Intimacy Paradox:

The Intimacy Paradox Donald S. Williamson, 2002-07-01 Although most people physically leave home by their early 20s emotional separation from one's family is a more difficult process that can continue for a lifetime Now available in paper for the first time this acclaimed book addresses the struggle of adults to establish autonomy without sacrificing family connections Donald S Williamson presents personal authority therapy an approach designed to simultaneously foster individual development and family of origin intimacy Therapists are taken step by step through conducting individual couple and small group sessions that culminate in several sessions with each client and his or her parents Writing with sensitivity and humor the author demonstrates effective ways to help adult children construct new personal and family narratives resolve intergenerational intimidation and enjoy healthier more equal relationships with parents and significant others

Flexible Bodies Anusha Kedhar, 2020-10-05 Flexible Bodies honors the lives and labor of British South Asian dancers and celebrates their contributions to a distinct and dynamic sector of British dance Drawing on expertise gained from over seven years dancing in Britain author Anusha Kedhar presents a multifaceted picture of British South Asian dance as its own distinctive genre Analyzing dance works dance films rehearsals and touring alongside immigration policy arts funding initiatives and global economic conditions Flexible Bodies traces shifts in British South Asian dance from 1990s Cool Britannia multiculturalism to fallout from the 2008 global financial crisis and more recently the anti immigration rhetoric leading up to the Brexit referendum in 2016 Kedhar draws on over a decade of interviews and conversations with dancers in Britain as well as in depth choreographic analysis of major dance works to reveal the creative ways in which British South Asian dancers negotiate neoliberal multicultural dance markets through an array of flexible bodily practices Providing a new critical dance studies lens through which to view the precarious economic racial national and legal positions of South Asians in Britain Flexible Bodies ultimately argues for centering dance labor in studies of neoliberalism

The Leadership Labyrinth

Judson Edwards, 2005 The leadership paradox the harder you try to control a group the less control you will have The calendar paradox the busier you are the less you will accomplish The relationship paradox the people who like you most will be the ones you try least to please The anxiety paradox the less you worry about the church the better it will do The stewardship paradox the more you preach about money the less you will receive The preaching paradox the more you preach the less you will have to say The negotiation paradox the most serious issues cannot be handled seriously The learning paradox you will only learn more of what you already know The power paradox the weakest people in the church tend to wield the most power The issues paradox the issues you most want to push are beyond pushing The decision paradox people seldom have to choose between right and wrong The influence paradox the most powerful people in your life will not be powerful people The controversy paradox the issue you are arguing about is not the issue at all The confrontation paradox direct confrontation seldom confronts the problem The intimacy paradox distance often helps people more than closeness The ministry paradox the more you try to help people the more helpless people become the helper's paradox the best way to help others is to take care of yourself The organization paradox the more organized the church becomes the less it accomplishes The problems paradox problems are not really problems at all The time paradox the less important the issue the more time you will spend on it The attitude paradox only pastors who are having fun can seriously proclaim the gospel

War 4.0 Deane-Peter Baker, Mark Hilborne, 2025-05-01 This volume explores the impact of technology and new domains on future warfare It identifies several themes and highlights the increasing complexity of the security environment and the uncertainty of future war The sense of time and speed has been and is being compressed by developments in quantum technologies the cyber domain artificial intelligence the increased capabilities of sensors and data collection as well as new propulsion technologies such as hypersonic designs Concepts regarding the shape and extent of the battlefield are challenged by the notion of hybrid war and sub threshold tactics as well as new domains in which competition is increasing such as space Further challenging the shape of the battlefield is the increased development of remote and autonomous warfare Commercial developments will affect how military production is owned and managed and how military forces are composed Thus a confluence of new technologies exists combining to create the potential of fundamental transformation at many levels This wave of technological change has been called the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR characterised by an exponential rather than a linear rate of change generated by convergence and complementarity of emerging technology domains These may not affect the fundamental Clausewitzian nature of war but they will likely affect its character From a military perspective the key will be the impact on the speed of operations and on the shape of the operational domain the factors of time and space The combination of these shifts will increasingly affect the perception of states and the degree of certainty in approaching and engaging in conflict

The Marriage Checkup James V. Cordova, 2009 The Marriage Checkup is designed to help couples assess the strengths and weaknesses of their relationship and to develop strategies for strengthening its health Like physical health the health of a relationship can be developed to greater levels of fitness and resilience to illness Thus even healthy couples can benefit from a marital health perspective by developing exercises for optimizing their health and fitness This book primarily serves couples interested in improving the health of their relationship Counselors and therapists may recommend that their couples patients use the book Additionally the book may be of interest to professors of marriage and family counseling

About Love Robert C. Solomon, 2006-09-30 A subtle and distinguished work by a philosopher renowned for his groundbreaking analysis of human emotions

About Love

Family Therapy Sourcebook, Second Edition Fred P. Piercy, Douglas H. Sprenkle, Joseph L. Wetchler, 1996-10-10 While there are many volumes that survey the field of family therapy Family Therapy Sourcebook provides something different a roadmap to classic and state of the art work on foundational issues in theory research and practice More than a textbook or a summary of primary sources this volume is a comprehensive guide to original source materials for the student or teacher of family therapy Covering the traditional family therapies and more each chapter presents a selective annotated bibliography highlights key concepts and clinical techniques discusses research issues and proposes creative teaching strategies Describing helpful assignments and experiential learning exercises for educators the authors share valuable expertise gained from years of teaching

Case Studies in Couples Therapy David K. Carson, Montserrat Casado-Kehoe, 2013-06-19 This up to date highly readable theory based and application oriented book fills a crucial void in literature on couple therapy Few books in the couple therapy market bridge the gap between theory and practice texts tend to lean in one direction or the other either emphasizing theory and research with little practical application or taking a cookbook approach that describes specific techniques and interventions that are divorced from any conceptual or theoretical base However couples therapy requires a high degree of abstract conceptual thinking as well as ingenuity inventiveness and skill on the part of the therapist Case Studies in Couples Therapy blends the best of all worlds clinical applications with challenging and diverse couples that have been derived from the most influential theories and models in couples and family therapy all written by highly experienced and respected voices in the field In Case Studies in Couples Therapy readers will grasp the essentials of major theories and approaches in a few pages and then see how concepts and principles are applied in the work of well known clinicians The case studies incorporate a wide variety of couples from diverse backgrounds in a number of different life situations It is simultaneously narrow including specific processes and interventions applied with real clients and broad clearly outlining a broad array of theories and concepts in scope and the interventions in it are directly linked to theoretical perspectives in a clear and systematic way Students and clinicians alike will find the theoretical overview sections of each chapter clear and easy to follow and each chapter's thorough descriptions of effective practical interventions will give readers a strong sense of the connections between theory and practice      Discover the Joy of Good Health John Inzerillo, M.D., 2012-09-25 Focused on rekindling the joy that lies within all of us Dr John Inzerillo presents techniques designed to help the reader reconnect with their inner child while examining and altering long held beliefs to better negotiate many of life's pitfalls      Becoming an Effective Supervisor Jane Campbell, 2013-08-21 A practical hands on workbook Becoming an Effective Supervisor neatly fills the gap in supervision resources available to mental health practitioners The workbook is designed to help clinical counselors and therapists create effective supervision programs of their own and to address the individual needs of their students The leading contemporary models of supervision are discussed as well as the necessary components of a successful supervision curriculum A framework is then provided for counselors and therapists to develop a personalized and highly effective supervisory style to implement with their own students The unique exploration exercises in each chapter allow readers to actively integrate the information provided and to apply these lessons and skills to their own supervisory experiences Students too will benefit from her concise examination of the theories applications and goals of the supervision process Along with a discussion of the ethical legal and multicultural issues faced by clinical supervisors practical analyses and applications ensure that this book will be a valued addition to any clinical counseling or therapy library      The Gift of Beauty and the Passion of Being William Desmond, 2018-07-06 This book gathers a set of reflections on the gift of beauty and the passion of being There is something surprising about beauty that we receive and that moves the passion of being in us The book takes issue with an ambiguous attitude to beauty among some who proclaim their advanced aesthetic authenticity Beauty seems bland and lacks the more visceral thrill of the ugly indeed the excremental We crave what disrupts and provokes us not what gives delight or even consoles By contrast attention is given to how beauty arouses enigmatic joy in us and we enjoy an elemental rapport with it as other Surprised by beauty our breath is taken away but we are more truly there with the beautiful when we are taken outside of ourselves We are first receivers of the gift of surprise and only then perceivers and conceivers My attention to the passion of being stresses a patience a receptivity to what is other What happens is not first our construction There is something given something awakening something delighting something energizing something of invitation to transcendence The theme is amplified in diverse reflections on life and its transient beauty on soul music and its relation to self on the shine on things given in creation on beauty and Schopenhauer's dark origin on creativity and the dynamis in Paul Weiss's creative ventures on redemption in Romanticism in the thought of Stanley Cavell on theater as a between or metaxu on redeeming laughter and its connection with the passion of being      For the Love of Men Liz Plank, 2019-09-10 A nonfiction investigation into masculinity For The Love of Men provides actionable steps for how to be a man in the modern world while also exploring how being a man in the world has evolved In 2019 traditional masculinity is both rewarded and sanctioned Men grow up being told that boys don't cry and dolls are for girls a newer phenomenon than you might realize gendered toys came back in vogue as recently as the 80s They learn they must hide their feelings and anxieties that their masculinity must constantly be proven They must be the breadwinners they must be the romantic pursuers This hasn't been good for the culture at large 99% of school shooters are male men in fraternities are 300% more likely to commit rape a woman serving in uniform has a higher likelihood of being assaulted by a fellow soldier than to be killed by enemy fire In For the Love of Men Liz offers a smart insightful and deeply researched guide for what we're all going to do about toxic masculinity For both women looking to guide the men in their lives and men who want to do better and just don't know how For the Love of Men will lead the conversation on men's issues in a society where so much is changing but gender roles have remained strangely stagnant What are we going to do about men Liz Plank has the answer And it has the possibility to change the world for men and women alike

Working Out Desire Sertaç Sehlíkoglu, 2021-01-12 Working Out Desire examines spor meraki as an object of desire shared by a broad and diverse group of Istanbulite women Sehlíkoglu follows the latest anthropological scholarship that defines desire beyond the moment it is felt experienced or even yearned for and as something that is formed through a series of social and historical makings She traces Istanbulite women's ever increasing interest in exercise not merely to an interest in sport but also to an interest in establishing a new self one that attempts to escape from conventional feminine duties and an investment in forming a more agentive desiring self Working Out Desire develops a multilayered analysis of how women use spor meraki to take themselves out of the domestic zone physically emotionally and also imaginatively Sehlikoglu pushes back against the conventional boundaries of scholarly interest in Muslim women as pious subjects Instead it places women's desiring subjectivity at its center and traces women's agentive aspirations in the way they bend the norms which are embedded in the multiple patriarchal ideologies i e nationalism religion aesthetics which operate on their selves Working out Desire presents the ways in which women's changing habits leisure and self formation in the Muslim world and the Middle East are connected to their agentive capacities to shift and transform their conditions and socio cultural capabilities
