The Romantic Lives of Emerging Adults Varda Konstam, 2019-01-21 The romantic lives of emerging adults are often baffling and contradictory While they prize committed and authentic relationships they appear to be reluctant participants They prefer to foster ambiguity in their romantic relationships even as they value honesty and clarity There is at once a valuing of long term as well as a decentering of romantic relationships Although our current understanding is incomplete this text grapples with these perplexing questions In attempting to understand emerging adults and their romantic lives researchers must consider the challenging economic conditions in which today's emerging adults find themselves With an emphasis on commitment and sacrifice and their centrality to one's readiness for a long term relationship this book reviews the main milestones in transitioning from an I identity to a we identity and discusses the concepts of choice and risk Further the book examines structures such as asymmetrically committed relationships cohabitation and marriage through the lens of commitment risk and risk avoidance Probing extensively into the romantic lives of emerging adults their attitudes values and expectations this text examines some of the developmental and contextual realities against which romantic attachment must be viewed Critical topics such as casual and sexual experiences and relationships integration of work and love breakups marriage going solo and social media and its influences are considered The commonality and the individuality of the emerging adults presented throughout this text contribute to a rich understanding of emerging adults and how they live and love

Sermons of Arthur C. McGill Arthur C. McGill, 2007-01-01 Throughout the 1960s and 1970s Arthur McGill had numerous opportunities to air his rich theological musings outside of the classroom We are now fortunate some twenty five years after his death to have seventeen sermons brought to us by the aid of his wife Lucille McGill and editor David Cain University of Mary Washington These homilies reveal the core themes that distinguish his theological writings relaxing in our neediness before God participating in the death to life pattern of self expenditure and rooting our hope in the unique power of Christ The collection culminates with what Cain notes as McGill's signature sermon on The Good Samaritan wherein we see that the reception of grace always precedes the extension of grace In addressing day to day issues such as possessions speech loneliness and anger McGill is both prophetic and pastoral He does not hesitate to say that the wickedness of Nineveh alas is the wickedness of the United States At the same time he brings a refreshing word with theological depth about human
