Mouse,2014-04-21 Originally published in French Fairy Tales of the Slav Peasants and Herdsmen features 20 folk tales from the Slavic countries and territories Very few of the 20 fairy tales included in this volume have been presented before in an English dress this will doubtless enhance their value in the eyes of the young folk for whom principally they are intended Herein you will find tales like The Twelve Months the story of Marouckla who is set seemingly impossible tasks by her stepmother but with the help of the Twelve Months overcomes and succeeds The Lost Child the story of a childless Noble couple who pray earnestly for a child Their wish is granted with one condition that that the child s feet never touched the earth until it was twelve years old Then you have the stories of The Sovereign of the Mineral Kingdom Ohnivak Tears of Pearls Kinkach Martinko and many more The Slav race is considerably diverse both genetically and culturally Famous Slavs in recent times are Pope John Paul II the first human astronaut Yuri Gagarin former President of Russia Mikhail Gorbachev and electrician inventor Nikola Tesla In earlier times Slavic groups also migrated as far North as Scandinavia and constituted elements amongst the Vikings whilst at the other geographic extreme Slavic mercenaries fighting for the Byzantines and Arabs settled Asia Minor and even as far East as Syria Fairy Tales of the Slav

Peasants and Herdsmen was a French collection of the beloved fairy tales passed from generation to generation and the stories were collected for preservation by Chodzko Emily Harding also known as Emily Harding Andrews published her English translation in 1896 Harding was an illustrator for the woman s suffrage movement and frequent illustrator of children s books Fairy Tales of the Slav Peasants and Herdsmen was the first book she had translated and published under her own name The accompanying 55 illustrations and headpieces speak for themselves and are what might have been expected from the artist of her calibre So sit back in a comfy chair with a cup of hot chocolate and enjoy these forgotten tales lost to Western readers for over 100 years Self-education: Twelve Chapters for Young Thinkers Edwin Paxton Hood,1851

I'm an Nde...Are You an Nde? Wayne R. Miller,2003-12 I m An NDE Are You An NDE will appeal to those who are curious about near death experiences and the impact these experiences have on personal spiritual growth The book is a testimony comprising three parts Part I vividly describes the author s journey through the tunnel and into the light and includes his stunned reaction upon discovering that he was face to face with Jesus Christ Part II reflects upon seeing and being in the light and includes a fascination with timelessness as being an integral part of the spiritual world Part III places into words the impact these experiences have had upon the author s life as building blocks in growing spiritually over the years This book will appeal to Christians who welcome testimony from others as a blessing from God *Catalog of Copyright Entries. free wholesome and adventurous outdoor life for the innocent delights of nature loving Thoreau and bird loving Burroughs Sturdy independent self reliant she is now demanding outdoor books that are genuine and filled with practical information books that tell how to do worth while things that teach real woodcraft and are not adapted to the girl supposed to be afraid of a caterpillar or to shudder at sight of a harmless snake In answer to the demand On the Trail has been written The authors deep desire is to help girls respond to this new insistent call by pointing out to them the open trail It is their hope and wish that their girl readers may seek the charm of the wild and may find the same happiness in the life of the open that the American boy has enjoyed since the first settler built his little cabin on the shores of the New World To forward this object the why and how the where and when of things of camp and trail have been embodied in this book Thanks are due to Edward Cave president and editor of Recreation for kindly allowing the use of some of his wild life photographs Lina Beard Adelia Belle Beard Flushing N Y March 16 1915

CHAPTER I TRAILING What the Outdoor World Can Do for Girls How to Find the Trail and How to Keep It There is a something in you as in every one every man woman girl and boy that requires the tonic life of the wild You may not know it many do not but there is a part of your nature that only the wild can reach satisfy and develop The much housed overheated overdressed and over entertained life of most girls is artificial and if one does not turn away from and leave it for a while one also becomes greatly artificial and must go through life not knowing the joy the strength the poise that real outdoor life can give What is it about a true woodsman that instantly compels our respect that sets him apart from the men who might be of his class in village or town and puts him in a class by himself though he may be exteriorly rough and have little or no book education The real Adirondack or the North Woods guide alert clean limbed clear eyed hard muscled bearing his pack basket or duffel bag on his back doing all the hard work of the camp never loses his poise or the simple dignity which he shares with all the things of the wild It is bred in him is a part of himself and the life he leads He is as conscious of his superior knowledge of the woods as an astronomer is of his knowledge of the stars and patiently tolerates the ignorance and awkwardness of the tenderfoot from the city Only a keen sense of humor can make this toleration possible for I have seen things done by a city dweller at camp that would enrage a woodsman unless the irresistibly funny side of it made him laugh his inward laugh that seldom reaches the surface
