Trriorities Rich Hatfield,2010-11 Ask yourself is there a better way to live TRIORITIES challenges you to make the effort to mentally step out of the game for a moment and to consider your life where it has brought you your priorities and where it will probably take you if you stay the course TRIORITIES will help you to consider if there might be a better way to live TRIORITIES is about a life of focus a life of balance and a life that you endeavor to live well and enjoy along the way Are you running from one task to the next but not enjoying any of it Are you climbing ladders only to find the view from the top less than appealing Then I challenge you to take a break from the treadmill of life to look at your life your choices your track record and ultimately your future Ask yourself am I who I want to be Am I all that God intended for me to be Have I tried to be too many things and failed to master any of them If that simple evaluation brings you to a point of realization that maybe there might be a better way to do things then just maybe this is a plan for you to consider TRIORITIES involves simple logic that challenges you to take a three step process to evaluate life develop a plan to become what you want to become and then implement that plan in your life Consider the value of simplicity in setting priorities in a complex world Consider simplicity from a standpoint of being focused on three areas of life that we truly need to properly invest ourselves in and mange accordingly The three priorities of the TRIORITIES lifestyle are God Family and Work

Picture Lesson Paper ,1904 Didactics D. B. Clark,2006 Poems can be enjoyed for many reasons the experience justifies the reading But throughout history poems have been learning experiences although recently didactic poetry has fallen into disfavor This small book is filled with poems that are blatantly didactic but they also use humor so you won t be embarrassed if you find yourself enjoying the learning

The book of Seven Flames and Burning Coals Ben Levell,Naomi Levell,2016-07-03 Ben and Naomi had ten beloved children Like a warm flickering campfire feared by predators of the night this family was stamped out and scattered The book of Seven Flames and Burning Coals is what remains Herein are poems parables and letters addressed to the lost and broken children touching on such things as marriage sex heaven and the resurrection of us all

Archaeologies of Listening Peter R. Schmidt,Alice B. Kehoe,2019-04-26 Archaeologists tend to rely on scientific methods to reconstruct past histories an approach that can alienate local indigenous populations and limit the potential of archaeological research Essays in this volume argue that listening to and learning from local and descendant communities is vital for interpreting the histories and heritage values of archaeological sites Case studies from around the world demonstrate how a humanistic perspective with people centric practice decolonizes the discipline by unlocking an intellectual space and collaborative role for indigenous people These examples show how listening to oral traditions has opened up broader understandings of ancient rituals in Tanzania where indigenous knowledge paved the way to significant archaeological finds about local iron technology Archaeologists working with owners of traditional food ovens in Northern Australia discovered the function of mysterious earth mounds nearby and the involvement of local communities in the interpretation of the Sigiriya World Heritage Site in Sri Lanka led to a better understanding of indigenous values The ethical implications for positioning archaeology as a way to bridge divisions are also explored In a case study from Northern Ireland researchers risked sparking further conflict by listening to competing narratives about the country s political past and a study of archival records from nineteenth century grave excavations in British Columbia where remains were taken without local permission reveals why indigenous people in the region still regard archaeology with deep suspicion The value of cultural apprenticeship to those who have long term relationships with the landscape is nearly forgotten today contributors argue This volume points the way to a reawakening of the core principles of anthropology in archaeology and heritage studies Contributors Peter Schmidt Alice Kehoe Kathryn Weedman Arthur Catherine Carlson Billy Foghl Audrey Horning Steve Mrozowski George Nicholas Innocent Pikirayi Jonathan Walz Camina Weasel Moccasin Jagath Weerasinghe
