(M)othering Labeled Children María Cioè-Peña, 2021-05-14 This book takes a distinctive approach to exploring the experiences and identities of minoritized Latinx mothers who are raising a child who is labeled as both an emergent bilingual and disabled. It showcases relationships between families and schools and reveals the myriad of ways in which school-based decisions regarding disability language and academic placement impact family dynamics. Treating the mothers as experts, this book uses testimonios to explore not only what mothers know but also how they develop funds of knowledge and how they apply them to their child's education. The stories shed light on how mothers perceive their child's disability, how they engage with their child, and the value they place on bilingualism. The narratives reveal the complex lives mothers lead and the ways in which they strive to meet the academic and socioemotional needs of their children regardless of the financial, physical, and emotional costs to them. This book has significant implications for researchers and professionals working in bilingual education, special education, inclusive education, and disability studies in education. Winner of the AAAL First Book Award 2023.

Alfred C. Aarons, Barbara Yaffey Gordon, William Alexander Stewart, 1969. What was conceived as a special issue of seven articles on the disadvantaged has turned into a final collection of 43 readings and one book review on linguistic and cultural diversity in American society and its implications for education in America. This collection aims to fill the need for a sourcebook of current theory and practice in this area. It is primarily for teachers and administrators from schools with student composition of more than one language or ethnic background. This collection should also provide a useful frame of reference for social scientists engaged in research on disadvantaged children as well as the pedagogically oriented psychologist, sociologist, anthropologist, or linguist. Libros en venta en Hispanoamérica y España , 1993
