Interpreting German Advanced Language Skills:

Interpreting German - Student Handouts Ursula Böser, Boser Keith Staff, 2004-11 Interpreting German Ursula Bösser, Hugh Keith, 2001

Interpreting German presents a new and original approach to the teaching of spoken Spanish to advanced students. The techniques of liaison interpreting are presented as a highly effective aid to language acquisition and consolidation. This comprehensive course consists of a Student Handout book, a Tutor's Book, and accompanying audio CDs. The Student Handouts form an integral part of the course and have been designed to make the teaching and learning of liaison interpreting as easy as possible. They help students prepare for interpreting exercises and include a variety of features: an introduction to the given topic, highlighting possible problems and strategies for solving them; audio CDs featuring 6 hours of dialogues for practice and revision; exercises related to the audio material which students tackle alone in pairs or as a group; useful vocabulary notes; interpreter's tips focusing on practical ways to improve performance; background notes to the dialogues; fully photocopiable handouts suitable for use both in and outside the classroom. Interpreting German is ideal for those who have not taught interpreting before. The Tutor's Book contains clearly structured teaching materials and practical suggestions on how to use them together with general notes on class design, preparation, feedback, and assessment. The course will improve students' presentational and communication skills in both French and English and motivate them to eliminate linguistic deficiencies of a grammatical and structural nature. While learning new vocabulary and essential speech acts, students are introduced to a wide range of issues and registers.

With the increased interest in study abroad from government educators employers and students the question is is study abroad engendering the desired intercultural competencies and intellectual development To achieve this goal this book proposes two strategies structure study abroad to bridge the separation of academic learning from experiential and intercultural learning and integrate study abroad with the undergraduate curriculum In proposing this integration the editors take into account the need for institutional change and recognize faculty members concerns about maintaining the integrity of the curriculum teaching in areas outside their expertise and keeping up with ever evolving institutional missions This book opens with two chapters presenting different theoretical perspectives relevant to the integration of study abroad into the curriculum The following nine chapters provide examples from a variety of disciplines from anthropology and religious studies to literature urban studies biology and public health and within such contexts as distance learning service learning and the senior thesis The concluding chapter considers faculty development activities and institutional structures and policies that support curriculum integration While the examples are drawn from Beloit College and Kalamazoo College liberal arts colleges with substantial study abroad enrollments and nationally recognized for their innovative practices readers will recognize they are easily adaptable to their own institutions The two colleges achieved their curricular innovations with limited financial resources and in the context that most of their students are dependent on financial aid The transformational ideas and practices described here provide material for reflection and campus conversations for anyone concerned with developing global citizens and well educated students and offer a blueprint for implementation United States Air Force Academy United States Air Force Academy,1968 The 1984 Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services ,1984 The 1980 Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services: Army American Council on Education,1980 The 1984 Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services American Council on Education,1984 The 1980 Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services: Coast Guard, Marine Corps, Navy, Dept. of Defense American Council on Education,1980 Undergraduate Announcement University of Michigan--Dearborn,1983
