Stefani Engelstein, Carl Niekerk

Franz Mullers Wire Spring Time:

Dada's Subject and Structure Brandon Pelcher, 2023-07-11 Dada's Subject and Structure argues that Dadaist praxis was far more theoretically incisive than previous scholarship has indicated. The book combines theoretical frameworks surrounding ideological subject formation with critical media and genre histories in order to more closely read Dadaist techniques e.g. montage, irony, nonsense etc. across multiple works. These readings reveal both Dada's preternatural focus on the discursive aspects of subject formation, linguistic sign, literary manifesto, photographic image, commodity form, aesthetics, which comprise the project's chapters, and on Dada's performative sabotage and subversion of them. In addition to highlighting commonalities between Dadaist works, artists, and chapters previously imagined disparate, the book shows how Dada simultaneously prefigured structuralist theories of subject formation and pre-performed post-structuralist critiques of those theories.

Myself and My Aims Kurt Schwitters, 2021-03-10 Kurt Schwitters was a major protagonist in the histories of modern art and literature whose response to the contradictions of modern life rivals that of Marcel Duchamp in its importance for artists working today. His celebrated Merz pictures, collaged and assembled from the scrap materials of popular culture and the debris of the studio such as newspaper clippings, wood, cardboard, fabric, and paint, reflect a lifelong interest in collection, fragmentation, and abstraction techniques he also applied to language and graphic design. As the first anthology in English of the critical and theoretical writings of this influential artist, Myself and My Aims makes the case for Schwitters as one of the most creative thinkers of his generation. Including material that has never before been published, this volume presents the full range of his prolific writing on the art and attitudes of his time, joining existing translations of his children's stories, poetry, and fiction to give new readers unprecedented access to his literary imagination. With an accessible introduction by Megan R. Luke and elegant English translations by Timothy Grundy, this book will prove an exceptional resource for artists, scholars, and enthusiasts of his art.

The Chatter of the Visible Patrizia C. McBride, 2016-04-06 The Chatter of the Visible examines the paradoxical narrative features of the photomontage aesthetics of artists associated with Dada, Constructivism, and the New Objectivity. While montage strategies have commonly been associated with the purposeful interruption of and challenge to narrative consistency and continuity, McBride offers an historicized reappraisal of 1920s and 1930s German photomontage work to show that its peculiar mimicry was less a rejection of narrative and more an extension or permutation of it, a means for thinking in narrative textures exceeding constraints imposed by flat print media, especially the novel and other literary genres. McBride's contribution to the conversation around Weimar-era montage is in her situation of the form of the work as a discursive practice in its own right, which affords humans a new way to negotiate temporality as a particular mode of thinking that productively relates the particular to the universal or as a culturally specific form of cognition.

Contemplating Violence Stefani Engelstein, Carl Niekerk, 2015-06-29 Illuminates the treatment of violence in the German cultural tradition between the French Revolution and the Holocaust and Second World War. Franz Muller's
