Master and Man and Other Stories Leo Tolstoy, 2005-06-30 The ten stories collected in this volume demonstrate Tolstoy's artistic prowess displayed over five decades, experimenting with prose styles and drawing on his own experiences with humour, realism, and compassion. Inspired by his experiences in the army, The Two Hussars contrasts a dashing father and his mean-spirited son. Illustrating Tolstoy's belief that art must serve a moral purpose, What Men Live By portrays an angel sent to earth to learn three existential rules of life, and Two Old Men shows a peasant abandoning his pilgrimage to the Holy Land in order to help his neighbours. And in the highly moving Master and Man, Tolstoy depicts a mercenary merchant travelling with his unprotesting servant through a blizzard to close a business deal, little realizing he may soon have to settle accounts with his maker.

The red and white roses, and other stories (chiefly from the German of Schmid). Johann Christoph von Schmid, 1843      Love After Marriage and Other Stories of the Heart Caroline Lee Hentz, 2020-07-25 Reproduction of the original Love After Marriage and Other Stories of the Heart by Caroline Lee Hentz      The Picture Frame, and Other Stories Robert Drake, 2000 In this book of stories most never before published, Robert Drake has written his most poignant collection thus far. With the theme of the picture frame, Drake has included people, places, and events of a most recent past. Crowded in the picture are unforgettable images of memory and grace, love and remorse. But more than the characters and the subjects of the story, the draw of this collection is once again Drake's use of language. The language is the language of the South. It is the language of humanity. While the stories look back, they do so without regret. They were great times, but so is the present. From the town of Woodville to St Mark's Square in Venice, Drake's powerful language draws the reader not only into the book but also into the photographs.
