Buddhist Literature as Philosophy, Buddhist Philosophy as Literature Rafal K. Stepień, 2020-11-01 Can literature reveal reality Is philosophical truth a literary artifice How does the way we think affect what we can know Buddhism has been grappling with these questions for centuries and this book attempts to answer them by exploring the relationship between literature and philosophy across the classical and contemporary Buddhist worlds of India Tibet China Japan Korea and North America Written by leading scholars the book examines literary texts composed over two millennia ranging in form from lyric verse narrative poetry panegyric hymn and koan to novel hagiography secret autobiography autofiction treatise and sutra all in sustained conversation with topics in metaphysics ethics aesthetics and the philosophies of mind language literature and religion Interdisciplinary and cross cultural this book deliberately works across and against the boundaries separating three mainstays of humanistic pursuit literature philosophy and religion by focusing on the multiple relationships at play between content and form in works drawn from a truly diverse range of philosophical schools literary genres religious cultures and historical eras Overall the book calls into question the very ways in which we do philosophy study literature and think about religious texts It shows that Buddhist thought provides sophisticated responses to some of the perennial problems regarding how we find create and apply meaning on the page in the mind and throughout our lives

Religion, Reason, and Culture in the Age of Goethe Elisabeth Krimmer, Patricia Anne Simpson, 2013 Investigates how culture in the Age of Goethe shaped and was shaped by a sustained and multifaceted debate about the place of religion in politics philosophy and culture The eighteenth century is usually considered to be a time of increasing secularization in which the primacy of theology was replaced by the authority of reason yet this lofty intellectual endeavor played itself out in a social and political reality that was heavily impacted by religious customs and institutions This duality is visible in the literature and culture of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Germany On the one hand authors such as Goethe Schiller and Kleist are known for their distance from traditional Christianity On the other hand many canonical texts from the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries from Goethe's Faust to Schiller's Die Jungfrau von Orleans to Kleist's Michael Kohlhaas are not only filled with references to the Bible but invoke religious frameworks Religion Reason and Culture in the Age of Goethe investigates how culture in the Age of Goethe shaped and was shaped by a sustained and multifaceted debate about the place of religion and religious difference in politics philosophy and culture enriching our understanding of the relationship between religion and culture during this foundational period in German history Contributors Frederick Amrine Claire Baldwin Lisa Beesley Jane K Brown Jeffrey L High Elisabeth Krimmer Helmut J Schneider Patricia Anne Simpson John H Smith Tom Spencer Elisabeth Krimmer is professor of German at the University of California Davis Patricia Anne Simpson is professor of German at Montana State University

A Poetics of Homecoming Brendan O'Donoghue, 2011-05-25 This investigation addresses a pressing anxiety of our time that of homelessness Tersely stated the philosophical significance of homelessness in its more modern context can be understood to emerge with Nietzsche and his discourse on nihilism which signals the loss of the highest values hitherto Diverging from Nietzsche Heidegger interprets homelessness as a symptom of the oblivion of being The purpose of the present enquiry is to rigorously confront humanity's state of homelessness and at the same time illumine the extent to which Heidegger's thought engages with this pervasive phenomenon In questioning the nature of homelessness Heidegger's preoccupations with nihilism and modern technology prove crucial Moreover his attempts to overcome or prepare for the overcoming of this state of homelessness are also of great import to the current investigation Adorno and Levinas offer scathing critiques of Heidegger's thought as it relates to the motifs of homelessness homecoming Heimkunft and the German Heimat for they associate it with provincialism paganism and a pernicious form of politics In providing these critiques they bring to light the risks involved in undertaking a homecoming venture and they also show how a great thinker can err greatly While acknowledging the importance of these criticisms the present study reveals how Heidegger's various discourses on homelessness and homecoming bear fruitful insights that can contribute not just to a Germanic sense of homecoming but to a sense of homecoming that humanity at large can relate to and be enriched by

Literature and Religion Walter Jens, Hans Küng, 1991 Literature and religion in one a theme of hope for a new futurean era that can bring forth literature in which great theology and great aesthetics enter once again into an exemplary intimacy Hans Küng from Literature and Religion Up until the seventeenth century Western culture was essentially synonymous with Christian culture Then on the very border between the medieval and the modern worlds this unity of authority and belief began to crumble For the first time an intellectual life developed that was independent of the church and modern rational man surged toward new models of the world society the church and theology In Literature and Religion Hans Küng and Walter Jens survey the complex vital and contradictory search for faith over the past three hundred years through the key works of eight great writers Hans Küng Lakeland, Paul, 2024 Hans Küng was the most controversial of the European Catholic theologians who emerged at the time of Vatican II and became notorious for challenging papal infallibility He also wrote at length on other topics including justification the Christian life priesthood global ethics and interreligious dialogue This collection of essays will explore the theological legacy of the Swiss theologian Hans Küng Given Küng's mixed reputation and broad range of topics a wider range of voices provide a judicious reevaluation of his impact on the church and its teachings Each chapter explores different topic based on the following questions What did he say How did he influence theological debates What is his lasting significance Dostoevsky P.H. Brazier, 2018-01-01 As a writer and prophet Dostoevsky was no academic theologian yet his writings are deeply theological his life beliefs even his epilepsy all had a role in generating his theology and eschatology Dostoevsky's novels are riven with paradoxes are deeply dialectical and represent a criticism of religion offered in the service of the gospel In this task he presented a profound understanding and portrait of humanity Dostoevsky's novels chart the movement of the human into death either the movement through paradox and Christlikeness into Christ's cross a soteriology often characterized by the apophatic negation and self denial what we may term the Mark of Abel leading to salvation and resurrection or conversely the movement of those who refuse Christ's invitation to be redeemed and continue to fall into a self-willed death and a self-generated hell the Mark of Cain This eschatology becomes a theological axiom which he unceasingly warned people of in his mature works Startlingly original stripped of all religious pretence some prostitutes and criminals might just have a better understanding of salvation than some of the pietistic wealthy and cultured classes Dostoevsky as a prophet forewarned of the politicized humanistic delusions of the twentieth century a prophet crying out through the wilderness New Letters Review of Books, 1990 AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program American Academy of Religion. Meeting, 1991 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1991 Dostoevsky Studies, 1993 Elenchus of Biblica, 1995
