Life Writings I Elizabeth Skerpan-Wheeler, 2017-03-02 Early modern men and women represented their lives very differently from twentieth century autobiographers sharing none of the current preoccupation with individuality and the unique self The writers represented in this two volume collection sought connections between particular events in their lives and the larger pattern of Christian salvation The texts reproduced here are united in the way they interconnect personal experiences and feelings with scriptural passages in an attempt to understand daily life in spiritual terms Almost all the women whose works appear in these volumes would have been considered religious radicals by their contemporaries Living through the turbulent times of the English Revolution 1642-1660 it is unsurprising that their life writings are marked by a sense of persecution Many of them spent time in prison Katherine Evans Sarah Cheevers and Barbara Blaugdane were all imprisoned for preaching the faith of The Society of Friends while Mary Rowlandson spent several months as a captive of North American Indians In her introduction to these writings Elizabeth Skerpan Wheeler provides brief biographical sketches of these writers together with details of the publication history of each text With the exception of Rowlandson's works the writings in these volumes are the first complete unabridged editions in modern times The Life & Death of that
