Civic Learning for Alienated, Disaffected and Disadvantaged Students Xiaoxue

Kuang,Jinxin Zhu,Kerry J Kennedy,2021-05-13 In their journeys to engaged citizenship civic education is a right for all students helping them to become active and informed However for some students there are barriers to engagement It is these barriers that are dealt with in this book Civic education is a key component of the school curriculum irrespective of country and political system Ensuring that young people understand the political and social contexts of their country and indeed their planet is a key requirement in a rapidly changing and unpredictable world Providing access to civic learning therefore is a priority for schools and the societies in which they are embedded Yet for some students barriers exist which prevent a deep understanding of the requirements for full participation and engagement These students are neglected not only in schools but in research as well This book seeks to fill that gap by shining a light on the multiple disadvantages that many students suffer in seeking to exercise their rights as active and informed citizens The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Educational Psychology
