Thinking with the South Andrea Fleschenberg,Kai Kresse,Rosa Cordillera Castillo,2023-12-04 This volume brings together a series of discussions by scholars from a range of disciplinary trans regional and epistemic perspectives that came out of the Berlin based co2libri networking initiative with longstanding collaborative partners based in the global South Co2libri stands for conceptual collaboration living borderless research interaction As an interdisciplinary and transregional oriented initiative co2libri envisages a multicentric perspective that integrates neglected positions of Southern theory and praxis into the heart of academic conversations Co2libri s collaborative endeavor builds on long standing active connections with partners in Africa South and Southeast Asia and the Middle East Instead of setting an agenda from the North it proposes to figure out ways forward through collaborative engagement building on relationships of mutual trust Using formats that facilitate substantial and open ended discussion we are re thinking theory and method academic practices and research ethics while keeping material inequalities in view Contributors to this edited volume are working toward the implementation of various innovative activities research perspectives and collaboration formats which all subscribe to the principle of dialogue on equal footing with scholars and activists based in divergent positionalities along and beyond the Global North South divide In different ways the authors work toward the goal of producing more adequate and more sensitive critical knowledge and applying a fresh view to approach methods and ethical standards Overall the volume works sometimes in exploratory ways with alternative frames of reference while it presents diverse theorizations of lived experiences

Feminist Literary Criticism Josephine Donovan,1989-09-14 The first major book of feminist critical theory published in the United States is now available in an expanded second edition This widely cited pioneering work presents a new introduction by the editor and a new bibliography of feminist critical theory from the last decade This book has become indispensable to an understanding of feminist theory Contributors include Cheri Register Dorin Schumacher Marcia Holly Barbara Currier Bell Carol Ohmann

Carolyn Heilbrun Catherine Stimpson and Barbara A White Feminist Literary Theory Mary Eagleton, 2010-12-20 Now in its third edition Feminist Literary Theory remains the most comprehensive single volume introduction to a vital and diverse field Fully revised and updated to reflect changes in the field over the last decade Includes extracts from all the major critics critical approaches and theoretical positions in contemporary feminist literary studies Features a new section Writing Global which covers feminism's dialogue with postcolonial global and spatial studies Revised chapter introductions provide readers with helpful contextual information while extensive notes offer recommendations for further reading

Subjectivity and Sexuality in Contemporary Chinese Feminist Writing Ruttapond Swanpitak, 2025-02-17 This book explores representations of female sexuality and subjectivity in contemporary Chinese fiction by three women writers published from 1986 to 2000 from the perspective of poststructuralist feminism It discusses the representative works of authors Wang Anyi Tie Ning and Chi Li who are well known in the Chinese literary field However their works have not to date been analysed through the poststructuralist feminism's notions of subjectivity femininity and transgression This book then provides detailed analysis of each writer and draws comparisons between their works to provide an extended consideration of female sexuality and subjectivity within post Mao Chinese fiction In this respect this book not only offers fresh insights into the three authors fiction but also contributes to the feminist study of Chinese women's writing Additionally the research contributes to a better understanding of contemporary Chinese culture in relation to patriarchy misogyny feminism differences and resistance It is relevant to scholars in the fields of China studies Chinese literature feminist literature and gender studies

Feminism's Progress Carol Colatrella, 2023-08-01 Feminism's Progress builds on more than fifty years of feminist criticism to analyze narrative representations of feminist ideas about women's social roles gender inequities and needed reforms Carol Colatrella argues that popular novels short stories and television shows produced in the United States and Britain from Little Dorrit and Iola Leroy to Call the Midwife and The Closer foster acceptance of feminism by optimistically illustrating its prospects and promises Scholars students and general readers will appreciate the book's sweeping introduction to a host of concerns in feminist theory while applying a gender lens to a wide range of literature and media from the past two centuries In exploring how individuals and communities might reduce bias and discrimination and ensure gender equity these fictions serve as both a measure and a means of feminism's progress

Feminist Literary Theory Yonge Eglinton, 2015-10 Feminist Literary Theory An Introductory Handbook is the first volume in the series Textual Matters The book reviews the most important conversations in feminist literary criticism in an understandable language It also presents feminist concepts with examples of well known literary works in a tangible way Although the book can be an easy and pleasant read for anyone interested in feminism and or literary criticism the main audience of this handbook is novice critics that would like to start engaging more seriously with literary analysis and criticism Feminist Literary Theory An Introductory Handbook has been designed to facilitate students reading and writing about literature The pragmatic approach of this handbook makes readers feel literary theory can be accessible Feminism's Empire Carolyn J. Eichner, 2022-06-15

Feminism's Empire investigates the complex relationships between imperialisms and feminisms in the late nineteenth century and demonstrates the challenge of conceptualizing pro imperialist and anti imperialist as binary positions By intellectually and spatially tracing the era's first French feminists engagement with empire Carolyn J Eichner explores how feminists opposed yet employed approaches to empire in writing speaking and publishing In differing ways they ultimately tied forms of imperialism to gender liberation Among the era's first anti imperialists French feminists were enmeshed in the hierarchies and epistemologies of empire They likened their gender based marginalization to imperialist oppressions Imperialism and colonialism's gendered and sexualized racial hierarchies established categories of inclusion and exclusion that rested in both universalism and ideas of nature that presented colonized people with theoretical yet impossible paths to integration Feminists faced similar barriers to full incorporation due to the gendered contradictions inherent in universalism The system presumed citizenship to be male and thus positioned women as outsiders Feminism's Empire connects this critical struggle to hierarchical power shifts in racial and national status that created uneasy linkages between French feminists and imperial authorities
