Hossein, 2024-06-03 All over the world Black and racialized women engage in the solidarity economy through what is known as mutual aid financing Formally referred to as rotating savings and credit associations ROSCAs these institutions are purposefully informal to support the women's livelihoods and social needs and they act to reject tiered forms of neo liberal development The Banker Ladies a term coined by women in the Black diaspora are individuals that voluntarily organize ROSCAs for self sufficiency and are intentional in their politicized economic co operation to counter business exclusion Caroline Shenaz Hossein reveals how Black women redefine the banking co operative sector to be inclusive of informal institutions that are democratic and focused on group consensus and which build an activist form of economic co operation that is intent on making social profitability the norm The book examines the ways in which diasporic Black women who organize mutual aid receive little to no attention Unapologetically biased towards a group of women who have been purposely sidelined and put down for what they do The Banker Ladies highlights how in order to educate oneself about their contributions to politics and economics it is imperative to listen to the voices of hundreds of Black women in charge of financial services for their communities The Canadian Magazine, 1928 1968 in Canada Michael K. Hawes, Andrew C. Holman, Christopher Kirkey, 2021-04-13 The year 1968 in Canada was an extraordinary one unlike any other in its frenetic pace of activities and their consequences for the development of a new national consciousness among Canadians It was a year when decisions and actions both in Canada and outside its borders were thick and contentious and whose effects were momentous and far reaching It saw the rise of Trudeaumania and the birth of the Parti Qu b cois the articulation of the new nationalism in English Canada and an alternative vision for Indigenous rights and governance a series of public hearings in the Royal Commission on the Status of Women the establishment of the Canadian Radio and Television Commission nation wide Medicare and CanLit and a striving for both a new relationship with the United States and a more independent foreign policy everywhere else And more Virtually no segment of Canadian life was untouched by both the turmoil and the promise of generational change Published in English with chapters in French The Church School Journal ,1913 Official Report of Debates, House of Commons Canada.
