Biodiversity Conservation Charles A. Perrings, Karl-Göran Mäler, Carl Folke, C.S. Holling, Beng-Owe Jansson, 2012-12-06 This book reports the more policy oriented results of the Biodiversity programme of the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences Beijer Institute The programme brought economists and ecologists together to consider where the problem in biodiversity loss really lies what costs it has for society and how it might best be addressed The results are strikingly different from those reported in other works on the subject Biodiversity loss matters for all ecosystems not just the megadiversity tropical forests And it matters because it compromises the resilience and so the productivity of those systems Biodiversity conservation requires the development of policies that change the behaviour of resource use everywhere not just in parks and reserves The book is required reading for researchers and policy makers alike It canvasses options for the reform of park management biodiversity conservation projects property rights tax trade and price regimes that are within the reach of governments everywhere

Comprehensive Bibliography on Agriculture and Rural Development A. M. M. Shawkat Ali, 1994 Chiefly with reference to Bangladesh Bibliography of Asian Studies, 1994

Local Organizations in Decentralized Development Ruth Alsop, Bryan Kurey, World Bank, 2005 This book adds empirical evidence to these debates and suggests that in practice they cannot be separated Based on research in three sectors in three states in India the authors findings indicate that the design of and support for local organizations are often little more than rudimentary resulting in less than adequate performance and raising serious sustainability concerns The study further indicates that sector specific configurations of a plural organizational landscape in which government non government and private organizations are an integral part are required for effective and sustainable development
