Interpreters House:

The Interpreter's House Maxwell Struthers Burt, 1924      House documents ,1897      The Fatal News Katherine E. Ellison, 2005-11-28 What was information in the early eighteenth century and what influence did the emergence of information as potential physical and psychological threat have on readers of the period Recent scholarship in eighteenth century print culture and in twenty first century media studies and theory offers a unique opportunity to reconsider how and why information is figuratively imagined during the eighteenth century as an abstract yet bodily entity that can flood suffocate and incapacitate readers Focusing on 1678 to 1722 a period that experienced impressive innovations in communication this study reveals that the term information undergoes a significant transformation with social cultural and literary consequences By investigating discussions of information and media that are evident in works by literary authors the author finds that writers like John Bunyan Aphra Behn Jonathan Swift and Daniel Defoe confront the idea of information overload and provide case studies in literacy reform that operate on institutional generic and consumer levels For example while in Defoe s Journal of the Plague Year information is infectious and citizens depend upon comets and phantoms to construct reader controlled decentralized media in Swift s Tale of a Tub commonplace books and collections demonstrate a new type of organizational or secretarial impulse in society      The Deshima Diaries ,2021-10-25 English translation of the marginalia or marginal notes that were added to the text of the Deshima Diaries from the 1670 s onwards in order to provide the Dutch chief of Deshima with a quick reference to the notes of his predecessors This volume covers the marginalia from the 1740 4800 diaries Providing the general public and especially those who have neither a command of Dutch nor of Japanese access to a fascinating period of Japanese history in which the Dutch played such a singular role At the same time the serious scholar wil obtain an easy key to the extremely rich holdings of the archive of the Deshima trading factory which covers a shelf length of more than forty meters in the National Archives in the Netherlands but which has been only rarely utilized by historians Japanologists or other scholars In the 1740s the Dutch East India Company VOC was in many ways at the height of its power The second half of the 18th century saw the decline of the Company from being the high and mighty and only trading company which covered from its base in Batavia Jakarta all of Asia with a network that stretched from Basra in Persia to Nagasaki in Japan to becoming a mere shadow of its former self with only a tenuous hold on a few possessions in the Indonesian archipelago By the end of the century it had lost its establishments in South Africa India and Ceylon to the British and its fleet was gone However as a trading company it was dead but as a proto colonial producer it was actually doing quite well The basis of the present text are the Deshima Dagregisters their original tables of contents Vol VII 1740 1760 Vol VIII 1760 1780 Vol IX 1780 1790 Vol X 1790 1800 published in the Intercontinenta Series Nos 18 1993 19 1995 20 1996 and 21 1997 by the Institute for the History of European Expansion at Leiden University Scientific Publications of the Japan Netherlands Institute No 21 Published by the Japan Netherlands Institute Tokyo 2004 original ISBN 4930921066

Sessional Papers Canada. Parliament, 1890 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as vol 26 no 7 supplement      Can Theory Help Translators? Andrew Chesterman, Emma Wagner, 2014-07-16 Can Theory Help Translators is a dialogue between a theoretical scholar and a professional translator about the usefulness if any of translation theory The authors argue about the problem of the translator s identity the history of the translator s role the translator s visibility translation types and strategies translation quality ethics and translation aids

Parliamentary Debates New Zealand. Parliament, 1900      The Administration of International Organizations Michael D.V. Davies, 2017-07-05 Drawing on his extensive practical experience as an international civil servant in a number of organizations Davies writes in a lively and readable manner about all aspects of administrative policy and its related implications Divided into two parts the first Top down will enable policy makers in government academia and elsewhere who have an interest in the proper governance and management of international institutions to gain fresh insight into the topic The second part Bottom up provides a substantial body of knowledge of administrations including case studies of best and worse practice The book includes analysis of The UN system International Financial Institutions Co ordinated Organizations Regional European Institutions The Consultative Group for International Agricultural Research This is a work that fills a well defined gap in organizational knowledge in a rigorous but accessible way It is essential reading for both practitioners and academics involved with international organizations      Going Home Richard F. Fenno, 2011-04-15 Thirty years ago there were nine African Americans in the U S House of Representatives Today there are four times that number In Going Home the dean of congressional studies Richard F Fenno explores what representation has meant and means today to black voters and to the politicians they have elected to office Fenno follows the careers of four black representatives Louis Stokes Barbara Jordan Chaka Fattah and Stephanie Tubbs Jones from their home districts to the halls of the Capitol He finds that while these politicians had different visions of how they should represent their districts in part based on their individual preferences and in part based on the history of black politics in America they shared crucial organizational and symbolic connections to their constituents These connections which draw on a sense of linked fates are ones that only black representatives can provide to black constituents His detailed portraits and incisive analyses will be important for anyone interested in the workings of Congress or in black politics      Sessional Papers , 1890 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as vol 26 no 7 supplement      Patrolling Baghdad Mark R. DePue, 2007 Captures the experiences of an Illinois National Guard unit in the city of Baghdad where it worked with other MP units to restore order to the chaotic streets while simultaneously helping to rebuild Iraqi police forces and act as boots on the ground diplomats in the inevitable clash of cultures      The Pilgrim's Progress John Bunyan, 2008-12-11 The Pilgrim s Progress is one of the best loved and most widely read books in English literature It is an acknowledged classic of the heroic Puritan tradition and a founding text in the development of the English novel Its vivid telling psychological realism and the simplicity of the prose
