A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework Jane Chin Davidson, Amelia Jones, 2023-10-04 A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework explores the ways specialists and institutions in the fine arts curation cultural studies and art history have attempted to situate art in a more global framework since the 1980s Offering analyses of the successes and setbacks of these efforts to globalize the art world this innovative volume presents a new and exciting way of considering art in its global contexts Essays by an international panel of leading scholars and practicing artists assert that what we talk about as art is essentially a Western concept thus any attempts at understanding art in a global framework require a revising of established conceptual definitions Organized into three sections this work first reviews the history and theory of the visual arts since 1980 and introduces readers to the emerging area of scholarship that seeks to place contemporary art in a global framework The second section traces the progression of recent developments in the art world focusing on the historical and cultural contexts surrounding efforts to globalize the art world and the visual arts in particular global and transnational frameworks The final section addresses a wide range of key themes in contemporary art such as the fundamental institutions and ontologies of art practice and the interactions among art politics and the public sphere A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework is essential reading for undergraduate and graduate students scholars researchers and general readers interested in exploring global art beyond the traditional Euro American context

Sitting on a Keg of Dynamite John Neal Phillips, 2022-09-08 On April 16 1947 the French vessel SS Grandcamp carrying ammonium nitrate fertilizer exploded in the port of Texas City just north of Galveston Texas Nearly 600 people died instantly and property damage reached catastrophic proportions The Texas City disaster remains to date the worst industrial accident in U S history Among those killed was William Roach a Roman Catholic priest known affectionately as Father Bill Sitting on a Keg of Dynamite by historian John Neal Phillips tells the remarkable story of Father Bill s life and premature death against the backdrop of the rapid growth and near destruction of an American industrial city Through extensive archival research and oral interviews Phillips pieces together previously unknown details of Father Bill s story to present a well rounded portrait of the man who is today revered as a hero Born in Philadelphia Roach attended seminary in Arkansas before he went on to serve as parish priest for St Mary of the Miraculous Medal in Texas City Restless energetic and beloved for his humor tolerance and empathy Father Bill was an outspoken advocate for poor and working class citizens fair wages and workplace safety One evening as Phillips vividly recounts Roach sat on the church steps looking out at the strange orange yellow light created by hydrocarbon gas flares emerging from nearby oil refineries I feel like I m sitting on a keg of dynamite he told parishioners who were passing by His premonition proved prophetic When a fire erupted onboard the Grandcamp Father Bill hurried to the docks to lend assistance It was then that the ship detonated There is still much to be learned from the Texas City disaster and from the legacy of Father Bill an early crusader for social justice in America Descendants of the disaster victims received financial reparations and yet as Phillips cautions safety and environmental regulations barely exist in Texas today particularly when it comes to the petrochemical industry Sitting on a Keg of Dynamite serves as a cautionary tale for Texans and all Americans as environmental accidents continue to threaten our safety

Stalking the Holy Michael W. Higgins,2006 In Stalking the Holy writer and scholar Michael W Higgins explores the Roman Catholic pursuit of saint making the pre eminent Christian model he argues with its elaborate features and arcane cast of players such as the relator and the promotor of the faith He points out that if saints are not actually made so much as recognized by the Church nevertheless this official recognition is a form of manufacture involving motivation expertise and risk
