cinema and Internet and the Korean Wave Sheng mei Ma's Asian Diaspora and East West Modernity probes into the conjoinedness of West and East of modernity's illusion and nothing's infinitude Suspended on the stylistic tightrope between research and poetry critical analysis and intuition Asian Diaspora restores affect and heart to the experience of diaspora in between East and West at homeness and exilic attrition Diaspora by definition stems as much from socioeconomic and collective displacement as it points to emotional reaction This book thus challenges the fossilized conceptualizations in area studies ontology and modernism The book's first two chapters trace the Asian pursuit of modernity into nothing as embodied in horror film and the gaming motif in transpacific literature and film Chapters three through eight focus on the borderlands of East and West the edges of humanity and meaning Ma examines how loss occasions a revisualization of Asia in children's books how Asian diasporic passing signifies paradoxically both born again and demise of the old self how East turns East or the agent of self fashioning for Anglo America Asia and Asian America how the construct of bugman distinguishes modern West's and East's self image how the extreme human condition of non person permeates the Korean Wave and how manga artists are drawn to wartime Japan The final two chapters interrogate the West's death bound yet enlightening Orientalism in Anglo American literature and China's own schizophrenic split evidenced in the 2008 Olympic Games
