Bonatz, John Miksic, J. David Neidel, 2009-03-26 This is the most comprehensive book devoted to Sumatra in more than half a century. It summarizes earlier studies and provides a huge amount of new knowledge for the first time in readily accessible form. Sumatra is one of the world's largest islands rich in flora and fauna, minerals and timber, and located at the midpoint of the maritime route between China and India. These are ideal conditions for the creation of a fascinating history. Sumatra has played a major role in world trade for 2 000 years, but its culture and archaeology have been surprisingly neglected. This volume sets out to remedy this defect. With chapters on history, archaeology, anthropology, folklore and religion, the authors focus particular attention on the relations between the coastal peoples who are best known to outsiders and the hinterlands where most of the important resources lie. The list of authors includes most of the principal living authorities on Sumatra. Their cumulative experience consists of many years on all parts of the island. The book is copiously illustrated and includes a comprehensive bibliography for those who wish to pursue further study of the wide range of topics covered. H. Kern: deel.

Indonesië in 't algemeen, slot. Inscripties van den Indischen Archipel, 1. gedeelte Hendrik Kern, 1917 The Javanese

Candi Soekmono, 2023-07-17 The Javanese Candi is the outcome of a thorough study during many years on the function and the meaning of the monuments of ancient Indonesia commonly called candi. A re-examination of the archaeological evidence while scrutinizing textual data from inscriptions and literary works systematically rejects the current opinion as if the candi was a royal tomb to enshrine the ashes of the cremated body of the dead king. Instead, the candi was meant as a temple building where people could pay homage to the king and invoke the blessings of the forefather. Journal of the Royal

Madura E.M. Uhlenbeck, 2012-12-06 At the completion of this critical bibliography which forms another step in the direction of the realization of the bibliographical project inaugurated in 1955 by Dr Voorhoeve's survey of the languages of Sumatra, I acknowledge with gratitude the valuable assistance received from various people. I am indebted to my colleagues Prof Dr G W J Drewes, Dr J Noorduyn, Dr Th Pigeaud, Prof Dr A Teeuw and Dr P Voorhoeve who read all or part of the manuscript and who generously put their extensive knowledge of the Java languages at my disposal. Heartfelt thanks are due to Mr B J Hoff and Mr A G Sciarone, both members of my staff, who verified many of the bibliographical details. I am grateful to the library of the University of Leiden and to the library of the Institute in The Hague because of their readiness in giving me all the facilities I needed for the preparation of this book. Most useful was the cordial assistance received from my colleague Prof Dr P E de Josselin de Jong who spent much time correcting the many imperfections of my English text which greatly promoted the readability of the narrative sections of this survey. , Bijdragen tot de taal-, land- en volkenkunde van
