Education Of Everett Richardson The Nova Scotia Fishermens Strike:

The Education of Everett Richardson Silver Donald Cameron, Donald Cameron, 1977 Cape Bretoniana Beaton Institute of Cape Breton Studies, 2005-01-01 Nova Scotia's Cape Breton Island is a beautiful region with a unique community whose history and ethnic composition have resulted in the evolution of a powerful sense of identity and place While outsiders may think only of the island's perennial economic woes and long economic dependence on coal mining and steel production it is also the home of a rich vibrant and distinct culture Brian Douglas Tennyson's Cape Bretoniana is the first bibliography to gather together all known publications relating to the history culture economy and politics of Cape Breton Island With more than 6000 entries it not only provides a comprehensive listing of publications and post graduate theses but also detailed annotations on the listings Each entry lists the author title place of publication publisher date of publication volume and issue number in the case of periodicals and page references followed by a brief description of the item Cape Breton has never been so thoroughly documented This bibliography will help to ensure that even in a world becoming increasingly homogenized by the forces of globalization unique cultural identities like Cape Breton's can be preserved and nurtured Rebel Youth Ian Milligan, 2014-01-01 Rebel Youth draws important connections between the stories of young workers and the youth movement in Canada claiming a central place for labour and class in the legacy of the 1960s The Canadian Labour Movement: A Short History Craig Heron, 1996 The Canadian Labour Movement is a fascinating story that brings to life the working men and women who built Canada's unions This concise history recounts the story of Canadian labour from the nineteenth century to the present day First published in 1989 it has been updated to include new developments in the world of labour up to 1995 Heron depicts the major events and trends in labour's history and assesses the current state and direction of the labour movement The Canadian Labour Movement is a masterful overview of the subject providing a broad and accessible introduction to Canadian labour The Canadian Labour Movement Craig Heron, 2020-06-01 In The Canadian Labour Movement historian Craig Heron and political scientist Charles Smith tell the story of Canada's workers from the midnineteenth century through to today painting a vivid picture of key developments such as the birth of craft unionism the breakthroughs of the fifties and sixties and the setbacks of the early twenty first century The fourth edition of this book has been completely updated with a substantial new chapter that covers the period from the great recession of 2008 through to 2020 In this chapter Smith describes the fallout of the financial crisis how Stephen Harper's government restricted labour rights the rise of the gig economy and precarious work and the continued de industrialization in the private sector These pressures contributed to fracturing the movement as when Unifor the largest private sector union split from the Canadian Labour Congress the established house of labour Through it all rank and file union members have fought for better conditions for all workers including through campaigns like the fight for a 15 minimum wage The Canadian Labour Movement is the definitive book for anyone interested in understanding the origins achievements and challenges of the labour and social justice movements in Canada Quest of the Folk Ian McKay, 2009-05 Debunking the myth of Nova Scotians as simple folk Nova Scotia David Orkin, 2013 Virtually surrounded by the sea the ocean's salty waters pulse through Nova Scotia's historic veins Nova Scotia's rich folklore is steeped in sea related superstitions together with fables myths Scottish legends and ghost stories Here fishermen have cast their nets for centuries and the abundance of contemporary seafood restaurants and historic lighthouses breathe life into their traditions It includes detailed sections on topics such as wildlife history culture sights and cuisine Resident in the province David Orkin's insider knowledge provides in depth insight into the best B Bs wineries beaches remote villages and top spots to see moose and seals while cycling and walking Interviews with locals bring the destination to life For everyone from the first time visitor to the most seasoned traveller this guide delves deeper than any other guide to reveal the best of this fascinating province both on and off the beaten track Canadian History: Confederation to the present Martin Brook Taylor, Doug Owram, 1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader's Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship Cover The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy Daniel Drache, Wallace Clement, 1985-01-01 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy is a handy reference to the vast range of research and writing that political economists in Canada have completed to the date of publication The book is divided into twenty five subject bibliographies each one compiled and introduced by an expert in the field The overall range of subjects includes economic development in Canada Canada's external economic relations regional disparities and regional development social and economic classes women Native peoples politics and the Canadian state nationalism culture and political thought The book is indexed by author and includes a helpful shortlist of the staples in Canadian political economy Published in 1985 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy remains a useful reference to some of the classic literature of the discipline Nonviolent Action Ronald M. McCarthy, Gene Sharp, Brad Bennett, 2013-07-04 This comprehensive guide to research sources and theories about nonviolent action as a technique of struggle in social and political conflicts discusses the methods and techniques used by groups in various encounters Although violence and its causes have received a great deal of attention nonviolent action has not received its due as an international phenomenon with a long history An introduction that explains the theories and research used in the study provides a practical guide to this essential bibliography of English language sources The first part of the book covers case study materials divided by region and subdivided by country Within each country materials are arranged chronologically and topically The second major part examines the methods and theory of nonviolent action principled nonviolence and several closely related areas in social science such as conflict analysis and social movements The book is indexed by author and subject Churches of Nova Scotia Robert Tuck, 2004 Both text and photographs tell the story of more than 30 churches from all parts of the province and a variety of denominations and eras

Blood in the Water Silver Donald Cameron, 2021-11-23 Fascinating A must read for all concerned about how humans manage to live together Or not Margaret Atwood Superb an instant true crime classic Publishers Weekly starred review A masterfully told true story perfect for fans of Say Nothing and Furious Hours a brutal murder in a small Nova Scotia fishing community raises urgent questions of right and wrong and even the very nature of good and evil In his riveting and meticulously reported final book Silver Donald Cameron offers a stunning intricate narrative about a notorious killing and its devastating repercussions Cameron s searing utterly gripping story about one small community raises a disturbing question Are there times when taking the law into your own hands is not only understandable but the responsible thing to do In June 2013 three upstanding citizens of a small town on Cape Breton Island murdered their neighbor Phillip Boudreau at sea While out checking their lobster traps two Landry cousins and skipper Dwayne Samson saw Boudreau in his boat the Midnight Slider about to vandalize their lobster traps Like so many times before the small time criminal was about to cost them thousands of dollars out of their seasonal livelihood Boudreau seemed invincible a miscreant who would plague the village forever Meanwhile the police and local officials were frustrated cowed and hobbled by shrinking budgets One of the men took out a rifle and fired four shots at Boudreau and his boat Was the Boudreau killing cold blooded murder a direct reaction to credible threats or the tragic result of local officials failing to protect the community As many local people have said if those fellows hadn t killed him someone else would have Canadian Labour History David Jay Bercuson,1987 Solidarity Beyond Bars Jordan House,Asaf Rashid,2022-11-15T00:00:00Z Prisons don t work but prisoners do Prisons are often critiqued as unjust but we hear little about the daily labour of incarcerated workers what they do how they do it who they do it for and under which conditions Unions protect workers fighting for better pay and against discrimination and occupational health and safety concerns but prisoners are denied this protection despite being the lowest paid workers with the least choice in what they do the most vulnerable among the working class Starting from the perspective that work during imprisonment is not rehabilitative this book examines the reasons why people should care about prison labour and how prisoners have struggled to organize for labour power in the past Unionizing incarcerated workers is critical for both the labour movement and struggles for prison justice this book argues to negotiate changes to working conditions as well as the power dynamics within prisons themselves In Defence of Home Places Mark R. Leeming,2017-06-07 As environmental deterioration became a major political issue near the end of the twentieth century activists in Nova Scotia stood together to defend the places they called home They cooperated to protect local environments and economies but they disagreed about the causes of environmental problems the role of humanity in nature and the place of environmentalists in the political process In Defence of Home Places examines the diversity of environmental activism in Nova Scotia illustrating how radicals and conservatives combined efforts to achieve early legislative and social success It also chronicles the debates and disagreements over fundamental principles that then weakened and divided the powerful environmental movement Placing the evolution of Nova Scotian environmental activism within a broader theoretical framework Mark R Leeming considers its development in national and international contexts examining the environmental movement itself along with the choices and tactics that brought about its greatest successes and failures Education in Canada E. Gault Finley,National Library of Canada,1989 Thinking Union D'Arcy Martin,1995 Over the past seventeen years trade union educator D Arcy Martin has conducted hundreds of courses for Canadian workers He has learned that there are people conscious romantics who dream of a more egalitarian world while confronting the obstacles that stand in the way of building it This book provides a refreshing personal account of union culture and its dynamics Atlantic Fisheries and Coastal Communities Cynthia Lamson,Arthur J. Hanson,1984
