Immigration Control Or Colour Bar:

Control Or Colour Bar? Immigration Reform Group,1960 Immigration: Control Or Colour Bar? Immigration Reform Group,1962 The George Hicks Collection Eunice Low,2016-07-18 The George Hicks Collection at the National Library Singapore comprises about 6 900 books and materials donated between 200 and 2015 by Mr George Lyndon Hicks The Collection focuses on four main subject areas Southeast Asia China Japan and overseas Chinese spanning the disciplines of history sociology economics political science and anthropology The body of works in the Collection reveals Mr Hicks profound interest in Asia and his scholarly pursuits over the decades This volume written and compiled by Eunice Low presents an annotated bibliography of selected works from the Collection and highlights significant titles Also included are an overview of the life and career of Mr Hicks a list of his authored and edited works as well as essays introducing the chapters Canadian Liberalism and the Politics of Border Control, 1867-1967 Christopher G. Anderson,2012-11-10 With restrictive immigration policies increased interdiction and the detention of asylum seekers it is clear that Canada s approach to border control has shifted in recent years Yet such practices are just the latest in a long and complex national history Canadian Liberalism and the Politics of Border Control sheds light on the first century of Canada s efforts to control its borders framing pivotal moments within a long standing but often overlooked debate over the rights of non citizens Anderson provides valuable insights into contemporary liberal democratic control by demonstrating that today s more restrictive approach reflects traditions deeply embedded within liberal democracies Critical Reflections on Migration, 'Race' and Multiculturalism Martina Boese,Vince Marotta,2017-06-26 Migration and its associated social practices and consequences have been studied within a multitude of academic disciplines and in the context of policies at local national and regional level This edited collection provides an introduction and critical review of conceptual developments and policy contexts of migration scholarship within an Australian and global context through political economy analyses of migration and associated transformations sociological analyses of settling in processes multi disciplinary analyses of migrant work a historical review of scholarship on refugees a Southern theory approach to cultural diversity sociological reflections on post nationalism Cultural Studies analyses of public culture and second generation youth cultures interdisciplinary and Critical Race analyses of race and racism feminist intersectional analyses of migration belonging and representation the theorising of cosmopolitanism a transdisciplinary analysis of gender transnational families and care and a comparative transcontextual analysis of hybridity An essential contribution to the current mapping of migration studies with a focus on Australian scholarship in its international context this collection will be of interest to undergraduates and postgraduates interested in fields such as Sociology Cultural Studies Geography and Politics Critical Years in Immigration Freda Hawkins,1991 With the new introduction Freda Hawkins brings Critical Years in Immigration up to date by discussing the directions taken by the Canadian and Australian governments since 1984 She also clarifies the implications of the recently announced

Canadian immigration levels for 1991-95 discussing the government's reasoning and future plans

The White Peril Sean Brawley, 1995 A study surveying the changing positions towards Asian migration in Australia New Zealand Canada and the US between 1919 and 1978 The volume examines the foreign policy choices and relations of the four nations and how their desire to maintain policies of Asian exclusion shaped regional and international relations

One of Us? David Dutton, 2002 When Paul Keating announced his plans for an Australian Republic in 1995 he emphatically appealed for Australia's head of state to be one of us But what does it mean to be one of us Who can be an Australian citizen Who was entitled to citizenship in the past By what paths can newcomers become one of us And how have these paths changed since 1901

One of Us A Century of Australian Citizenship traces the meanings of citizenship and belonging that are evident in the Australian Government's civil policies The book shows that since Federation Australian citizenship has had much less to do with questions of civil and political rights democracy and sovereignty than with a determination to create a cohesive and loyal citizenry The government's policies have addressed the problems it has faced in incorporating migrants and in controlling the movement of people in and out of the country At a time when questions of who can be one of us are as alive as ever and when citizenship race and multiculturalism are vital issues in contemporary politics this comprehensive examination of our past is vital to our understanding of the issue of citizenship today

Returning Home with Glory Michael Williams, 2018-01-16 Employing the classic Chinese saying returning home with glory man zai rong gui as the title Michael Williams highlights the importance of return and home in the history of the connections established and maintained between villagers in the Pearl River Delta and various Pacific ports from the time of the Californian and Australian gold rushes to the founding of the People's Republic of China Conventional scholarship on Chinese migration tends to privilege nation state factors or concepts which are dependent on national boundaries Such approaches are more concerned with the migrants settlement in the destination country downplaying the awkward fact that the majority of the overseas Chinese huaqiao originally intended to and eventually did return to their home villages qiaoxiang Williams goes back to the basics by considering the strong influence exerted by the family and the home village on those who first set out in order to give a better appreciation of how and why many modest communities in southern China became more modern and affluent He also gives a voice to those who never left their villages women in particular Designed as a single case study this work presents detailed research based on the more than eighty villages of the Long Du district near Zhongshan City in Guangdong Province as well as the three major destinations Sydney San Francisco and Honolulu of the huaqiao who came from this region Out of this analysis of what truly mattered to the villagers the choices they had and made and what constituted success and failure in their lives a sympathetic portrayal of the huaqiao emerges Returning Home with Glory inaugurates the Hong Kong University Press book series Crossing Seas From the very local qiaoxiang or home village of migrants to the transnational destinations in America and Australia this book is a model of how to write diaspora into modern Chinese history The Cantonese Pacific comes alive in this highly readable book that is sure to capture our imagination Evelyn Hu DeHart Brown University A perceptively conceptualized and well researched case study of an emigrant community in the Pearl River Delta that extended its reach to Sydney the Hawaiian Islands and San Francisco Williams offers a refreshing qiaoxiang perspective through which to understand the experiences of Chinese immigrants in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Yong Chen University of California Irvine This welcome study of Chinese mobility among settler societies of the Pacific places the family and the village at its heart just as its subjects did over the century under review to 1949 A path breaking study based on first hand research John Fitzgerald Swinburne University of Technology

Muslims In Australia Nahid Kabir, 2013-01-11 Muslims in Australia investigates the basis of Australian society's fear of Muslims by tracing their history since the Afghan settlement in 1860 The author investigates how events such as September 11 and Bali terrorist attacks reinforce suspicion and fear giving an insight into what it means to be a Muslim in contemporary Australia and how the actions of militant Islamic groups have impacted upon Muslims in general in Western society

Producing and Negotiating Non-Citizenship Luin Goldring, Patricia Landolt, 2013-03-07 Most examinations of non citizens in Canada focus on immigrants people who are citizens in waiting or specific categories of temporary vulnerable workers In contrast Producing and Negotiating Non Citizenship considers a range of people whose pathway to citizenship is uncertain or non existent This includes migrant workers students refugee claimants and people with expired permits all of whom have limited formal rights to employment housing education and health services The contributors to this volume present theoretically informed empirical studies of the regulatory institutional discursive and practical terms under which precarious status non citizens those without permanent residence enter and remain in Canada They consider the historical and contemporary production of non citizen precarious status and migrant illegality in Canada as well as everyday experiences of precarious status among various social groups including youth denied refugee claimants and agricultural workers This timely volume contributes to conceptualizing multiple forms of precarious status non citizenship as connected through policy and the practices of migrants and the institutional actors they encounter

Ordering Independence S. Mawby, 2012-08-20 Spencer Mawby analyses the conflicts between the British government and Caribbean nationalists over regional integration the Cold War immigration policy and financial aid in the decades before Jamaica Trinidad and the other territories of the Anglophone Caribbean became independent

Working Lives Arthur McIvor, 2013-07-12 A balanced and richly informed survey that investigates how why and to what degree working lives have been transformed over the last 60 years McIvor covers themes such as gender race class disability and health in his exploration of how the meaning of employment has been signified by the workers themselves Australia and the Wider World Neville Meaney,2018-08-30 Since the 1960s Neville Meaney has been asking probing questions about social change and the rise of nationalism especially as found in the making of Australia's self image and its engagement with the world His efforts to unravel what he once called the riddle of Australian nationalism have raised important and often unsettling challenges for Australians Bringing together the cultural intellectual political and diplomatic dimensions of the national experience Meaney's work has been dominated by two overarching and interconnected questions how Australians should resolve the tension between the community of culture and the community of interest and how they should reconcile their British heritage with their Asian moorings Migration in Comparative

Perspective Margaret Byron,Stéphanie Condon,2008-01-07 This book presents a comparative perspective on post war Caribbean migration to Britain and France Both migrations were responses to the link between former colonies and colonial powers However the movements of labor occurred within separately and differently evolving political contexts affecting the migration outcomes Today Caribbean communities in Europe display complex features of continuity and change Condon and Byron examine trends in migration patterns household and family structures social fields employment and housing trajectories in detail This systematic comparison with its innovative focus on gender and life course is an excellent addition to the existing literature on the Caribbean diaspora African and Caribbean People in Britain Hakim Adi,2022-09-01

SHORTLISTED FOR THE WOLFSON HISTORY PRIZE A major new history of Britain that transforms our understanding of this country's past I've waited so long so read a comprehensively researched book about Black history on this island This is it a journey of discovery and a truly exciting and important work Zainab Abbas Despite the best efforts of researchers and campaigners there remains today a steadfast tendency to reduce the history of African and Caribbean people in Britain to a simple story it is one that begins in 1948 with the arrival of a single ship the Empire Windrush and continues mostly apart from a distinct British history overlapping only on occasion amid grotesque injustice or pioneering protest Yet as acclaimed historian Hakim Adi demonstrates from the very beginning from the moment humans first stood on this rainy isle there have been African and Caribbean men and women set at Britain's heart Libyan legionaries patrolled Hadrian's Wall while Rome's first African Emperor died in York In Elizabethan England Black Tudors served in the land's most eminent households while intrepid African explorers helped Sir Francis Drake to circumnavigate the globe And as Britain became a major colonial and commercial power it was African and Caribbean people who led the radical struggle for freedom a struggle which raged throughout the twentieth century and continues today in Black Lives Matter campaigns Charting a course through British history with an unobscured view of the actions of African and Caribbean people Adi reveals how much our greatest collective achievements universal suffrage our victory over fascism the forging of the NHS owe to these men and women and how in understanding our history in these terms we are more able to fully understand our present moment The Making of the Black Working Class in Britain Ron Ramdin,2017-08-22 A classic history of the role of Black working class struggles throughout the twentieth century In this pioneering history Ron Ramdin traces the roots of Britain's disadvantaged black working class From the development of a small black presence in the sixteenth century through the colonial labour institutions of slavery indentureship and trade unionism Ramdin expertly guides us through the stages of creation for a UK minority whose origins are often overlooked He examines the emergence of a black radical ideology underpinning twentieth century struggles against unemployment racial attacks and workplace inequality and delves into the murky realms of employer and trade union racism First published in 1987 this revised edition includes a new introduction reflecting on events over the past four decades Guide to the Collections National Library of Australia,1910 In Praise of Sociology

Professor Gordon Marshall,2002-09-11 In this lively and entertaining book Gordon Marshall explores ten classic studies of British society to demonstrate the valuable qualities of British sociology and its importance for understanding contemporary society In each case he provides a precis of the research undertaken assuming no prior knowledge on the part of the reader a series of points that can be made in praise or criticism of the research and an assessment of the sociological contribution made by the researchers The ten studies chosen are Goldthorpe on social mobility Townsend on poverty Rex and Moore on race and the inner city the Affluent Worker project Wallis on sectarianism Jackson and Marsden on education and the working class Brown and Harris on clinical depression among women Cohen on deviance Bott on families and social networks and Burns and Stalker on management and new technology An excellent introduction for the student to the concerns and values of sociology this book gives a powerful statement of the achievements of post war British sociologists and a manifesto for good sociology in the 1990s
