Contemporary Art and Anthropology Arnd Schneider, Christopher Wright, 2020-09-02

Contemporary Art and Anthropology takes a new and exciting approach to representational practices within contemporary art and anthropology Traditionally the anthropology of art has tended to focus on the interpretation of tribal artifacts but has not considered the impact such art could have on its own ways of making and presenting work The potential for the contemporary art scene to suggest innovative representational practices has been similarly ignored This book challenges the reluctance that exists within anthropology to pursue alternative strategies of research creation and exhibition and argues that contemporary artists and anthropologists have much to learn from each others practices The contributors to this pioneering book consider the work of artists such as Susan Hiller Francesco Clemente and Rimer Cardillo and in exploring topics such as the possibility of shared representational values aesthetics and modernity and tattooing they suggest productive new directions for practices in both fields

Alchemy in Contemporary Art Urszula Szulakowska, 2017-07-05

Alchemy in Contemporary Art analyzes the manner in which twentieth century artists beginning with French Surrealists of the 1920s have appropriated concepts and imagery from the western alchemical tradition This study examines artistic production from c 1920 to the present with an emphasis on the 1970s to 2000 discussing familiar names such as Andre Breton Salvador Dali Yves Klein Joseph Beuys and Anselm Kiefer as well as many little known artists of the later twentieth century It provides a critical overview of the alchemical tradition in twentieth century art and of the use of occultist imagery as a code for political discourse and polemical engagement The study is the first to examine the influence of alchemy and the Surrealist tradition on Australian as well as on Eastern European and Mexican art In addition the text considers the manner in which women artists such as Leonora Carrington Remedios Varo and Rebecca Horn have critically revised the traditional sexist imagery of alchemy and occultism for their own feminist purposes
