Introducing Interpreting Studies Franz Pöchhacker, 2004 This book introduces students researchers and practitioners to the fast developing discipline of Interpreting Studies Ideology and Conference Interpreting Fei Gao, 2023-12-01 Gao uses the case of conference interpreting at the Summer Davos Forum in China to systematically reveal the ways in which ideology and linguistic re engineering can lead to discourse reconstruction Translation and interpreting can never be wholly neutral practices in multi voiced transnational communication Gao employs an innovative methodological synthesis to examine in depth a range of elements surrounding interpreters ideological positioning These include analysing the appraisal patterns of the source and target texts identifying us and them discourse structures investigating interpreters cognitions and examining the crossmodal means by which interpreters render paralanguage Collectively they bridge the gap between socio political and ideological concerns on the one hand and practical questions of discourse reconstruction in cross language cultural events on the other offering a panoramic perspective An invaluable read for scholars in translation and interpreting studies particularly those with an interest in political discourse or the international relations context Interpreter Training in Context

Jie Liu, 2020-10-07 This book addresses an important yet under researched domain in interpreting education how theoretical training models should be responsive to context To do so it applies the linguistic concept of context to interpreting studies by investigating practices in representative conference interpreting training programmes in Europe and

China After presenting an overview of interpreter training programmes the author describes the need to reassess the applicability of the well established and widely accepted model of interpreting from the Paris School ESIT AIIC model to the Chinese interpreting training scene Building on the theoretical study of context in foreign language classrooms suggested by linguists like Halliday and Hasan 1993 Kramsch 1993 and others the author subsequently constructs a new curriculum comprising a four step approach to consecutive interpreting courses in the Chinese context The rationale for such an approach is justified in accordance with the overall design of context taking into account the four dimensions in a teaching learning environment This book is intended for scholars and graduate students who are interested in translation and interpreting applied linguistics as well as foreign language education It also serves as a practical guide for developing university level translation and interpreting programmes
