Facing The Twentieth Century:

The Twentieth Century Mould Book Dentists' Supply Co. of New York, 1914 Facing the Twentieth Century James Marcus King, 1899 Facing the Fiend Eva Marta Baillie, 2014-09-25 Satan is not a theological concept but a literary construct Facing the Fiend places the character within a well defined literary tradition Satan is established to be a highly ambiguous figure who plays a central narrative role in a wide variety of texts Acknowledging that the character of the devil is inherently problematic Eva Marta Baillie deftly argues that the Satan of the Christian faith can be best understood phenomenologically through his roles and functions in stories The author goes on to construct a detailed and wide ranging picture of Satan's depictions in literature presented with persuasive flair and a strong command of the subject matter Discourse similarly touches upon wider issues of evil and how it too is best understood in a literary context Facing the Fiend offers an intriguing insight into the cultural representations of Satan making for a thought provoking and engaging read Such a comprehensive study will appeal to those with an academic interest in the relationship between theology and literature as well as to the general reader curious about the portrayal of religion in works of fiction Facing the Twentieth Century; Our Country James M. (James Marcus) King, 2012-08-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy The Christian Advocate, 1901 About Face: A Novel William Giraldi, 2022-09-06 A tragicomic novel of a fame obsessed American society yet again on the brink Evoking such classics as Elmer Gantry and The Day of the Locust William Giraldi's About Face boldly transfers the perennial literary themes of celebrity ambition and obsession to twenty first century Boston There we meet Val Face a charismatic self help guru who captivates multitudes with his uncanny ability to heal adherents using only the power of his words the mysterious touch of his hands and the transcendent beauty of his face Assigned to write a profile of Val Face during his much hyped New England tour thirty year old impoverished journalist Seger Jovi pens a brutal hatchet job But Seger at once curious and incredulous is soon sucked into the mystic's vortex of fame becoming a devotee himself as he contends with the machinations and absurdities of Face's many protectors from beefcake bodyguards to helicoptering handlers to Face's unwavering spouse Nimble At first unwilling to sacrifice his principles to fulfill his own ambition and rise from privation then touched by Face's unexpected humanity Seger oscillates between acting as Face's cynical foil and becoming his unlikely ally Just as the exalted guru appears to be reaching the apex of his powers danger threatens from the periphery in the form of an obsessive stalker who wants Face dead To curb this stalker before he can do harm Face's security team enlists the aid of Jackie Jaworski an ex Marine and resourceful Boston detective who moonlights as a novelist of thrillers And so About Face building to a denouement that will astonish readers takes us into the convergence of violence and fame that has come to define so much of American popular culture over the last half century With its indelible array of characters hypnotic pacing and shocking conclusion and a mesmerizing prose style that is downright pyrotechnic in its brilliance Andre Dubus III About Face is a novel in the grand tradition that dances along the tenuous line between the sacred and the profane

The Many Faces of Political Islam Mohammed Ayoob, 2009-12-21 Analysts and pundits from across the American political spectrum describe Islamic fundamentalism as one of the greatest threats to modern Western style democracy Yet very few non Muslims would be able to venture an accurate definition of political Islam Mohammed Ayoob's The Many Faces of Political Islam thoroughly describes the myriad manifestations of this rising ideology and analyzes its impact on global relations In this beautifully crafted and utterly compelling book Mohammed Ayoob accomplishes admirably the difficult task of offering a readily accessible yet nuanced and comprehensive analysis of an issue of enormous political importance Both students and specialists will learn a great deal from this absolutely first rate book Peter J Katzenstein Walter S Carpenter Jr Professor of International Studies and Stephen H Weiss Presidential Teaching Fellow Cornell University Dr Ayoob addresses the nuances and complexities of political Islam be it mainstream radical or militant and offers a road map of the pivotal players and issues that define the movement There is no one as qualified as Mohammed Ayoob to write a synthesis of various manifestations of political Islam His complex narrative highlights the changes and shifts that have taken place within the Islamist universe and their implications for internal Muslim politics and relations between the world of Islam and the Christian world Fawaz A Gerges Carnegie Scholar and holds the Christian A Johnson Chair in International Affairs and Middle Eastern Studies Sarah Lawrence College Let's hope that many readers not only academics but policymakers as well will use this invaluable book Fran ois Burgat Director French National Centre for Scientific Research CNRS and the Institute for Research and Study on the Arab and Muslim World IREMAM Aix en Provence France This is a wonderful concise book by an accomplished and sophisticated political scientist who nonetheless manages to convey his interpretation of complex issues and movements to even those who have little background on the subject It is impressive in its clarity providing a badly needed text on political Islam that's accessible to college students and the general public alike Shibley Telhami Anwar Sadat Professor for Peace and Development University of Maryland and Senior Fellow Brookings Institution Mohammed Ayoob is University Distinguished Professor of International Relations with a joint appointment in James Madison College and the Department of Political Science at Michigan State University He is also Coordinator of the Muslim Studies Program at Michigan State University

Faces of the State Yael Navaro-Yashin, 2020-06-16 Faces of the State is a penetrating study of the production of a state revering political culture in the public life of 1990s Turkey In this new contribution to the anthropology of the state Yael Navaro Yashin brings recent poststructuralist and psychoanalytic theory to bear on the study of the political Delving deeper than studies of nationalist discourse that would focus on consciously articulated narratives of political identity the author explores sites of fantasy in the public political domain of Istanbul The book focuses on the conflict over secularism in the aftermath of an Islamist victory in the city s municipalities In contrast with studies that would problematize and objectify religious movements the author examines the agency of secularists under a state widely known for its secularist policies The complexity and dynamism of the context studied moves well beyond scholarly distinctions between secularity and religion as well as state and society Here secularism and Islamism emerge as different guises for a culture of statism where people from society compete to claim Turkish culture for themselves and their life practices With this work that stretches the boundaries of regionalism the author situates her anthropological study of Turkey not only in scholarship on the Middle East but also in the broader problem of thinking Europe anew

The Three Faces of Leadership Mary Jo Hatch, Monika Kostera, Andrzej K. Kozminski, 2009-02-04 The Three Faces of Leadership takes readers inside the minds of CEOs who have been celebrated by the Harvard Business Review over the last decade of the twentieth century Drawing on interviews with these famous CEOs Mary Jo Hatch Monika Kostera and Andrzej K Kozminski demonstrate how business leaders today use aesthetics specifically storytelling dramatizing and mythmaking to lead their companies successfully They look at how they inspire organizations through their creativity virtue and faith and thus show the faces of the artist and priest alongside the technical and rational face of the manager The Three Faces of Leadership features clear and accessible explanations of the aesthetic philosophy of management as applied to the concepts of creativity imagination courage virtue inspiration faith and ethics It presents techniques for developing these qualities as an essential part of leadership together with the capacity to communicate them to others Aesthetic leadership practices are linked to organizational culture change vision values and identity In this way the book encourages students and executives to align the creative and spiritual aspects of business with their technical training and practice

The New Physiognomy Rochelle Rives, 2024-04-09 A fascinating new study of the face form and history of expression Advances in facial recognition artificial intelligence and other technologies provoke urgent ethical questions about facial expressivity and how we interpret it In The New Physiognomy Rochelle Rives roots contemporary facial dilemmas in a more expansive timeline of modernist engagements with the face to argue that facial ambiguity is essential to how we value other people Beginning with nineteenth century caricatures of Oscar Wilde s face Rives reasons that modernist modes of reading the face perceived it as a manifestation of both biologically determined traits and scripted forms of personality Considering faces such as sculptures of great poets portraits of facially wounded World War I soldiers W H Auden s aging face and Cindy Sherman s recent photographic self portraits Rives reframes how to read modernist works by Theodore Dreiser Edith Wharton Jean Rhys Joseph Conrad Mina Loy Henry Tonks and Henri Gaudier Brzeska

Game Faces Peter Devereaux, Library of Congress, 2018-10-23 A charming gift book showcasing baseball cards from the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries alongside photos from the early days of the nation s beloved pastime Game Faces showcases rare and colorful baseball cards from the Library of Congress s Benjamin K Edwards Collection bringing to life an era of American history that saw the game explode in popularity Marrying gems from the collection s 2 100 baseball cards to images of American life from 1887 to 1914 the book also offers engaging insights into the players and the game giving readers an intimate view of both baseball s development and American culture at the turn of the twentieth century The book highlights cards depicting many of the game s first stars including Ty Cobb Cy Young and Christy Mathewson as well as less widely known figures shown with extravagant ornamentation and boldly juxtaposed colors that render the cards works of art in their own right Game Faces is a rich engrossing history of the baseball card and the ways that it has illustrated and influenced American culture as a whole It is a must have for those who love baseball

The Face of Minnesota John Szarkowski, 2008 Ducks in a stream the bridge at St Anthony Falls streets of cities and towns a fish in a net the glittering lakes seen under low skies The Face of Minnesota is a fresh simple unpretentious statement of a place and time by people who know what Minnesota is because they live there Minor White Aperture 1958 John Szarkowski is the single most important curator that photography has ever had Looking at his photographs created over the last fifty years makes me want to weep They are truly American pictures one feels his desire to show not just what America was but what it still can be Ingrid Sischy Vanity Fair 2005 Originally commissioned to commemorate Minnesota s centennial in 1958 and out of print for nearly forty years The Face of Minnesota is a lost masterpiece of photography and an eloquent tribute to the people and places of the North Star state Republished in celebration of the state s sesquicentennial this beautifully produced edition includes contemporary essays about John Szarkowski s impact on American photography and introduces his work to new generations of Minnesotans Featuring more than 175 arresting photographs as well as essays filled with wit and affection The Face of Minnesota opens with this statement This book is about Minnesota now But as a mature man carries on his face and in his bearing the history of his past so does the look of a place today show its past what it has been and what it has believed in Though Minnesota has changed dramatically during the past fifty years The Face of Minnesota reveals the simple beauty of the imprint of the past and its deep resonance today John Szarkowski 1925 2007 was director of the photography program at the Museum of Modern Art in New York where he transformed our understanding of the art of photography through influential exhibitions and books including Looking at Photographs 1973 In 2005 his work was surveyed in a traveling exhibition accompanied by the book John Szarkowski Photographs Verlyn Klinkenborg joined the editorial board of the New York Times in 1997 He is the author of several works including The Rural Life Richard Benson has worked as a photographer and printer since 1966 He teaches at Yale University and is the coauthor with John Szarkowski of A Maritime Album 100 Photographs and Their Stories

Consolationscapes in the Face of Loss Christoph Jedan, Avril Maddrell, Eric Venbrux, 2018-10-09 Human beings are grieving animals Consolation or an attempt to assuage grief is an age old response to loss which has various expressions in different cultural contexts Over the past century consolation has dropped off the West s cultural radar The contributions to this volume highlight this neglect of consolation in popular and academic discourses and explore the usefulness of the concept of consolation for analysing spatio temporal constellations Consolationscapes in the Face of Loss brings together scholars from geography philosophy history anthropology and religious studies The chapters use spatial and conceptual mappings of grief and consolation to analyse a range of spaces and phenomena around grief bereavement and remembrance comfort and resilience including battlefield memorials crematoria graveyards and natural burial sites in Europe Authors shift the discussion beyond the Global North by including responses to traumatic grief in post conflict African societies as well as Australian Aboriginal traditions of ritual consolation The book focuses on the relationship between space place and consolation In so doing it offers a new lens for research on death grief and bereavement It offers new insights for students and researchers interrogating contemporary bereavement as well as those interested in meaning making emerging socio cultural practices and their role in personal and collective resilience
