Narrative in the Nineteenth-Century Novel Catherine Delafield,2016-12-05 Using private diary writing as her model Catherine Delafield investigates the cultural significance of nineteenth century women s writing and reading practices Beginning with an examination of non fictional diaries and the practice of diary writing she assesses the interaction between the fictional diary and other forms of literary production such as epistolary narrative the periodical the factual document and sensation fiction The discrepancies between the private diary and its use as a narrative device are explored through the writings of Frances Burney Elizabeth Gaskell Anne Bront Dinah Craik Wilkie Collins and Bram Stoker The ideological function of the diary Delafield suggests produces a conflict in fictional narrative between that diary s received use as a domestic and spiritual record and its authority as a life writing opportunity for women Delafield considers women as writers readers and subjects and contextualizes her analysis within nineteenth century reading practice She demonstrates ways in which women could become performers of their own story through a narrative method which was authorized by their femininity and at the same time allowed them to challenge the myth of domestic womanhood From the Jewish

Transmedia Storytelling Jennifer Camden, Kate Faber Oestreich, 2018-12-14 This volume charts the evolution of Pemberley Digital's transmedia adaptations of nineteenth century novels in order to interrogate the uneasy relationship between transmedia storytelling and consumer culture It first examines two Austen centered films Lost in Austen and Austenland that present immersive Austen experiences that anticipate Pemberley Digital's transmedia adaptations bridging traditional film adaptations and transmedia's participatory culture Subsequent chapters turn to Pemberley Digital's transmedia adaptations of Austen's and Shelley's novels to argue that although such adaptations may appear feminist in their emphasis on female protagonists their larger narratives expose a subtext of anxiety about unstable gender roles financial vulnerability and the undervaluation of career specific skill sets both for the characters and the production company itself The study provides a robust theoretical framework within which to read transmedia adaptations of classic literature illuminating both the potential of and the challenges facing digital and transmedia storytellers and participants Lacework or Mirror? Diary Poetics of Frances Burney, Dorothy Wordsworth and Mary Shelley Magdalena Ożarska,2014-01-08

Lacework or Mirror Diary Poetics of Frances Burney Dorothy Wordsworth and Mary Shelley sets out to determine whether each of the diaries by three female writers namely Frances Burney Dorothy Wordsworth and Mary Shelley approximates the Philippe Lejeunean concept of the diary as lacework or the more sweeping view typical of the broadly conceived autobiography which Georges Gusdorf famously likened to the mirror The author explores Burney s Wordsworth s and Shelley s attempts at concealing the gaps between their narrating and narrated I s as well as examining their diary lacunae especially helpful for illustrating the gradual emergence of the diarists individual selves Broader issues connected with diary poetics such as the use of metaphors and symbols the degree of reliance on dialogue and ensuing narrativity down to handling the past by means of anachronous eccentricities are also subject to examination The study is based on the assumption that the journal is a literary genre which can be investigated with tools routinely used for the examination of literary texts Yet beyond the issues of literariness in accordance with Philippe Lejeune s dictum the three journals reveal the writers diaristic practices In fact it seems that issues of the journal genre and the journal practice cannot be divorced and neither can their lacework and mirror aspects Books in Print ,1991 A/AS Level English Language and Literature for AQA Student Book Marcello Giovanelli,Andrea Macrae,Felicity Titjen,Ian Cushing,2015-07-09 A new series of bespoke full coverage resources developed for the 2015 A Level English qualifications Endorsed for the AQA A AS Level English Language and Literature specification for first teaching from 2015 this print Student Book offers stretch opportunities for the more able and additional scaffolding for those who need it Providing full coverage of the specification the unique three part structure bridges the gap between GCSE and A Level and develops students understanding of descriptive linguistics and literary and non literary stylistics together with support for the revised coursework component and new textual intervention task An enhanced digital edition and free Teacher s Resource are also available Fantastic Cinema Subject Guide Bryan Senn,2024-10-16 About 2 500 genre films are entered under more than 100 subject headings ranging from abominable snowmen through dreamkillers rats and time travel to zombies with a brief essay on each topic development highlights and trends Each film entry shows year of release distribution company country of origin director producer screenwriter cinematographer cast credits plot synopsis and critical commentary
