Into Brown Bear Country Willard A. Troyer, 2005 Bears are North America's most complex and controversial predator both loved and hated for their majesty and power Will Troyer's introduction to the natural history of Alaska's brown bears is both enchanting and informative told with the objectivity of a biologist the resonant voice of an outdoorsman who has spent decades in bear society and breathtaking photography Troyer was a pioneer in the study of brown bears Convinced that scientific research was the only antidote to widespread fear and misinformation about one of Alaska's largest predators he gathered data with primitive equipment and endured hair raising adventures His career spanned dramatic changes in approaches to bear management that ranged from extermination to conservation a history of human bear interactions that he recounts with unusual insight and first hand knowledge Troyer offers a holistic description of bear biology and behavior an account of bear human interactions and practical advice for viewing and photographing bears Into Brown Bear Country offers an intimate realistic view of the lives of Alaska's coastal bears Entertaining and readable it will be enjoyed by all readers of nature literature and is an essential starting point for anyone visiting bear country In Bear Country Jake

Macdonald, 2011-04-12 They terrify and fascinate us They are moving closer to us as climate change deforestation and rural development diminish their habitats Once considered rare romantic creatures bears are now as common in some places as raccoons Some say we should leave them alone others argue that responsible hunting will serve both bears and humans best Weighing both sides of the argument award winning writer Jake MacDonald examines the history and behavior of the three species of bears in North America grizzlies black bears and polar bears Part memoir and part natural history In Bear Country draws on the personal experiences of MacDonald and others providing an absorbing story about the place bears occupy in our world and the place we occupy in theirs As MacDonald skillfully weaves a compelling meditation on our continent's largest predators he delivers a profound and powerful message for all to consider as bear country quickly shrinks and our worlds collide Brown Bear of Alaska United States.
