Intersections Post Critical Studies In Preaching:

Intersections Richard Laurence Eslinger, 1994 Prominent homileticians and biblical scholars working in various post critical contexts develop here fresh models of biblical interpretation and explore their implications for preaching Intersections features state of the art reflections on hermeneutics and concrete suggestions for the renewal of homiletics Scholars and preachers will find here challenging perspectives on the traditional historical critical model of interpretation and on topical preaching as well as provocative glimpses at the new post liberal post critical world of biblical interpretation and the ministry of preaching Pitfalls in Preaching Richard Eslinger, 1996 Richard Eslinger discusses with insight humor and concision what he sees as the most critical pitfalls in the various contexts of preaching and offers practical strategies for avoiding them Distance in Preaching Michael Brothers, 2014-09-22 Based on several years of teaching and careful observation in preaching classes this book by Michael Brothers explores the benefits of distance in preaching and listening to sermons Having noticed that sermon listeners generally want to be given room for their own interpretations and experiences Brothers argues that critical and aesthetic distance as a hermeneutical tool is vital to hearing the gospel today and should be intentionally employed in sermon construction and delivery He explains this distance in the field of homiletics equips teachers and students of preaching to evaluate the function of distance in sermons and encourages preachers to practice the use of distance in their preaching Preaching as a Theological Task David Buttrick, Thomas G. Long, Edward Farley, 1996-01-01 How do particular world situations impact preaching How does a preacher use the gospel and Scripture to speak to those situations This volume in honor of homiletician David Buttrick explores the complex and important relationships between world gospel and Scripture and their relevance for preaching theology This book is for those seeking thoughtful and challenging new ways to approach the preaching task now and into the twenty first century Invasion of the Dead Brian K. Blount, 2014-01-24 Our world and our churches are neither sinful nor lost they are dead This dead world is the one that God engages and into which Jesus invaded with a radically different vision of life In this groundbreaking work based on his 211 Yale Beecher lectures Brian K Blount helps preachers effectively proclaim resurrection in a world consumed by death Recognizing that both popular culture and popular Christianity are mesmerized by death and dying Blount offers an alternative apocalyptic vision for our time one that starts with a clear vision of life that obliterates death and reveals life s essence Blount explores the portrait and meaning of resurrection through the New Testament the Book of Revelation the letters of Paul and the Gospel of Mark and explores how to biblically and theologically reconfigure apocalyptic preaching for today With three illustrative sermons this book is an ideal resource to help preachers proclaim the power of resurrection Proverbs and the Formation of Character Bland Dave, 2016-11-24 Proverbs and the Formation of Character presses the wisdom of Proverbs into active duty in the trenches of everyday life and puts the principles of character formation in working clothes The wisdom Proverbs describes is not designed to master life s challenges but to learn to manage them and adapt In learning to adapt individuals grow and mature spiritually Relying on solid biblical scholarship Dave Bland brings to the fore the neglected sentence literature in Proverbs 10 29 and the vital resources they contribute to the process of character formation Contrary to popular opinion the book of Proverbs even though addressed to youth is not a book solely for the young but for those of all ages who desire to continue to grow personally as well as in their relationship with others and God The wise in the book of Proverbs employ a plethora of resources to help train up young and old alike to grow into the character of God Among others these resources include the value of interacting with others a healthy understanding of conflict an appropriate perspective on wealth a new appreciation for and reliance on the role of the neglected proverb in the education process and the vital role of family and the faith community

The Annunciation Larry Hart, 2017-03-10 The Annunciation is an in depth look at how the Christian message can be communicated in a way that is comprehensible to the postmodern world and yet remain within the classical faith

Mark Abraham Kuruvilla MD, 2012-02-24 Mark A Theological Commentary for Preachers engages hermeneutics for preaching employing theological exegesis that enables the preacher to utilize all the narrative units of Mark to craft effective sermons This commentary unpacks the crucial link between Scripture and application the theology of each preaching text The Gospel of Mark is therefore divided into twenty five narrative units with the theological focus of each clearly delineated The specificity of these theological ideas for their respective texts makes possible a sequential homiletical movement through each pericope of the book progressively developing the theological trajectory of Mark s theme of discipleship and enabling the expositor to discover valid application for sermons While the primary goal of the commentary is to take the preacher from text to theology it also aids in the advance from theology to sermon by providing tips for preaching and two possible sermon outlines for each of the twenty five units of the Gospel The unique approach of this work results in a theology for preaching commentary that promises to be useful for anyone teaching through Mark s Gospel with an emphasis on application

We Have Heard That God Is with You Rein Bos, 2008-08-20 A perfect tool for busy preachers who want to faithfully proclaim God s Word The preparation of sermons on Old Testament texts confronts preachers time and time again with such questions as How can I connect an Old Testament text with the situation of my congregation today in a responsible way and What is the role of Jesus in that connection In this practical scholarly guidebook Rein Bos tackles such questions and offers thoughtful answers We Have Heard That God Is with You gives pastors a creative and innovative grammar to preach the Old Testament in a Christian context Bos offers multiple examples from American sermons to illustrate how his model can be used in sermon preparation and how it can serve the practice of preaching Each chapter is a rich meal for the busy preacher looking for creative relevant options for sermons that are faithful to Scripture

The Four Pages of the Sermon Paul Scott Wilson, 2010-09-01 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon

Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two

Searching for the Self Adrian T. Smith, 2018-01-22 Who am I If you are unsure of your personal identity you are not alone Our postmodern culture multiplies identity crisis Identity comes from story the better our story the healthier our identity and our behavior Searching for the Self helps you discover your own story and discern how cultural narratives shape your behavior Channeling the ancient wisdom of classic stories including Christian Scripture viewed as true story this book offers hope to anyone searching for a better story to live by Searching for the Self provides a groundbreaking synthesis of narrative psychology cultural analysis biblical studies and English Literature 101 all written in an engaging style and interwoven with revealing personal anecdotes

Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-02 John McClure's Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today's preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching

A Vision for Preaching Abraham Kuruvilla, 2015-09-15 This book by a well respected teacher of preachers develops an integrated biblical and theological vision for preaching that addresses the essentials of this most important activity in the church Drawing on influential voices from church history Abraham Kuruvilla reclaims what has been lost through the centuries and offers fresh insights showing preachers what they can aim for as an ideal in their preaching He helps preachers have a better conception of what it means to preach a fuller understanding of the divinely granted privilege of preaching and a greater excitement for the preaching ministry Concluding biblical reflections reinforce the teaching of each chapter Preaching the Fear of God in a Fear-Filled World Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm, 2021-11-30 Fear runs rampant in the world today including fears related to the rise of nationalism refugees political corruption violence religious extremism and climate crises Amid these existential realities the biblical idea of the fear of God poses theological opportunities and challenges for those who address these themes in their preaching and public ministry This collection of conference presentations from the 2018 meeting of Societas Homiletica focuses on how preaching and homiletical studies around the world address the rhetorical biblical political and spiritual dimensions of fear as it has emerged in recent decades in church and society Preaching in the New Creation David Schnasa Jacobsen, 1999-01-01 Most preachers have little fondness for apocalyptic texts because of their scathing language surrealistic plots and enigmatic symbols David Jacobsen helps preachers move past these barriers with clear step by step directions and insightful analysis showing how to move from text to sermon for the apocalyptic texts included in the lectionary The Princeton Seminary Bulletin Princeton Theological Seminary, 2006 Vols for 1907 1908 1936 1937 no 1 Commencement issue no 2 Necrology report no 3 News no 4 Catalogue v for 1937 1938 1938 1939 no 1 3 News no 2 Bulletin of courses no 4 Catalogue v for 1939 1940 1944 1945 no 1 4 News no 2 Bulletin of courses no 3 Catalogue v for 1945 1946 no 1 Bulletin of courses no 2 4 News no 3 Catalogue v for 1946 1947 1952 1953 no 1 3 4 News no 2 Catalogue Preaching to Second Generation Korean Americans Matthew D. Kim, 2007 This in depth study on preaching to second generation Korean Americans the first of its kind is based on empirical and ethnographic fieldwork Matthew D Kim conducted surveys and semi structured qualitative interviews with Korean American pastors and second generation young adult respondents in three geographic regions of the United States the Midwest the West Coast and the East Coast His primary conceptual framework employs social psychologists Hazel Markus and Paula Nurius theory of possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermon preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology Preaching Like Paul James W. Thompson, 2000-01-01 In contrast with the widely popular interest in narrative styles Professor Thompson believes Paul s letters offer a different and valid model for preaching today He clearly demonstrates how the manner of preaching used in the pre Christian culture of Paul is both appropriate and effective in our contemporary post Christian culture Unlike most books on preaching this book does not focus on homiletic technique but on the goal of preaching a needed missing component in contemporary homiletic discussion Preacher, Can You Hear Us

Listening? Roger E. Van Harn, 2005-02-03 Everyone knows that pulpits are for preaching and pews are for listening to sermons. This obvious scenario however masks an essential prerequisite for faithful fruitful preaching namely that preachers listen to God and to their people before they speak. Roger Van Harn here puts forth pointed questions that sermon listeners really ask of preachers: Why should we listen to sermons? Does every sermon need a Bible text? How can a sermon be the word of God? Do you preach for the church or the world? Van Harn grapples with and discusses such questions giving preachers fresh insights into the needs and desires of congregations. Preacher Can You Hear Us Listening will foster an ongoing dialogue between pulpit and pew and sharpen listening skills in both directions.
