Literate America Emerging Seventeen New Readers Speak Out:

Literate America Emerging Gary E. Strong, 1991 Rhetorical Bodies Jack Selzer, Sharon Crowley, 1999 What significance does the physical material body still have in a world of virtual reality and genetic cloning How do technology and postmodern rhetoric influence our understanding of the body And how can our discussion of the body affect the way we handle crises in public policy the politics of race and ethnicity issues of family values that revolve around sexual and gender identities the choices revolving around reproduction and genome projects and the spread of disease Leading scholars in rhetoric and communication as well as literary and cultural studies address some of the most important topics currently being discussed in the human sciences The essays collected here suggest the wide range of public arenas in which rhetoric is operative from abortion clinics and the World Wide Web to the media's depiction of illiteracy and the Donner Party These studies demonstrate how the discourse of AIDS prevention or Demi Moore's beautiful pregnancy call to mind the physical nature of being human and the ways in which language and other symbols reflect and create the physical world The Bookmark New York State Library, 1991 Children's books of 1939 in August issue 1940 Library Literature H.W. American Book Publishing Record, 1992 News, 1988 CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1992 Gail E. Hawisher, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1994-04 The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication offers teachers and researchers an annual classified listing of scholarship on written English and its teaching at the college level The 1992 volume lists and annotates 1 656 articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions were published during the 1992 calendar year A group of 149 contributing bibliographers prepared the citations and annotations for the entries appearing in this volume The CCCC Bibliography includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter Considerably more comprehensive than other bibliographies in composition studies the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws upon a large group of experts in the field to aid teachers and researchers in sorting through a vast body of interdisciplinary material making their work easier and more effective Further the range of texts represented in the CCCC Bibliography has been expanded to include a greater number of entries dealing with feminism critical theory technology and cultural studies as they relate to composition and rhetoric Each document is cited and annotated only once under one of the five major sections of the CCCC Bibliography Each entry however receives an entry number so that cross references to other sections are possible This feature is especially useful because much scholarship in composition and rhetoric is interdisciplinary in nature Cross references appear as a listing of entry numbers preceded by See also found at the ends of subsections Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation Although the CCCC Bibliography excludes master s theses textbooks computer software and book reviews from its coverage it furnishes citations to review essays articles appearing in some 228 journals scholarly monographs and essay collections dissertations abstracted in Dissertation Abstracts International and selected documents and conference materials available through ERIC IDRA Newsletter, 1994 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996 Books in Print, 1991 Improving Literacy in America Frederick J. Morrison, Heather J. Bachman, Carol McDonald Connor, 2008-10-01 divAn alarmingly high number of American students continue to lack proficiency in reading math and science The various attempts to address this problem have all too often resulted in silver bullet solutions such as reducing class size or implementing voucher programs But as the authors of this critically important book show improving literacy also requires an understanding of complex and interrelated social issues that shape a child s learning More than twenty years of research demonstrate that literacy success is determined by a combination of sociocultural forces including parenting preschool classroom instruction and other factors that have a direct impact on a child s development Here Frederick J Morrison Heather J Bachman and Carol McDonald Connor present the most up to date research on the diverse factors that relate to a child s literacy development from preschool through early elementary school Urging greater emphasis on the immediate sources of influence on children the authors warn against simple single solutions that ignore other pivotal aspects of the problem In a concluding chapter the authors propose seven specific recommendations for improving literacy recommendations that can make a real difference in American education DIV Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Speaking Out J. Baxter, 2016-01-26 Focusing on the female voice in public contexts language and gender specialists consider the barriers and opportunities encountered by women in gaining recognition in politics law the church education business and the media where people are increasingly judged by their speech and where male and female speech is often evaluated differently Resources in Education, 2000 Research in Education, 1972
