Lieutenant Gustl Green Integer:

Lieutenant Gustl Arthur Schnitzler, 2003 A new printing of the popular novel by Schnitzler The Modernist Novel Stephen Kern, 2011-06-23 Leading scholar Stephen Kern offers a probing analysis of the modernist novel encompassing American British and European works Organized thematically the book offers a comprehensive analysis of the stunningly original formal innovations in novels by Conrad Joyce Woolf Proust Gide Faulkner Dos Passos Kafka Musil and others Kern contextualizes and explains how formal innovations captured the dynamic history of the period reconstructed as ten master narratives He also draws briefly on poetry and painting of the first half of the twentieth century The Modernist Novel is set to become a fundamental source for discussions of the genre and a useful introduction to the subject for students and scholars of modernism and twentieth century literature The Age of Insight Eric Kandel, 2012-03-27 A brilliant book by Nobel Prize winner Eric R Kandel The Age of Insight takes us to Vienna 1900 where leaders in science medicine and art began a revolution that changed forever how we think about the human mind our conscious and unconscious thoughts and emotions and how mind and brain relate to art At the turn of the century Vienna was the cultural capital of Europe Artists and scientists met in glittering salons where they freely exchanged ideas that led to revolutionary breakthroughs in psychology brain science literature and art Kandel takes us into the world of Vienna to trace in rich and rewarding detail the ideas and advances made then and their enduring influence today The Vienna School of Medicine led the way with its realization that truth lies hidden beneath the surface That principle infused Viennese culture and strongly influenced the other pioneers of Vienna 1900 Sigmund Freud shocked the world with his insights into how our everyday unconscious aggressive and erotic desires are repressed and disguised in symbols dreams and behavior Arthur Schnitzler revealed women s unconscious sexuality in his novels through his innovative use of the interior monologue Gustav Klimt Oscar Kokoschka and Egon Schiele created startlingly evocative and honest portraits that expressed unconscious lust desire anxiety and the fear of death Kandel tells the story of how these pioneers Freud Schnitzler Klimt Kokoschka and Schiele inspired by the Vienna School of Medicine in turn influenced the founders of the Vienna School of Art History to ask pivotal questions such as What does the viewer bring to a work of art How does the beholder respond to it These questions prompted new and ongoing discoveries in psychology and brain biology leading to revelations about how we see and perceive how we think and feel and how we respond to and create works of art Kandel one of the leading scientific thinkers of our time places these five innovators in the context of today s cutting edge science and gives us a new understanding of the modernist art of Klimt Kokoschka and Schiele as well as the school of thought of Freud and Schnitzler Reinvigorating the intellectual enquiry that began in Vienna 1900 The Age of Insight is a wonderfully written superbly researched and beautifully illustrated book that also provides a foundation for future work in neuroscience and the humanities It is an extraordinary book from an international leader in neuroscience and intellectual history Gabrielle and the Long Sleep Into Mourning Denyse Delcourt, 2007 Eight childhood friends now in their fifties have gathered for a weekend to reminisce about their early years in a closed and intimidated group of young men and women who grew up together outside Montreal in the 1950s. Surprisingly they all accepted eagerly although their gathering revives a long repressed anxiety about the enigmatic death of Gabrielle, an otherworldly member of their group. They still carry within themselves the same ruinous desires, taboos and dislikes that had woven them tightly together.

Streetcorners Francis Carco, 2004 Francis Carco began life as a libertine youth on the streets of Southern France. Moving to Paris in 1910 he began to write and produced Instincts from which most of the works in this volume are taken. Carco soon became the personification of a Bohemian, abusing his body with ether, opium and cocaine and mixing with writers and artists such as Colette, Modigliani and Picasso. His writings on Paris street life were to set the standard for the tradition of fiction, photography and films that represented Montmartre life in the early 20th century.

The Cursed Poets Paul Verlaine, 2003 Never before translated into English. Verlaine's great study of the cursed poets of French Symbolism.

Poetry, Etcetera Jacques Roubaud, 2006 What is poetry today and how does it fit into our lives? Jacques Roubaud, the great French poet and fiction writer, explores these questions in a series of intelligent, personal and often humorous essays. Translated from the original French by Guy Bennett, the work is simultaneously a profound and highly readable work on language and meaning. Born in 1932, Roubaud is one of the most accomplished members of Oulipo, the workshop for experimental writing. He is a professor of mathematics and has published writing in genres including prose, theatre and poetry.

A Dog Tries to Kiss the Sky Kier Peters, 2003 The seven short plays of this volume all concern social or sexual tension and confusion of identity, the joyful chaos that comes of those everyday dilemmas. Performed in various theatres from Los Angeles to Sao Paulo, these short works reveal the humour and serious questionings of playwright Kier Peters, the dramatic pseudonym of American poet/publisher Douglas Messerli.

Don Carlos and Giovanni Thorvald Steen, 2004 Translated from the Norwegian by James Anderson. In the months of September and October 1833 a young Englishman known as Don Carlos finds himself in Buenos Aires. There he meets a casual labourer Giovanni Graciani from Genoa, Italy. These two short, penetrating novels recount Giovanni's abandonment of faith, the political upheavals and bloody events of Argentine history, and his encounter with the man he calls Don Carlos, who in reality is Charles Robert Darwin, on a voyage that will change forever the way man perceives his world.

Duke, the Dog Priest José Domício Coutinho, 2009 Let the reader be warned: this tale will challenge even the most sophisticated with its dazzling mix of priests, brothers, nuns, students, church workers, parishioners, city luminaries, and yes, a dog named Duke. From the very first pages, readers will be thrown into a debate underlying the wonderful absurdity of Coutinho's premise: for his novel fabulously purports to be the tale of a dog who desires to become a priest or at least learn Latin. Originally published in Brazil in 1998, the story of Duke is a contemporary masterwork.

Your Paradise, 2004 One of the most revered novels of 20th century literature in Korea, this is the story of a leper colony where the lepers are outwardly treated with the greatest of kindnesses. Indeed, a new director is attempting to reintegrate the leper community and their families with the world outside of the leper island But suddenly he meets great resistance from the lepers themselves who prefer the protection and organisation of the island The lepers want nothing to do with modern day Korea and its numerous problems L.A. trip Mohammed Dib,2003 This great Algerian novelist and poet wrote L A Trip in response to a stay in Los Angeles in the 1970s Dib saw this work as a bilingual publication and this edition accordingly is the first complete version of what he describes as a novel in verse The story tells of an Old World man's tribulation in the New World and revives a tradition somewhat lost from sight the novel in verse which the author describes as an antidepressant to poetry's ectoplasmic days languishing exhausted by a breathless impressionism
