Literature The Power Of Language:

Power in Language, Culture, Literature and Education Marta Degani, Werner Delanoy, 2023-04-24 In one of the contributions to this edited volume an interviewee argues that English is power For researchers in the field of English Studies this raises the questions of where the power of English resides and which types and practices of power are implied in the uses of English Linguists scholars of literature and culture and language educators address aspects of these questions in a wide range of contributions The book shows that the power of English can oscillate between empowerment and subjection on the one hand enabling humans to develop manifold capabilities and on the other constraining their scope of action and reflection In this edited volume a case is made for self critical English Studies to be dialogic empowering and power critical in approach

Language and Power. The Implications of Language for Peace and Development Birgit Brock-Utne, Gunnar Garbo, 2009-09-15 Language is a tool used to express thoughts to hide thoughts or to hide lack of thoughts It is often a means of domination The question is who has the power to define the world around us This book demonstrates how language is being manipulated to form the minds of listeners or readers Innocent words may be used to conceal a reality which people would have reacted to had the phenomena been described in a straightforward manner The nice and innocent concept cost sharing which leads our thoughts to communal sharing and solidarity may actually imply privatization The false belief that the best way to learn a foreign language is to have it as a language of instruction actually becomes a strategy for stupidification of African pupils In this book 33 independent experts from 16 countries in the North and the South show how language may be used to legitimize war making promote Northern interests in the field of development and retain colonial speech as languages of instruction languages of the courts and in politics The book has been edited by two Norwegians Birgit Brock Utne is a professor at the University of Oslo and a consultant in education and development From 1987 until 1992 she was a professor at the University of Dar es Salaam Gunnar Garbo author and journalist and former member of the Norwegian Parliament was the Norwegian Ambassador to Tanzania from 1987 to 1992

Language, Culture and Power C. T. Indra, R. Rajagopalan, 2017-11-13 This volume examines the relationship between language and power across cultural boundaries It evaluates the vital role of translation in redefining culture and ethnic identity During the first phase of colonialism mid 18th to late 19th century the English speaking missionaries and East India Company functionaries in South India were impelled to master Tamil the local language in order to transact their business Tamil also comprised ancient classical literary works especially ethical and moral literature which were found especially suited to the preferences of Christian missionaries This interface between English and Tamil acted as a conduit for cultural transmission among different groups The essays in this volume explore the symbiotic relation between English and Tamil during the late colonial and postcolonial as also the modernist and the postmodernist periods The book showcases the modernity of contemporary Tamil culture as reflected in its literary and artistic productions poetry fiction short fiction and drama and outlines the aesthetics philosophy and methodology of these translations This volume and its companion which looks at the period between 1750 to 1900 CE cover the late colonial and postcolonial era and will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of translation studies literature linguistics sociology and social anthropology South Asian studies colonial and postcolonial studies literary and critical theory as well as culture studies

Socio-educational Factors and the Soft Power of Language Anna Odrowaz-Coates,2019-10-23 Anna Odrowaz Coates shows that English as a language of European integration and communication has become an element of social status In privileged social groups its position has changed from a foreign language to a second language which demonstrates a linguistic shift with long term consequences Socio educational Factors and Soft Power of Language critically examines the cultural and individual implications of this phenomenon in the context of field study in Poland and Portugal Odrowaz Coates uses institutional ethnography with a combination of theoretical constructs including soft power and positioning theory to examine evidence of English as a new tool for social stratification and its effect on language policies as well as the ways in which it impacts people s lives and their opportunities Whilst critical of the neoliberal neo colonial and imperialistic dimensions of English language hegemony Odrowaz Coates argues for a gendered perspective of English as a language of opportunity inclusion and empowerment She focuses on discourses that are shown to be products of and the makers of the material aspects of language Using an ethical imperative not only to question but also to participate in the existing power structures in order to change the power dynamic Odrowaz Coates argues that language choices are not necessarily individually driven but are instead institutionally driven

Literature and Power Zhu Guohua,2023-11-28 With reference to the theoretical framework of Michel Foucault and Pierre Bourdieu this book offers a critical investigation into such epic issues as the end of art and the inherent laws of literature s evolution while conflating the two into one major argumentation The book proceeds from Hegel s claim of the end of art to tackle the universal yet essential problem of literature its legitimacy in a sociological sense It invests Bourdieu s sociological terms power capital habitus field and so forth into the study of literature and art while taking on other theoretical enquiries particularly the Marxist exploration into ideology as well as aspects of economics and communication studies This book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of the sociology of literature cultural studies and those with specific interests in Chinese literature literary and art theory

Powers of Expression, Expressions of Power Andrew Laird,1999 Can a speaker s words ever be faithfully reported History philosophy ethnography political theory linguistics and literary criticism all involve debates about discourse and representation By drawing from Plato s theory of discourse the lively analysis of speech presentation in this book provides a coherent and original contribution to these debates and highlights the problems involved when speech becomes both the object and the medium of narrative representation The opening chapters offer fresh insights on ideology intertextuality literary language and historiography and reveal important connections between them These insights are then applied in specific critical treatments of Virgil s Aeneid of Petronius Satyricon and of scenes involving messengers and angels in classical and European epic Throughout this study ancient texts are discussed in conjunction with examples from later traditions Overall this book uses Latin literature to demonstrate the theoretical and ideological importance of speech presentation for a number of contemporary disciplines

Meaning and Power in the Language of Law Janny H. C. Leung, Alan Durant, 2018-01-18 Legal practitioners linguists anthropologists philosophers and others have all explored fundamental challenges presented by language in formulating interpreting and applying laws Building on centuries of interaction between legal practice and jurisprudence the modern field of law and language or forensic linguistics brings insights in linguistics and related fields to bear on topics including legal drafting and translation statutory interpretation expert evidence on language use and dynamics of courtroom interaction This volume presents an interlocking series of research studies engaged with different legal jurisdictions and socio political contexts as well as with the more abstract notion of law Together the chapters written by international leaders in their fields highlight recent directions in research and investigate in particular how law expresses yet also conceals power relations in its crafted use of words and in the gaps and silence between those words

Language, Identity, and Power in Modern India Riho Isaka, 2021-10-28 This book is a historical study of modern Gujarat India addressing crucial questions of language identity and power It examines the debates over language among the elite of this region during a period of significant social and political change in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Language debates closely reflect power relations among different sections of society such as those delineated by nation ethnicity region religion caste class and gender They are intimately linked with the process in which individuals and groups of people try to define and project themselves in response to changing political economic and social environments Based on rich historical sources including official records periodicals literary texts memoirs and private papers this book vividly shows the impact that colonialism nationalism and the process of nation building had on the ideas of language among different groups as well as how various ideas of language competed and negotiated with each other Language Identity and Power in Modern India Gujarat c 1850-1960 will be of particular interest to students and scholars working on South Asian history and to those interested in issues of language society and politics in different parts of the modern world

The Power of Tautology Allen Thiher, 1997 Historicism occupies a central position in recent developments of literary theory exemplified by Heidegger and Foucault They are respectively right and left wing examples of the desire to define whatever occurs in history as a product of history Heidegger and Foucault also represent versions of the widespread belief that history should be viewed as a form of conspiracy Another example studied is the structuralism that has developed from Saussure through Roland Barthes Structuralism has defined all products of the human mind to be systems that can be reduced to the system of language

Critical Literacy Practice Bogum Yoon, Rukhsar Sharif, 2015-08-17 This edited book shows how critical literacy can be applied in and outside the classroom setting It shows educators how critical theory is applied in practice using studies in diverse K 16 settings kindergarten through university contexts By providing specific examples of critical literacy practice in the classroom and beyond the book aims to help teachers researchers and teacher educators make clear connections between theory and practice in critical literacy Ifá Divination, Knowledge, Power, and Performance Jacob K.

Olupona, Rowland O. Abiodun, 2016-02-29 This landmark volume compiled by Jacob K Olupona and Rowland O Abiodun brings readers into the diverse world of If its discourse ways of thinking and artistic expression as manifested throughout the Afro Atlantic Firmly rooting If within African religious traditions the essays consider If and If divination from the perspectives of philosophy performance studies and cultural studies They also examine the sacred context verbal art and the interpretation of If texts and philosophy With essays from the most respected scholars in the field the book makes a substantial contribution toward understanding If and its role in contemporary Yoruba and diaspora cultures Collaborative Colonial Power Wing

Sang Law, 2009-07-01 Law Wing Sang provides an alternative lens for looking into Hong Kong s history by breaking away for the usual colonial and nationalist interpretations Drawing on both English and Chinese sources he argues that from the early colonial era colonial power has been extensively shared between colonizers and the Chinese who chose to work with them This exploration of the form of colonial power includes critical discussions of various cultural and institutional aspects looking into such issues as education language use political ideologies and other cultural and political concerns These considerations permit the author to shed new light from a historical perspective on the complex and hotly debated question of Hong Kong identity But it is not written just out of an interest in things of the past Rather the arguments of this book shed new light on some current issues of major relevance to post colonial Hong Kong In making critical use of post colonial approaches this book not only makes an original and important contribution to Hong Kong studies but also makes evident that Hong Kong is an important case for all interested in examining the colonial experience in East Asia This book is of interest to all with an interest in Hong Kong s history and current issues but also more widely to those who study the phenomenon of colonialism in the Asian region Reconsidering American Power John D. Kelly, Kurt Jacobsen, Marston

H. Morgan, 2019-12-05 Postcolonial studies postmodern studies even posthuman studies emerge and intellectuals demand that social sciences be remade to address fundamentals of the human condition from human rights to global environmental crises Since these fields owe so much to American state sponsorship is it easier to reimagine the human and the modern than to properly measure the pervasive American influence Reconsidering American Power offers trenchant studies by renowned scholars who reassess the role of the social sciences in the construction and upkeep of the Pax Americana and the influence of Pax Americana on the social sciences With the thematic image for this enterprise as the fiery hunt for Ahab s whale the contributors pursue realities behind the theories and reconsider the real origins and motives of their fields with an eye on what will deter or repurpose the fiery hunts to come by offering a critical insider s view Self-Translation and Power

Olga Castro, Sergi Mainer, Svetlana Page, 2017-08-07 This book investigates the political social cultural and economic implications of self translation in multilingual spaces in Europe Engaging with the power turn in translation studies contexts it offers innovative perspectives on the role of self translators as cultural and ideological mediators The authors explore the unequal power relations and centre periphery dichotomies of Europe s minorised languages literatures and cultures They recognise that the self translator s double affiliation as author and translator places them in a privileged position to challenge power to negotiate the experiences of the subaltern and colonised and to scrutinise conflicting minorised vs hegemonic cultural identities Three main themes are explored in relation to self translation hegemony and resistance self minorisation and self censorship and collaboration hybridisation and invisibility This edited collection will appeal to scholars and students working on translation transnational and postcolonial studies and multilingual and multicultural identities Literary Theory: The Basics Hans Bertens, 2017-07-14 This third edition of Hans Bertens bestselling book is an essential guide to the often confusing and complicated world of literary theory Exploring a broad range of topics from Marxist and feminist criticism to postmodernism and new historicism Literary Theory The Basics covers contemporary topics including reception theory and reader response theory the new criticism of postmodernism the after theory debate post humanism biopolitics and animal studies aesthetics Literary Theory The Basics helps readers to approach the many theories and debates in this field with confidence Now with updated case studies and further reading this is an essential purchase for anyone who strives to understand literary theory today Voice and Power R. J. Hayward, I. M. Lewis, 2005-08-17 This text is devoted to studies of the languages and cultures of the Cushitic speaking peoples of the Horn of Africa It is concerned with linguistics in a technical sense and analyzes the oral literature of the people of the area Women and Power in Argentine Literature Gwendolyn Díaz, 2010-01-01 The astonishing talent of Argentine women writers belies the struggles they have faced not merely as overlooked authors but as women of conviction facing oppression The patriarchal pressures of the Per n years the terror of the Dirty War and more recently the economic collapse that gripped the nation in 2001 created such repressive conditions that some writers such as Luisa Valenzuela left the country for long periods Not surprisingly power has become an inescapable theme in Argentine women s fiction and this collection shows how the dynamics of power capture not only the political world but also the personal one Whether their characters are politicians and peasants torturers and victims parents and children or lovers male and female each writer explores the effects of power as it is exercised by or against women The fifteen writers chosen for Women and Power in Argentine Literature include famous names such as Valenzuela as well as authors anthologized for the first time most notably Mar a Kodama widow of Jorge Luis Borges Each chapter begins with a verbal portrait editor Gwendolyn D az s personal impression of the author at ease formed through hours of conversation and interviews A biographical essay and critical commentary follow with emphasis on the work included in this anthology D az s interviews translated from Spanish and finally the stories themselves only three of which have been previously published in English complete the chapters The extraordinary depth of these chapters reflects the nuanced often controversial portrayals of power observed by Argentine women writers Inspiring as well as insightful Women and Power in Argentine Literature is ultimately about women who in Diaz's words choose to speak their truth regardless of the consequences English Literature and the Other Languages Ton Hoenselaars, Marius Buning, 1999 The thirty essays in this book trace how the tangentiality of English and other modes of language affects the production of English literature and investigate how questions of linguistic code can be made accessible to literary analysis BOOKJACKET The Healer's Power Howard Brody, 1992-01-01 Although the physician's use and misuse of power have been discussed in the social sciences and in literature they have never been explored in medical ethics until now In this book Dr Howard Brody argues that the central task is not to reduce the physician's power as others have suggested but to develop guidelines for its use so that the doctor shares with the patient both information and the responsibility for deciding on appropriate treatment Dr Brody first reviews literary works dealing with medical power from Dostoevsky's The Grand Inquisitor to stories by William Carlos Williams Vonda McIntyre and Richard Selzer These works he shows reveal the healers ambivalence over their own power and patients fears of the abuse of power Dr Brody then points out important but neglected ethical issues that emerge from an analysis of power such as the tension between care of individual patients and the pressures of the doctor's workload the rescue fantasy that impels some physicians to extraordinary lengths to save a life and the economic system which rewards surgeons and other specialists more than it does physicians who spend time talking with patients about their problems He also shows how the perspective of shared power can shed new light on standard topics in medical ethics from informed consent and confidentiality to resource allocation and cost containment BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Politics of Soft Power Diplomacy And Its Responses Dr. Samson S Chiru, Politics of Soft Power Diplomacy and its Responses is the outcome of Seminar Series at Mt Everest College Senapati Manipur for the past more than half dozen decade of continual effort sustained by loving promotion and encouragement received from reputed ICSSR and UGC in granting Seminar grant to me as convener of this series The book covers wide ranges of inclusion and exclusion in accessing mainstream projects and government programmes which are dealt and discussed here by different contributors of papers from various academic disciplines It is felt that Soft Power Diplomacy is very instrumental in shaping the image of a country abroad Joseph Nye coined the term and domestic policies are as important as foreign policies Classical Realists too have informed consent on the similar understanding of domestic domain having ramification on foreign policies for a country The author editor of this book feels that the work will contribute in its bit to researches and analyses and expected that the gap in formulating the issues pertaining to the marginalized and suppressed groups in policy formulation and implementation can be further carried in future I always said that soft corner given to minorities and dominated section in any given group society is pre requisite to development of the country If in a given country only the the majority rules then that country would never be called a pluralistic and cosmopolitan approach in its shape of designing the structure of its government and governance Besides the author editor also has no doubt that such studies as this will be of special interest to academicians policy makers policy implementers legal practitioners politicians activists students and public at large As issues discussed here are all Soft Power Diplomacy domain that pertain to flexible and diversified components that are most required to address the grievances of the discriminated and dominated lots in the society
