John Clute, John Grant

Francis Goes To West Point:

Every Army Man Is with You Nicolaus Mills, 2014-11-13 For Army's players their 1964 football game against a Navy team led by its Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Roger Staubach was a do or die battle Army had lost to Navy five years in a row This time a stunning victory by Army changed the Cadets fortunes and made headlines across the country With five of its starters playing offense and defense Army rallied to an 11-8 triumph The win was the beginning of an even greater challenge for West Point's players Soon they were in Vietnam fighting a war that did not end as they or America expected In Every Army Man Is with You Nicolaus Mills tells the story of that unforgettable Army team by focusing on the lives of seven of its players as they go from the football field to the Vietnam battlefield and back again to the States Mills sheds light not just on what that the players experiences meant to them personally but on what their experiences say about the ways the Vietnam era shaped our nation

The Military Academy of Malaysia Compared with West Point Jowati Juhary, 2013-10 This dissertation compares the learning environment of elite military academies in the U S and Malaysia namely the United States Military Academy New York West Point and the Military Academy of Malaysia Kuala Lumpur MAM The dissertation began as an investigation of the place of e learning and simulation technologies in educating future military officers It was assumed that as modern technologies for war and defence have changed so too must the military academies accommodate to that especially in producing the right kind of officers who will lead the defence of the nation Research in West Point and the MAM however revealed much more significant and deeper differences between the two learning environments These are also analysed in this dissertation on the basis of in depth interviews with staff at both academies and responses to some 241 questionnaires returned by the cadets One of the most important findings in this study is that the learning environment at West Point is informed by the Thayer System which in turn is based on principles strongly reminiscent of the constructivist school of pedagogical inquiry The impact of the Thayer System on the learning environment is analysed as are the essential features of constructivism In Malaysia by contrast the learning environment in the academy is driven by teacher oriented practices that are not sensitive to the needs of students Moreover the broader authoritarian tendencies in Malaysia have encouraged the entrenchment of didactic modes of teacher student exchanges in the classroom These were found not to be conducive to creative student centred learning processes capable of producing the kind of officers who can lead the Malaysian military at a time of growing regional insecurity in the Asia Pacific

Cadets on Campus John A. Coulter,2017-03-24 Since the founding of the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1802 more than eight hundred military schools have existed in this country The vast majority have closed their doors been absorbed into other educational institutions or otherwise faded away but others soldier on adapting to changing times and changing educational needs While many individual institutions have had their histories written or their stories told to date no single book has attempted to explore the full scope of the military school in American history Cadets on Campus is the first book to cover the origin history and culture of the nation s military schools secondary and collegiate and this breadth of coverage will appeal to historians and alumni alike Author John Alfred Coulter identifies several key figures who were pivotal to the formation of military education including Sylvanus Thayer the father of West Point and Alden Partridge the founder of the school later known as Norwich University the first private military school in the country He also reveals that military schools were present across the nation despite the conventional wisdom that most military schools and indeed the culture that surrounds them were limited to the South Coulter addresses the shuttering of military schools in the era after the Vietnam War and then notes a curious resurgence of interest in military education since the turn of the century Air

Motion Pictures From the Fabulous 1950's Terry Rowan, 2015-12-22 The 1950s marked a decade of great fads Hula Hoops Davy Crockett coonskin caps Roy Rogers or Gene Autrey guns or Cowboy boots and poodle skirts It gave us Elvis Presley and rock and roll crew cuts and sideburns argyle sweaters saddle shoes and white bucks College kids on panty raids and sock hops In the corner of every sitting room was a small but ever expanding eye fixed on an opening world Television set Films of the 1950s were wide variety and the studios sought to put audiences back in the seats of the theaters

I Know This Much Is True Wally Lamb, 1998-06-03 With his stunning debut novel She's Come Undone Wally Lamb won the adulation of critics and readers with his mesmerizing tale of one woman's painful yet triumphant journey of self discovery Now this brilliantly talented writer returns with I Know This Much Is True a heartbreaking and poignant multigenerational saga of the reproductive bonds of destruction and the powerful force of forgiveness A masterpiece that breathtakingly tells a story of alienation and connection power and abuse devastation and renewal this novel is a contemporary retelling of an ancient Hindu myth A proud king must confront his demons to achieve salvation Change yourself the myth instructs and you will inhabit a renovated world When you're the same brother of a schizophrenic identical twin the tricky thing about saving yourself is the blood it leaves on your hands the little inconvenience of the look alike corpse at your feet And if you're into both survival of the fittest and being your brother's keeper if you've promised your dying mother then say so long to sleep and hello to the middle of the night Grab a book or a beer Get used to Letterman's gap toothed smile of the absurd or the view of the bedroom ceiling or the influence of random selection Take it from a godless insomniac Take it from the uncrazy twin the guy who beat the biochemical rap Dominick Birdsey's entire life has been compromised and constricted by anger and fear by the paranoid schizophrenic twin brother he both deeply loves and resents and by the past they shared with their adoptive father Ray a spit and polish ex Navy man the five foot six inch sleeping giant who snoozed upstairs weekdays in the spare room and built submarines at night and their long suffering mother Concettina a timid woman with a harelip that made her shy and self conscious She holds a loose fist to her face to cover her defective mouth her perpetual apology to the world for a birth defect over which she'd had no control Born in the waning moments of 1949 and the opening minutes of 1950 the twins are physical mirror images who grow into separate yet connected entities the seemingly strong and protective yet fearful Dominick his mother's watchful monkey and the seemingly weak and sweet yet noble Thomas his mother's gentle bunny From childhood Dominick fights for both separation and wholeness and ultimately self protection in a house of fear dominated by Ray a bully who abuses his power over these stepsons whose biological father is a mystery I was still afraid of his anger but saw how he punished weakness pounced on it Out of self preservation I hid my fear Dominick confesses As for Thomas he just never knew how to play defense He just didn't get it But Dominick's talent for survival comes at an enormous cost including the breakup of his marriage to the warm beautiful Dessa whom he still loves And it will be put to the ultimate test when Thomas a Bible spouting zealot commits an unthinkable act that threatens the tenuous balance of both his and Dominick's lives To save himself Dominick must confront not only the pain of his past but the dark secrets he has locked deep within himself and the sins of his ancestors a quest that will lead him beyond the confines of his blue collar New England town to the volcanic foothills of Sicily's Mount Etna where his ambitious and vengefully proud grandfather and a namesake Domenico Tempesta the sostegno del famiglia was born Each of the stories Ma told us about Papa reinforced the message that he was the boss that he ruled the roost that what he said went Searching for answers Dominick turns to the whispers of the dead to the pages of his grandfather's handwritten memoir The History of Domenico Onofrio Tempesta a Great Man from Humble Beginnings Rendered with touches of magic realism Domenico's fablelike tale in which monkeys enchant and religious statues weep becomes the old man's confession an unwitting legacy of contrition that reveals the truths of Domenico's life Dominick learns that power wrongly used defeats the oppressor as well as the oppressed and now picking through the humble shards of his deconstructed life he will search for the courage and love to forgive to expiate his and his ancestors transgressions and finally to rebuild himself beyond the haunted shadow of his twin Set against the vivid panoply of twentieth century America and filled with richly drawn memorable characters this deeply moving and thoroughly satisfying novel brings to light humanity's deepest needs and fears our aloneness our desire for love and acceptance our struggle to survive at all costs Joyous mystical and exquisitely written I Know This Much Is True is an extraordinary reading experience that will leave no reader untouched Hollywood Hoofbeats Petrine Day Mitchum, Audrey Pavia, 2014-10-14
