than the truth of culture stemming from human ingenia that is wits conditioned by biological natures While these might be idiosyncratic their animation is fuelled and shaped by the food one eats the air one breathes the places one inhabits the company one keeps In this respect Rabelaisian fiction is grotesque in a period sense With its emphasis on hybrid forms capturing the metamorphic powers of animation grotesque ornament reflexively commented on the embodied inventive processes underpinning Renaissance mimesis Rabelais s fictions display a similar logic they foreground the inventive powers of ingenious animation and articulate reflexive often ironic alternatives to the humanist views they alter a thoroughly embodied anthropology a naturalist genealogy of cultural production and transmission a phantastical account of artistic invention as uncanny liveliness

The Sèvres Porcelain Manufactory Beatrice Pannequin, Tamara Préaud, Karole Bezut, Antoine D'Albis, Bard Graduate Center for Studies in the Decorative Arts, Laurie Dahlberg, Anne Lajoix, Sylvie Millasseau, 1997-01-01 The tumultuous years of the French Revolution left France s prestigious decorative arts industries poised on the brink of ruin It was not until after the fall of the monarchy and the ascendancy of the Consulat and Empire under Napoleon that they began to recover so that by the middle of the nineteenth century they stood at the pinnacle of their achievement This book is the first in depth study of the renowned porcelain works at Sèvres during its virtual rebirth under the 47 year direction of the scientist teacher and administrator Alexandre Brongniart Some 110 working drawings from the Sèvres Archive are reproduced here for the first time in color They celebrate the high skill of the artists whose work often documented contemporary events in France There are table services in the Egyptian and Etruscan taste as well as individual pieces that recall Napoleonic military campaigns There are also exquisite Neoclassical decorations using motifs such as birds butterflies and insects that reflect the century s early fascination with the natural sciences The repertoire of nineteenth century eclecticism is evident in the output of Sèvres from the revival of Gothic and renaissance motifs to the outburst of naturalism Eleven essays by leading authorities assess this dynamic period

Érasme: Sa pensée et son comportement Léon-E. Halkin, 2024-10-28 This volume of Professor Halkin s articles forms a complement to his recent biography of Erasmus of Rotterdam The articles published here are concerned with his activities and his behaviour and describe parts of what may be called his spiritual and intellectual itinerary different aspects of his thought or different chapters of his life The personality of Erasmus continues to make a striking impact upon those who read him but that it is hard to define it clearly or simply may be seen from the variety of differing judgements scholars have made The last of the great Latin writers the author of more than a hundred works he strove hard to disseminate his ideas with his books he expounded the theories of Christian humanism in his treatises and letters he incessantly preached peace right to the end of his life he worked for the reform of the Church These themes recur in these articles but in Professor Halkin s view it is his faith his militant and uncompromising Christianity which gives his character its unity

The Field of Cloth of Gold Glenn Richardson, 2014-01-07 Pomp pageantry and epic showing off a vivid re creation of the 1520 peace promoting rally between the kings of England and France The Sunday Times Glenn Richardson provides the first history in more than four decades of a major Tudor event an extraordinary international gathering of Renaissance rulers unparalleled in its opulence pageantry controversy and mystery Throughout most of the late medieval period from 1300 to 1500 England and France were bitter enemies often at war or on the brink of it In 1520 in an effort to bring conflict to an end England's monarch Henry VIII and Francis I of France agreed to meet surrounded by virtually their entire political nations at the Field of Cloth of Gold In the midst of a spectacular festival of competition and entertainment the rival leaders hoped to secure a permanent settlement between them as part of a European wide Universal Peace Richardson offers a bold new appraisal of this remarkable historical event describing the preparations and execution of the magnificent gathering exploring its ramifications and arguing that it was far more than the extravagant elitist theater and cynical charade it historically has been considered to be A sparkling new account of the Field of Cloth of Gold as an extraordinary demonstration of ostentatious rivalry Suzannah Lipscomb author of A Journey Through Tudor England Richardson's book seeks to throw new light on what we know of the Field itself from how it was organized provisioned and enacted to the reasons such a sensational junket should have mattered and in this it undoubtedly succeeds London Review of Books
