-15 First Published in 1986 This collection of essays by an international team of scholars is the first sustained investigation in any language of the historical interactions between German film and literature It is a book about adaptations and transformations about why filmmakers adapt certain material at certain times The major impetus at work is the desire to expand the field of adaptation study to include sociological theoretical and historical dimensions and to bring a livelier regard for intertextuality to the studies of German film and literature It is concerned with the ways in which filmmakers in Germany from Pabst and von Sternberg to Fassbinder Herzog and Sanders Brahms have engaged and been engaged by literary history The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel,2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading The Novels of Erich Maria Remarque Brian Murdoch,2006 New view of Remarque s novels as a chronicle of the century yet more than a mere reflection of historical events All the World at War James Charles Roy,2024-05-31 While battles and wars and the clash of civilizations are as old as time itself there is little doubt that the conflagration of 1914 1918 was something unique and terrifyingly new There was not a corner of the globe that did not feel its effects some more than others but the scope of its impact on economies populations food supplies the character of governments in general and the day to day lives of numberless ordinary people were such as the world had never experienced nor expected Little did anyone dream that the assassination of relatively minor figures of the Habsburg royal family Archduke Ferdinand of Austria and his wife carried out by an unknown Serbian teenager on the street corner of an obscure town called Sarajevo that few had ever heard of could possibly provide a spark that would plunge the entire European continent into an industrialized war of catastrophic destruction But it did the two shots that youth fired were surely heard around the world and several million people would perish or be maimed as a result The story of World War I has been told by many different writers historians and participants in many different ways especially so before and during the centennial of its events that just concluded All the World at War stands apart from many of these standard studies It presents a familiar story from points of view that many readers might find surprising unexpected details different perspectives atypical and generally insightful observations from contemporaries often obscure to modern readers who witnessed the events and personalities that pushed the war along from phase to phase The narrative is chronologically arranged beautifully written with something new or intriguing on every page This is a unique and finely paced account of The War to End all Wars that didn't

The Story of Secret Service Richard Wilmer Rowan, 1937 The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 Mimetic Desire Jeffrey Adams, Eric Williams, 1995 Reconsideration of the phenomenon of narcissism in the works of a number of important German writers This important collection of essays opens new psychological perspectives on writers such as Tieck Goethe Freud Thomas Mann Heidegger and Thomas Bernhard Psychological approaches to literature have grown rapidly in the last few decades new developments in literary psychoanalysis mirroring the reassessment of Freud in the psychoanalytic community particularly important revisions have come both from the Lacanian school and from the field of object relations and self psychology The latter studies narcissism not only as a pathological condition but as a healthy and universal aspect of all psychological reality Theorists such as Heinz Kohut have also suggested that the transformations of narcissism can be healthy and may contribute to the development of wisdom humour and creativity The articles in this volume consider the phenomenon of narcissism across a wide range of works several reflecting the current re-evaluations of narcissism as a counter challenge to Freudian thought and attitudes

Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature
