Internet Bride:

The Filipina-South Floridian International Internet Marriage Practice Pamela S. Haley, 2013-07 This dissertation concerns the structures and individual agency of Filipina brides who met their American husbands through Internet or pen pal advertisements Popular media legal scholars and some feminists have largely described the phenomenon in terms of its oppressiveness toward the women involved thus dismissing any agency on the part of the women Similarly much of the scholarship has located the American Internet grooms as ogres who are out to exploit these women for domestic and sexual services If prominent researchers of this phenomenon are correct in their assessments that Filipina Internet brides operate as effective agents then one also assumes these women continue that agency when they settle into their new lives as Filipina wives married to American men Therefore my central research question is How has this agency manifested itself and has this manifestation been problematic for the American groom who from the typical Internet ad s text and images and coupled with prevailing American cultural assumptions assumed he was getting a submissive wife To explore possible answers to these questions I performed a rhetorical analysis of two typical Internet advertisements The focus on the ads is important to my study because the Internet advertisements both shape and reflect the popular view of the so called Filipina mail order bride Next in order to gain the Internet brides and grooms perspectives of the phenomenon I interviewed three Filipina Americano couples currently living in South Florida between November 2005 and October 2007 My findings support the scholars who forefront the brides agency and therefore reject the stereotypes projected on the Internet advertisements My findings also reject the stereotype of the exploitative husband From my interview data the women appeared agentive and the men encouraged their wives agency An unanticipated and paradoxical outcropping of the interviews was the participants descriptions of their courtship and subsequent marriages In this one area both the brides and grooms unanimously deemphasized their own agency and instead highlighted romantic narratives with each insisting that they had fallen in love

Sex Trafficking of Children Online Beatriz Susana Uitts, 2022-07-20 This book addresses child sex trafficking in the era of digital technology As a global problem human trafficking frequently victimizes the most vulnerable children Offenders often use the Internet as a vehicle for criminal activities including acts to sexually exploit them With Internet access growing exponentially more children are online every day increasing their risk of becoming involved in sexual exploitation or being treated as a commodity Inconsistent law among countries and the lack of adequate cooperation across borders make combating this issue increasingly difficult Using a human rights approach this book offers alternative solutions and recommendations including establishing a legal protection framework to fight practices that sexually exploit children in cyberspace In addition it promotes multi stakeholder collaboration in the context of corporate social responsibility to prevent and combat these offenses This book explores the intersection of children s human rights online sex trafficking and international legislation It provides helpful insights for lawmakers legal practitioners scholars law enforcement officers child advocates and students interested in human rights law criminal law and child protection      Network World ,2001-03-26

For more than 20 years Network World has been the premier provider of information intelligence and insight for network and IT executives responsible for the digital nervous systems of large organizations Readers are responsible for designing implementing and managing the voice data and video systems their companies use to support everything from business critical applications to employee collaboration and electronic commerce      Living Gender after Communism Janet Elise Johnson,Jean C. Robinson,2006-12-12 How has the collapse of communism across Europe and Eurasia changed gender In addition to acknowledging the huge costs that fell heavily on women Living Gender after Communism suggests that moving away from communism in Europe and Eurasia has provided an opportunity for gender to multiply from varieties of neo traditionalism to feminisms from overt negotiation of femininity to denials of gender This development in turn has enabled some women in the region to construct their own gendered identities for their own political economic or social purposes Beginning with an understanding of gender as both a society wide institution that regulates people s lives and a cultural toolkit which individuals and groups may use to subvert or transvalue the sex gender system the contributors to this volume provide detailed case studies from Belarus Bosnia the Czech Republic Poland Romania Russia and Ukraine This collaboration between young scholars most from postcommunist states and experts in the fields of gender studies and postcommunism combines intimate knowledge of the area with sophisticated gender analysis to examine just how much gender realities have shifted in the region Contributors are Anna Brzozowska Karen Dawisha Nanette Funk Ewa Grigar Azra Hromadzic Janet Elise Johnson Anne Marie Kramer Tania Rands Lyon Jean C Robinson Iulia Shevchenko Svitlana Taraban and Shannon Woodcock

Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on East Asian and Pacific Affairs,2004      Aesthetic Labour Ana Sofia Elias,Rosalind Gill,Christina Scharff,2017-01-18 This volume approaches questions about gender and the politics of appearance from a new perspective by developing the notion of aesthetic labour Bringing together feminist writing regarding the beauty myth with recent scholarship about new forms of work the book suggests that in this moment of ubiquitous photography social media and 360 degree surveillance women are increasingly required to be aesthetic entrepreneurs maintaining a constant state of vigilance about their appearance The collection shows that this work is not just on the surface of bodies but requires a transformation of subjectivity itself characterised by notions of personal choice risk taking self management and individual responsibility The book includes analyses of online media beauty service work female genital cosmetic surgery academic fashion self help literature and the seduction community from a range of countries Discussing beauty politics postfeminism neoliberalism labour and subjectivity the book will be of interest to scholars and students with an interest in Gender Media Studies Cultural Studies Sociology Social Psychology and Management Studies This highly engaging smart and wide ranging collection analyzes how under the self governing mandates of neoliberalism the demands that girls and women regulate and control their bodies and appearance have escalated to new unforgiving levels A special strength of the book is its emphasis on the rise of aesthetic labour as a global transnational and ever colonizing phenomenon that seeks to sweep up women of all races ages and locales into its disciplinary grip Highly recommended Susan J Douglas University of Michigan USA the inherited responsibility that remains women s particular burden to manage Melissa Gregg Intel Corporation USA This book incisively conceptualizes how neo liberalist and postfeminist tendencies are ramping up pressures for glamour aesthetic fashion and body work in the general public In a moment when YouTube makeup how to videos receive millions of hits what to wear and how to wear it blogs clock massive followings and staying on brand is sold to us as the key to personal and financial success aesthetic entrepreneurship is bound to become a go to concept for anyone seeking to understand the profound shifts shaping labor and life in the 21st century Elizabeth Wissinger City University of New York USA Dot.cons Yvonne Jewkes,2012-12-06 This book crosses the boundaries of sociological criminological and cultural discourse in order to explore the implications of recent massive transformations in information and communication technologies for the growth of criminal and deviant identities and behaviour on the Internet Asian Americans Pyong Gap Min,2006 Compared to many existing texts on this subject which tend to take a rather historical approach this book focuses on more contemporary Asian experiences Thus Min has provided a new tool for those of use who have looked for adequate material to teach current Asian American trends in advanced undergraduate courses in the sociology of race as well as in ethnic studies Encompassing a variety of perspectives from prominent scholars makes this book a valuable device to examine the less visible aspects of Asian Americans lives Students and educators alike would certainly benefit from diligent study of this text TEACHING SOCIOLOGY reviewed October 2006 by Etsuko Maruoka SUNY Stony BrookOffering a broad overview of the Asian American experience Asian Americans provides an accessible resource for all students interested in the expanding and important Asian American population While historical information is provided for each group the main focus is on the variables and issues that impact Asian American life today The scholars who author the chapters look at topics such as labor force participation and economic status educational achievements intermarriage intergroup relations and settlement patterns Photo essays help to enhance the presentations Key

Features Covers the Asian American population as a whole as well as individual ethnic groups i e Korean Americans Indian Americans etc Covers theories as well as providing sociological data to illustrate issues for Asian Americans as a whole and as individual groups Visual essays on the following topics provide powerful illustrations of the text content Filipino Americans Japanese Americans Korean Americans Chinese Americans South Asian Americans Southeast Asian Americans Economic Adaptation Second Generation Experiences Updated to not only include information derived from 2000 Census data but also has a focus on the second generation experience

Sexing the Border Katarzyna Kosmala, 2014-09-26 This innovative book represents a timely intervention in both critical discourses on video and new media art as well as examination of gender in post Socialist contexts The chapters explore how encounters between art and technology have been implicated in the representation and analysis of gender critically reflecting current debates and politics across the region and Europe The book offers a diversity of analytical contexts addressing interwoven histories across post Socialist Europe and engages the paradigms of art practice and the visual cultures such histories uphold Contributors have given a broad interpretation to the questions of video media and performance as well as to mediation in relation to art and gender reflecting on a wide range of subjects from the curatorial role to artistic practice cross cultural collaboration co production democracy and representation and impasses in securing streamlined identities The volume brings together rigorously theoretical and visually comprehensive examinations of examples of works featuring artists such as Bernd and Hilla Becher Anna Dau ikov Izabella Gustowska Judit Kele Komar and Melamid Andrzej Karmasz Marko Markovi Oleg Mavromatti Tanja Ostoji Neboj a eri oba Mare Tralla Ulay and Abramovi and others Contributors Inga Fonar Cocos Mark Gisbourne Marina Gr ini Beata Hock Katarzyna Kosmala Pawe Leszkowicz Iliyana Nedkova Agata Rogo Boryana Rossa Aneta Stojni Josip Zanki Preface by Katy Deepwell
