Inscapes Illuminated Passages:

Inscapes Brian Portman, Valerie Loupe Olsen, 2000 Art Now Gallery Guide, 2000 The Split World of Gerard Manley Hopkins Dennis Sobolev, 2011-05 For the first time in almost half a century the world of Hopkins is examined as an indivisible whole The Split World of Gerard Manley Hopkins is a synthetic study of Hopkins's writings written within a framework of semiotic phenomenology Inscape Symposium Issue John Nause, 1974 Hopkins and Heidegger Brian Willems, 2011-10-27 Hopkins and Heidegger is a new exploration of Gerard Manley Hopkins poetics through the work of Martin Heidegger More radically Brian Willems argues that the work of Hopkins does no less than propose solutions to a number of hitherto unresolved questions regarding Heidegger's later writings vitalizing the concepts of both writers beyond their local contexts Willems examines a number of cross sections between the poetry and thought of Hopkins and the philosophy of Heidegger While neither writer ever directly addressed the other's work Hopkins died the year Heidegger was born 1899 and Heidegger never turns his thoughts on poetry to the Victorians a number of similarities between the two have been noted but never fleshed out Willems readings of these cross sections are centred on Hopkins concepts of inscape and instress and around Heidegger's reading of both appropriation Ereignis and the fourfold das Geviert This study will be of interest to scholars and postgraduates in both Victorian literature and Continental philosophy Inscape of Romance Lynne Tidaback Roberts, 1972 From Darkness to Eastering Bonnie B. Thurston, 2017-09-22 This is a book about how on a cosmic and a personal level darkness gives way to light It does not sugar coat the reality of darkness but is full of hope reminding voyagers that light shines in the darkness that darkness is required to perceive light and that Easter means the light has come life triumphs and the promised Holy Spirit will empower us for growth eastering These reflective prayerful poems are a ticket and passport for a spiritual journey and can be used in a daily discipline or with groups For each traveller I pray journeying mercies Bonnie Thurston writes And I remind pilgrims Take heart He will come Having resigned a professorship and chair in New Testament studies Bonnie Thurston now lives quietly as a solitary near Wheeling West Virginia USA working as a spiritual director and retreat leader and volunteering in a food bank She is the author of over 20 books You are in skilled hands here so let yourself be carried along ready to experience delight or be jarred into discomfort Above all ponder weigh take time For each poem comes out of the quiet depths of a person who is a fellow pilgrim illuminating the familiar with her own God given insight Esther de Waal The Gothic Forms of Victorian Poetry Olivia Loksing Moy, 2023-08-30 A lonely damsel imprisoned within a castle or convent cell The eavesdropping of a prisoner next door The framed image of a woman with a sinister past These familiar tropes from 1790s novels and tales exploded onto the English literary scene in low brow titles of Gothic romance Surprisingly however they also re-emerged as features of major Victorian poems from the 1830s to 1870s Such signature tropes inquisitorial overhearing female confinement and the damsel in distress supernatural switches between living and dead bodies were transfigured into poetic forms that we recognise and teach today as canonically Victorian The Gothic Forms of Victorian Poetry identifies a poetics of Gothic enclosure constitutive of high Victorian poetry that came to define key nineteenth century poetic forms from the dramatic monologue to women s sonnet sequences and metasonnets to Pre Raphaelite picture poems Landscape and Inscape Peter Milward, Gerard Manley Hopkins, 1975 Politics and the Novel During the Cold War David Caute, 2017-09-08 David Cautes wide ranging study examines how outstanding novelists of the Cold War era conveyed the major issues of contemporary politics and history In the United States and Western Europe the political novel flourished in the 1930s and 1940s the crisis years of economic depression fascism the Spanish Civil War the consolidation of Stalinism and the Second World War Starting with the high hopes generated by the Spanish Civil War Caute then explores the god that failed pessimism that overtook the Western political novel in the 1940s The writers under scrutiny include Hemingway Dos Passos Orwell Koestler Malraux Serge Greene de Beauvoir and Sartre Strikingly different approaches to the burning issues of the time are found among orthodox Soviet novelists such as Sholokhov Fadeyev Kochetov and Pavlenko Soviet official culture continued to choke on modernism formalism satire and allegory In Russia and Eastern Europe dissident novelists offered contesting voices as they engaged in the fraught re telling of life under Stalinism The emergence of the New Left in the 1960s generated a new wave of fiction challenging Americas global stance Mailer Doctorow and Coover brought fresh literary sensibilities to bear on such iconic events as the 1967 siege of the Pentagon and the execution of the Rosenbergs Familiar Quotations: A Collection of passages, phrases and proverbs traced to their sources in ancient and modern literature John Bartlett, 1968 Lands of Likeness Kevin Hart, 2023-10-06 An original and profound exploration of contemplation from philosopher theologian and poet Kevin Hart In Lands of Likeness Kevin Hart develops a new hermeneutics of contemplation through a meditation on Christian thought and secular philosophy Drawing on Kant Schopenhauer Coleridge and Husserl Hart first charts the emergence of contemplation in and beyond the Romantic era Next Hart shows this hermeneutic at work in poetry by Gerard Manley Hopkins Marianne Moore Wallace Stevens and others Delivered in its original form as the prestigious Gifford Lectures Lands of Likeness is a revelatory meditation on contemplation for the modern world English Prose of the Nineteenth Century Hilary Fraser, Daniel Brown, 2017-07-12 Hilary Fraser provides a comprehensive and thorough survey of English prose in the nineteenth century which draws from a wide variety of fields including art literary theory and criticism biography letters journals sermons and travel reportage Through these works the cultural social literary and political life of the twentieth century a period of great intellectual activity can be charted discussed and assessed For the first time an inclusive critical survey of nineteenth century non fiction is presented that traces the century s ideological and cultural upheavals as they are registered in the literary textures of some of its most widely read and influential writings The book explores the relations between writers who are generally perceived as occupying different discursive spheres for example between John Stuart Mill Florence Nightingale and Mrs Beeton between Cardinal Newman Elizabeth Gaskell and Hannah

In A World Transfigured The Mystical Journey Philip Sheldrake demonstrates the importance of the mystical dimension of religious belief and practice Using the words of the great theologian Karl Rahner Sheldrake makes the case that the Christian of the future will be either a mystic or nothing at all In our contemporary world this judgment applies equally to other religions as well After chapters on the meaning of mysticism and the connection between mysticism and beliefs Sheldrake describes important dimensions of mystical writings illustrated by a range of examples These are Love and Desire Knowing and Unknowing Wonder and Beauty Mysticism and Everyday Practice and The Mystic as Radical Prophet Finally the book briefly explores why mysticism fascinates so many people in our modern times Embodied William A. Cohen,2009 In these elegant engagements with literary works cultural history and critical theory Cohen advances a phenomenological approach to embodiment proposing that we encounter the world not through our minds or souls but through our senses

BOOK JACKET Rewriting the Word "God" Romana Huk,2025 Innovative poetry philosophy theology and new sciences converge in the project of rewriting the word God In Rewriting the Word God Romana Huk examines the substantive connections between innovative poetry of the last century and contemporary theology and philosophy Along the way we encounter ten poets who have without abandoning their inherited or chosen faith traditions radically rethought conceptualizations of divinity human ontology and the real From the startlingly proto phenomenological encounters with nature by Gerard Manley Hopkins to the post deconstructive pursuit of oracular speech in Fanny Howe these poets have found inspiration in a wide range of sources from ancient religious texts to modern philosophical movements But what unites them is their willingness to continually change experiment and challenge the status quo both in their religious beliefs and their poetic practice Huk shows how these poets have used their work to explore ultimate questions of life and death meaning and purpose and the relationship between humans and materiality humans and other humans which for these poets sheds light on humanity's relationship with the divine She also highlights the ways in which they have engaged with social and political issues in their poetry to speak out against injustice and oppression Rewriting the Word God is a thought provoking and inspiring work that will challenge current perceptions of both religion and poetry from new positions at the intersection of faith art philosophy science literary theory and culture The Measure of Paris Stephen Scobie,2012-03-01

Paris remains one of the most fascinating cities in the world It provides a measure of excellence in many areas of culture and it is itself constantly being measured both by its lovers and by its critics This book presents a series of studies on the images of Paris presented by writers mostly Canadian from John Glassco to Mavis Gallant to Lola Lemire Tostevin but also in such other areas as social history and personal memoir The result is a wide ranging discussion of the city s history in 20th century literature and thought which will appeal to all those who love Paris or who have ever walked on its streets Essays of Multiple Sorts ~ ~Two~ ~ Bruce Howard Hamilton,2012-03-22 Essays of Multiple Sorts Two involves an attempt to improve older texts by a process of editing The individual pieces are decidedly outside of what generally might be considered verse formats Some of the offerings might seem wonderfully brief whereas at least several might seem decidedly toward verbose Though apparently likely to fail rather badly the author tried to accomplish some valid orchestrations of English Poetry and Drama Part-II Mr. Rohit Manglik,2023-07-23 In this book we will study about advanced themes and forms in poetry and drama including comparative and modern perspectives Lit ,1969
