A Comparative Study of Islamic Finance in Australia and the UK Imran Lum, 2021-09-28 This book provides valuable insights into the practical challenges faced by the nascent Islamic finance industry and compares the Australian experience to developments in the UK It contributes to a greater understanding of how

Muslims living as a minority in Australia and the UK negotiate Islamic doctrine in secular societies by focusing on one aspect of this negotiation namely the prohibition of rib There is little debate in the Islamic tradition on the prohibition of rib The differences however lie in the interpretation of rib and the question of how Muslims live in a society that is heavily reliant on interest and conventional banking yet at the same time adhere to Islamic guidelines Through the words of religious leaders Muslim professionals and university students Imran Lum provides real accounts of how Muslims in Australia and the UK practically deal with conventional banking and finance products such as home loans savings accounts and credit cards He also explores Muslim attitudes towards Islamic finance and queries whether religion is the sole determining factor when it comes to its uptake Drawing on his own unique experience as a practitioner responsible for growing an Islamic business in a conventional bank Lum provides a firsthand account of the complexities associated with structuring Islamic finance products that are not only sharia compliant but also competitive in a non Muslim jurisdiction Using uk k bonds as a case study he highlights the tangible and non tangible barriers to product development such as tax and regulatory requirements and the rise of Islamophobia Combining academic and industry experience Lum unpacks the relationship of Islamic finance with Muslim identity construction in the West and how certain modalities of religiosity can lead to an uptake of Islamic finance while others can lead to its rejection

Human Flourishing: The End of Law W. Michael Reisman,Roza Pati,2023-10-09 This rich volume is an homage to the significant impact Professor Siegfried Wiessner has had on scholarship and practice in many areas of international and domestic law Reflecting the depth and breadth of his writings it is a collection of thought provoking original essays exploring topics as diverse as theory about law human rights the rights of indigenous peoples the rule of law constitutional law the rights of migrants international investment law and arbitration space law the use of force and many more all integrated by the problem and policy oriented framework of what has come to be known as the New Haven School Its title Human Flourishing The End of Law reflects the conviction that the purpose of law ought to be to allow humans to achieve their full potential to thrive and develop both materially and spiritually under the law The volume contributes to a vision of the law as a public order in which the common interest is clarified and implemented peacefully and offers a source of inspiration for scholars and practitioners working towards such an order of human dignity

Reading the Qur'an in the Twenty-First Century Abdullah Saeed,2013-12-04 Reading the Qur'an in the Twenty First Century considers the development of Qur'anic interpretation and highlights modern debates around new approaches to interpretation It explores how Muslims from various theological legal socio political and philosophical backgrounds think about the meaning and relevance of the Qur'an and how their ideas apply in the contemporary world The book reflects on one of the most dominant approaches to interpretation in the pre modern period textualism and the reaction to that in Muslim feminist readings of the Qur an today covers issues such as identifying the hierarchical nature of Qur anic values the criteria for the use of hadith in interpretation fluidity of meaning and ways of ensuring a degree of stability in interpretation examines key Qur anic passages and compares pre modern and modern interpretations to show the evolving nature of interpretation Examples discussed include the authority of men over women the death of Jesus shura and democracy and riba and interest Abdullah Saeed provides a practical guide for interpretation and presents the principal ideas of a contextualist approach which situates the original message of the Qur an in its wider social political cultural economic and intellectual context He advocates a more flexible method of interpretation that gives due recognition to earlier interpretations of the Qur an while also being aware of changing conditions and the need to approach the Qur an afresh today

Muslims In Australia Samina Yasmeen,2010-07-15 Muslims in Australia have attracted increased attention as citizens in the last decade The research scholars in this book present a complex and dynamic picture of their presence and experiences in Australia taking us far beyond simplistic notions of security threats and discrimination Their contributions reveal that Muslims and non Muslims as individuals and communities display many different attitudes towards each other and towards many issues including reactions to the media threats of terrorism and access to Islamic schools The non Muslim community does not always set the agenda for these interactions Muslims experience exclusion while excluding others at the same time often other Muslims Muslims in Australia portrays the varied ways in which Muslims traverse spaces of inclusion and exclusion and suggests ideas to encourage and sustain acceptance and social cohesion Islamic Studies Series Volume 6
