Internationalization To Prevent The Spread Of Nuclear Weapons:

Internationalization to Prevent the Spread of Nuclear Weapons Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 2020-11-19 First published in 1980 the original blurb read In August September 1980 the second Review Conference of the Non Proliferation Treaty NPT will take place in Geneva As this Treaty is the most important barrier to the proliferation of nuclear weapons the results of the Conference will obviously have major effects in the field of arms control and disarmament The implications of the recent International Nuclear Fuel Cycle Evaluation INFCE are that the technological capabilities of many countries are such that there is no technical solution to the problem of the spread of nuclear weapons to countries that do not now have them Thus it appears that if there is a solution at all it must be political in nature A possible element in such a political solution is the internationalization of the sensitive parts of the nuclear fuel cycle that is those parts that have the potential of producing fissile materials to make nuclear weapons Although the intricacies of a system of internationalization are still unresolved the concept if realized would provide another powerful political barrier to nuclear weapon proliferation a reinforcement for the aims of the NPT itself Against this background and as a follow up to its first symposium and the resultant book Nuclear Energy and Nuclear Weapon Proliferation SIPRI convened a second international group of experts to continue its discussions of issues pertinent to the forthcoming NPT Review Conference The meeting took place at SIPRI in Stockholm 31 October 2 November 1979 when the feasibility of internationalizing the nuclear fuel cycle was examined SIPRI s views on this complex approach are expressed in Part 1 of this book Internationalization to Prevent the Spread of Nuclear Weapons Part 2 contains the papers that were presented at the symposium background and as a follow up to its first symposium and the resultant book Nuclear Energy and Nuclear Weapon Proliferation SIPRI convened a second international group of experts to continue its discussions of issues pertinent to the forthcoming NPT Review Conference The meeting took place at SIPRI in Stockholm 31 October 2 November 1979 when the feasibility of internationalizing the nuclear fuel cycle was examined SIPRI's views on this complex approach are expressed in Part 1 of this book Internationalization to Prevent the Spread of Nuclear Weapons Part 2 contains the papers that were presented at the symposium Internationalization to Prevent the Spread of Nuclear Weapons Routledge, Chapman & Hall, Incorporated, Stockholm International Peace Research, 2022-09-04 In 1980 the second Review Conference of the Non Proliferation Treaty NPT took place in Geneva SIPRI convened an international group of experts to discuss issues pertinent to the forthcoming NPT Review Conference when the feasibility of internationalizing the nuclear fuel cycle was examined The results are presented in this book Nuclear Proliferation and International Order Olav Njølstad, 2010-09-13 Draws on papers originally presented at Nobel Symposium 142 on Peace stability and nuclear order theoretical assumptions historical experiences future challenges The conference took place at Oscarsborg on 25 27 June 2009 and gathered close to 30 international experts Page xii xiii Uranium Enrichment and Nuclear Weapon Proliferation Allan S. Krass, Peter Boskma, Boelie Elzen, Wim A. Smit, Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 2020-11-20 Originally published in 1983 this book presents both the technical and political information necessary to evaluate the emerging threat to world security posed by recent advances in uranium enrichment technology Uranium enrichment has played a relatively quiet but important role in the history of efforts by a number of nations to acquire nuclear weapons and by a number of others to prevent the proliferation of nuclear weapons For many years the uranium enrichment industry was dominated by a single method gaseous diffusion which was technically complex extremely capital intensive and highly inefficient in its use of energy As long as this remained true only the richest and most technically advanced nations could afford to pursue the enrichment route to weapon acquisition But during the 1970s this situation changed dramatically Several new and far more accessible enrichment techniques were developed stimulated largely by the anticipation of a rapidly growing demand for enrichment services by the world wide nuclear power industry This proliferation of new techniques coupled with the subsequent contraction of the commercial market for enriched uranium has created a situation in which uranium enrichment technology might well become the most important contributor to further nuclear weapon proliferation Some of the issues addressed in this book are A technical analysis of the most important enrichment techniques in a form that is relevant to analysis of proliferation risks A detailed projection of the world demand for uranium enrichment services A summary and critique of present institutional non proliferation arrangements in the world enrichment industry and An identification of the states most likely to pursue the enrichment route to acquisition of nuclear weapons International Nuclear Nonproliferation System John Simpson, Anthony G. Nuclear Non-Proliferation in International Law - Volume III Jonathan L. Black-Branch,Dieter Fleck,2016-11-14 This third volume of the book series on Nuclear Non Proliferation in International Law focuses on the development and use of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes within a contemporary global context an interdependent characteristic of the Non Proliferation Treaty along with disarmament and non proliferation The scholarly contributions in this volume explore this interrelationship considering the role of nation States as well as international organizations such as the International Atomic Energy Agency IAEA in monitoring and implementing the Treaty The 2015 Nuclear Accord with Iran and its implementation is also discussed highlighting relevant developments in this evolving area Overall the volume explores relevant issues ultimately presenting a number of suggestions for international cooperation in this sensitive field where political discussion often dominates over legal analysis The important tasks of limiting the proliferation of nuclear weapons ensuring the safety and security of peaceful uses of nuclear energy and achieving nuclear disarmament under strict and effective international control calls for the interpretation and application of international legal principles and rules in their relevant context a task that this book series endeavours to facilitate whilst presenting new information and evaluating current developments in this area of international law Jonathan L Black Branch is Dean of Law and Professor of International and Comparative Law at Robson Hall Faculty of Law University of Manitoba a Barrister at One Garden Court London a Magistrate in Oxfordshire a Justice of the Peace for England a Member of Wolfson College University of Oxford and Chair of the International Law Association ILA Committee on Nuclear Weapons Non Proliferation Member of the Advisory Board of the Amsterdam Center for International Law ACIL and Rapporteur of the International Law Association ILA Committee on Nuclear Weapons Non Proliferation

Contemporary International Law Global Nuclear Energy Risks Bennett Ramberg,2019-04-08 This book addresses the strategic challenges and proposes alternative international remedies set in historical and regulatory contexts that suggest that nations should increase international scrutiny of atomic power in order to minimize risks The Politics of Positive Incentives in Arms Control Thomas Bernauer,Dieter Ruloff,1999 They define positive incentives as transfers of positively valued resources such as money technology or know how from one actor to another with the aim of driving the behavior of the recipient in a direction that is desirable from the viewpoint of the provider BOOK JACKET Agreements for Arms Control Jozef Goldblat,Stockholm International Peace Research Institute,2020-11-19 Originally published in 1982 this is the most comprehensive handbook on arms control ever published It contains an analysis of the bilateral and multilateral agreements reached since World War II An assessment is made of the extent to which each agreement has affected the arms race reduced the likelihood of war or otherwise contributed to the overall goal of disarmament Ongoing arms control negotiations are also analyzed The complex problem of verification of compliance with arms control obligations is critically examined and the shortcomings of the existing arrangements are pointed out The critique is searching objective and free of the usual biases of official government reports The analysis of the arms control agreements is preceded by an historical overview beginning with the Hague Peace Conferences held at the turn of this century through the League of Nations attempts to bring about a universal reduction of armaments to the activities of the United Nations in the field of arms regulation and general disarmament The present arms control negotiating machinery is described The texts of the relevant documents are reproduced for handy reference and the status of the implementation of the most important multilateral arms control agreements is presented in tabular form Tables and figures facilitate the reading

Nuclear Non-proliferation

Robert L. Beckman, 2019-03-08 This book examines the Nuclear Non Proliferation Act of 1978 and other stringent non proliferation laws that seek to tighten U S nuclear export criteria and strengthen the international non proliferation regime It juxtaposes efforts of nuclear managers with those of reformers who remain intent on strengthening safeguards to prevent horizontal proliferation Dr Beckman looks at the development of the Atoms for Peace program the mindset that grew up along with it and the shifts in congressional thought about the promise and problems of the peaceful nuclear fuel cycle

Arms Control Agreements Jozef Goldblat, 2021-01-26 This book first published in 1982 provides a well informed historical overview insightful analysis and searching critique of arms control agreements and negotiations from the Hague Declaration of 1899 to the SALT Treaties and Conventions of the 1970s and 1980s Arms control agreements of international importance and historical merit are assessed for the extent to which each affected the arms race or reduced the likelihood of war

Military Law Review ,1980 DA Pam ,1980 Understanding International Institutions and the Legislative Process

Paul Szasz, 2021-11-08 In the realm of the law of international organizations and treaty law few commentators have made a more significant contribution than Paul C Szasz In his years of distinguished service at the U N and in his subsequent career as a prominent consultant to international institutions he has mastered a highly specialized body of knowledge that allows him to study the inner and outer workings of the international legislative administrative and judicial processes with unique and compelling authority His incisive essays always deeply informed with first hand experience have gone directly to the heart of the most vital international legal issues of our time This volume gathers twenty one essays that will be of inestimable value to the entire community of public international lawyers With penetrating insight Szasz exposes the institutional underpinnings affecting such international law matters as law making in international organizations the obligation to arbitrate monitoring treaty compliance UN system complexification sanctions the advisory competence of the World Court the legal liability of diplomats peacekeeping intervention and the role of NGOs Specific facts and events such as the U S

action in the 1988 PLO mission controversy developments in the safeguards regime of the International Atomic Energy Agency the Kosovo Conflict the Dayton Accords and the Namibian peace process provide a firm topical basis for the author's analysis of policy practice and theory in this little understood but crucially important area of international governance
