of social science research have brought us little closer to understanding where when and amongst whom they occur In this groundbreaking book Eric Selbin argues that we need to look beyond the economic political and social structural conditions to the thoughts and feelings of the people who make revolutions In particular he argues we need to understand the stories people relay and rework of past injustices and struggles as they struggle in the present towards a better future Ranging from the French Revolution to the Battle for Seattle via Russia China Cuba Vietnam and Nicaragua Selbin makes the case that it is myth memory and mimesis which create maintain and extend such stories Revolution Rebellion Resistance identifies four kinds of enduring revolutionary story Civilizing and Democratizing The Social Revolution Freedom and Liberation and The Lost and Forgotten which do more than report on events they catalyse changing the world War and Revolution Norman
