Literature Partition And The Nation State:

Literature, Partition and the Nation-State Joseph N. Cleary, 2002-01-03 The history of partition in the twentieth century is one steeped in controversy and violence Literature Partition and the Nation State offers an extended study of the social and cultural legacies of state division in Ireland and Palestine two regions where the trauma of partition continues to shape political events to this day Focusing on the period since the 1960s when the original partition settlements in each region were challenged by Irish and Palestinian nationalists Joe Cleary s book contains individual chapters on nationalism and self determination on the construction of national literatures in the wake of state division and on influential Irish Israeli and Palestinian writers film makers and public intellectuals Cleary s book is a radical and enthralling intervention into contemporary scholarship from a range of disciplines on nations and nationalism It will be of interest to scholars in Cultural and Post Colonial Studies Nations and Nationalism Irish Literature Middle East Studies and Modern History Literature, Community, and the Nation-state Bede Tregear Scott, 2006 Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective Anna Ball, 2012-11-27 Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective is the first sustained study of gender consciousness in the Palestinian creative imagination Drawing on concepts from postcolonial feminist theory Ball analyses a range of literary and filmic works by major creative practitioners including Michel Khleifi Liana Badr Annemarie Jacir Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum and Suheir Hammad and reveals a hitherto unrecognized trajectory in gender consciousness under development in the Palestinian imagination from the start of the twentieth century The book explores how these works resonate with questions of power identity nation resistance and self representation in the Palestinian imagination more broadly and asks how these gender conscious narratives transform our understanding of Palestine s struggle for postcoloniality Working at the cusp of postcolonial feminist and cultural enquiry Ball seeks to open up vital new directions in the interdisciplinary study of Palestine The Cambridge Companion to Twentieth-Century Literature and Politics Christos Hadjiyiannis, Rachel Potter, 2022-12-15 For a long time people had been schooled to think of modern literature s relationship to politics as indirect or obscure and often to find the politics of literature deep within its unconsciously ideological structures and forms But twentieth century writers were directly involved in political parties and causes and many viewed their writing as part of their activism This Companion tell a story of the rich and diverse ways in which literature and politics over the twentieth century coincided overlapped and also clashed Covering some of the century s most influential political ideas moments and movements nineteen academic experts uncover new ways of thinking about the relationship between literature and politics Liberalism communism fascism suffragism pacifism federalism different nationalisms civil rights women s rights sexual rights Indigenous rights environmentalism neoliberalism twentieth century authors wrote in direct response to political movements ideas events and campaigns Positioning Gender and Race in (Post)colonial Plantation Space E. Stoddard, 2012-11-09 Stoddard uses the Anglophone Caribbean and Ireland to examine the complex inflections of women and race as articulated in between the colonial discursive and material formations of the eighteenth century and those of the post colonial twentieth century as structured by the defined spaces of the colonizers estates

Parting Gifts of Empire Esmat Elhalaby, 2025-09-30 Parting Gifts of Empire narrates an untold story of how Arabs and South Asians in the twentieth century sought to decolonize their minds The histories of Palestine and India both partitioned by the British Empire were intimately linked In the face of the same imperially created chasm intellectuals in Africa and Asia reinvigorated centuries of shared histories to forge new horizons new solidarities new institutions and new fields of knowledge In this book Esmat Elhalaby traces the forgotten lives of scholars like Wadi al Bustani revisits Arab and Indian feminist meetings highlights gatherings such as Delhi s 1947 Asian Relations Conference and argues for the centrality of Palestine to the rise of Third Worldism This book breaks new ground to unfold a global intellectual history of anticolonialism Asian unity pan Islamism and nonalignment in the making of what became known as the Global South

Children's Literature Pat Pinsent, 2016-04-08 This invaluable Guide surveys the key critical works and debates in the vibrant field of children s literature since its inception Leading expert Pat Pinsent combines a chronological overview of developments in the genre with analysis of key theorists and theories and subject specific methodologies

Official Voices: Poets and the Irish State Karl O'Hanlon, 2025-03-21 Official Voices Poets and the Irish State examines the poet politicians and bureaucrats who shaped the twenty six county Irish state from its pre history in the revolutionary period through its foundation in 1922 and complicated modernisation in the 1960s to the outbreak of the Troubles Poet officials juggled writing the state and navigating the force field between poetry and politics with poetic form registering the aftershocks of this collusive antagonism Combining political history cultural history and literary criticism the book grapples with major issues in the state s history revolution state violence insurgency against the state patriarchy partition modernisation as well as socialist and feminist alternatives to conservative nationalism Poets examined in the book include W B Yeats Ezra Pound Desmond FitzGerald Denis Devlin Joseph Campbell Valentin Iremonger Eithne Strong M ire Mhac an tSaoi and Thomas Kinsella It draws on new archival work in state archives and literary collections and situates the Irish state and Irish poetry within a transnational frame Taking up the relationship of poetry to politics and poet officials to state governance it tackles a perennial question what did poetry make happen and not happen in the twenty six counties This book is about acknowledged legislators poetry s formal vigilance and how poets apprehended consciously and unconsciously the recalcitrant workings of power

Ireland and the British Empire Kevin Kenny, 2004-05-27 Modern Irish history was determined by the rise expansion and decline of the British Empire And British imperial history from the age of Atlantic expansion to the age of decolonization was moulded in part by Irish experience But the nature of Ireland's position in the Empire has always been a matter of contentious dispute Was Ireland a sister kingdom and equal partner in a larger British state Or was it because of its proximity and strategic importance the Empire's most subjugated colony Contemporaries disagreed strongly on these questions and historians continue to do so Questions of this sort can only be answered historically Ireland's relationship with Britain and the Empire developed and changed over time as did the Empire itself This book offers the first comprehensive history of the subject from the early modern era through the contemporary period The contributors seek to specify the nature of Ireland's entanglement with empire over time from the conquest and colonization of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries through the consolidation of Ascendancy rule in the eighteenth the Act of Union in the period 1801-1921 the emergence of an Irish Free State and Republic and eventual withdrawal from the British Commonwealth in 1948 They also consider the participation of Irish people in the Empire overseas as soldiers administrators merchants migrants and missionaries the influence of Irish social administrative and constitutional precedents in other colonies and the impact of Irish nationalism and independence on the Empire at large The result is a new interpretation of Irish history in its wider imperial context which is also filled with insights on the origins expansion and decline of the British Empire This book offers the first comprehensive history of Ireland and the British Empire from the early modern era through the contemporary period The contributors examine each phase of Ireland's entanglement with the Empire from conquest and colonisation to independence along with the extensive participation of Irish people in the Empire overseas and the impact of Irish politics and nationalism on other British colonies The result is a new interpretation of Irish history in its wider imperial context which is also filled with insights on the origins expansion and decline of the British Empire

SERIES DESCRIPTION The purpose of the five volumes of the Oxford History of the British Empire was to provide a comprehensive study of the Empire from its beginning to end the meaning of British imperialism for the ruled as well as the rulers and the significance of the British Empire as a theme in world history The volumes in the Companion Series carry forward this purpose by exploring themes that were not possible to cover adequately in the main series and to provide fresh interpretations of significant topics

Twentieth-Century Irish Literature Aaron Kelly, 2008-06-02 This Guide surveys existing criticism and theory making clear the key critical debates themes and issues surrounding a wide variety of Irish poets playwrights and novelists It relates Irish literature to debates surrounding issues such as national identity modernity and the Revival period armed struggle gender sexuality and post colonialism

Modernism, Empire, World Literature Joe Cleary, 2021-06-17 After World War I American Irish and then Caribbean writers boldly remade the world literary system long dominated by Paris and London Responding to literary renaissances and social upheavals in their own countries and to the decline of war devastated Europe migrant and domestic based writers produced dazzling new works that challenged London's or Paris's authority to fix and determine literary value In so doing they propounded new conceptions of aesthetic accomplishment that were later codified as modernism However after World War II an assertive American literary establishment repurposed literary modernism to boost the cultural prestige of the United States in the Cold War and to contest Soviet conceptions of world literature Here in accomplished readings of major works and essays by Henry James Ezra Pound W B Yeats T S Eliot James Joyce F Scott Fitzgerald Eugene O'Neill and Derek Walcott Joe Cleary situates Anglophone modernism in terms of the rise and fall of European and American empires changing world literary systems and disputed histories of world literature

Culture/nation/state Saadia Toor, 2005 Reimagining Israel and Palestine in Contemporary British and German Culture Isabelle Hesse, 2024-03-05 Isabelle Hesse identifies an important relational turn in British and German literature TV drama and film published and produced since the First Palestinian Intifada 1987-1993 This turn manifests itself on two levels one in representing Israeli and Palestinian histories and narratives as connected rather than separate and two by emphasising the links between the current situation in Israel and the Occupied Palestinian Territories and the roles that the United Kingdom and Germany have played historically and continue to play in the region This relational turn constitutes a significant shift in representations of Israel and Palestine in British and German culture as these depictions move beyond an engagement with the Holocaust and Jewish suffering at the expense of Palestinian suffering and indicate a willingness to represent and acknowledge British and German involvement in Israeli and Palestinian politics This book offers new ways of thinking about how Israel and Palestine are imagined and reimagined as topics of cultural and political interest in two countries that have had complicated histories with both Israel and Palestine histories which are marked by each country's memories of the Holocaust and colonialism

The Bloomsbury Introduction to Postcolonial Writing Jenni Ramone, 2017-11-16 Covering a wide range of textual forms and geographical locations The Bloomsbury Introduction to Postcolonial Writing New Contexts New Narratives New Debates is an advanced introduction to prominent issues in contemporary postcolonial literary studies With chapters written by leading scholars in the field The Bloomsbury Introduction to Postcolonial Writing includes Explorations of key contemporary topics from ecocriticism refugeeism economics faith and secularism and gender and sexuality to the impact of digital humanities on postcolonial studies Introductions to a wide range of genres from the novel theatre and poetry to life writing graphic novels film and games In depth analysis of writing from many postcolonial regions including Africa South Asia the Caribbean and Latin America and African American writing Covering Anglophone and Francophone texts and contexts and tackling the relationship between postcolonial studies and world literature with a glossary of key critical terms this is an essential text for all students and scholars of contemporary postcolonial studies

Poets and Partitions Jon Curley, 2011 Offers a comprehensive analysis of Northern Irish poetry focusing on the colonial political and cultural underpinnings that have shaped artistic expression in a variety of ways This book also focuses on both the better known contemporary Northern Irish poets as well as their more obscure but no less significant counterparts

Migration, Identity and Resistance in the Postcolonial Nation-State

Sk Sagir Ali, Tanmoy Kundu, Saikat Sarkar, Sanjoy Saren, 2025-02-25 This volume represents a significant contribution to the fields of migration studies postcolonial theory and critical geography It critically engages with the intersections of power space and identity to deepen our understanding of the challenges and possibilities of negotiating citizenship and belonging in an increasingly interconnected and precarious world The book interrogates the construction of nationalist narratives and their role in perpetuating exclusionary paradigms which marginalize certain demographic segments and reinforce hierarchical notions of belonging Further it examines the bio political mechanisms that engender conditions of precarity reshaping conceptions of citizenship and nationhood in response to environmental degradation population control policies and state surveillance The essays in the volume delve into the diverse factors driving displacement encompassing both state driven policies of engineered displacement and environmental factors such as climate change resource depletion and natural disasters They also focus on the marginalized spaces of displacement and explore how these sites become loci of resistance and incubators of alternative forms of belonging Interdisciplinary in its approach and rigorous in its empirical analysis the volume will stimulate further research provoke new questions and inspire transformative interventions in the fields of migration and diaspora studies literary and cultural studies politics and political processes and sustainability studies

Imagining Ireland Abroad, 1904-1945 Lili Zách, 2021-07-29 Offering a unique account of identity formation in Ireland and Central Europe this book explores and contextualises transfers and comparisons between Ireland and the successor states of the Austro Hungarian Empire It reveals how Irish perceptions of borders and identities changed after the re birth of the small states of Austria Hungary and Czechoslovakia and the creation of the Irish Free State Adopting a transnational approach the book documents the outward looking attitude of Irish nationalists and provides original insights into the significance of personal encounters that transcended the borders of nation states Drawing on a wide range of official records private papers contemporary press accounts and journal articles Imagining Ireland Abroad 1904 1945 bridges the gap between historiographies of the East and West by opening up a new perspective on Irish national identity

Issues of Identity in Indian English Fiction H. S. Komalesha, 2008 Rapid developments in the fields of trade market commerce and telecommunication technologies together with cultural confrontations at the global level are creating a paradigmatic shift in people's understanding of selfhood and identity This book makes a serious attempt to trace and map out the making of contemporary post national identities within the subcontinental cultural production of India and in its English Fiction One of the structural ventures of this study is that these newer identities which are basically fragmented ruptured hyphenated and palimpsestic in nature require new descriptions and new elaborations within the field of creative literature and literary criticism In order to pursue its research on these lines the present work contrasts the notion of subjecthood and identity with the earlier phases of Indian cultural imagination as represented in some of the pioneering works of Indian English Fiction that have now attained a canonical status By analysing some of the predominant concerns that work as leitmotif in most of the Indian English novels the book brings together and reinterprets some problematic concepts such as history culture religion nation and nationalism and creates a theoretical axis upon which it charts insightful and engaging aspects of selfhood and identity After Said Bashir Abu-Manneh, 2019 This book focuses on the problems and opportunities afforded by Edward Said's work and develops a materialist critique of postcolonial studies
